

CODE OF LAW

COMMONWEALTH OF LIBERTY

PART I – ON THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE COL

I – Citizenship in the Commonwealth of Liberty

Article 1 – A citizen of the Commonwealth of Liberty is a nation who:

- Is a member of the World Assembly (WA)
- Has not yet been banned from the Commonwealth of Liberty

Article 2 – A resident of the Commonwealth of Liberty is nation who resides in the region of the Commonwealth of Liberty but has not yet been entitled land on the official map of the Commonwealth of Liberty by the Administration.

Article 3 – A nation who has been ejected from the World Assembly is still a citizen, if this nation has a puppet nation in the World Assembly.

II – On the Immigration of a citizen

1- On the changes of regions

Article 4 – Any nation is free to leave the region of the Commonwealth of Liberty.

Article 5 – Citizens leaving the region are not obliged to give up their land on the map depending

- On the time of their stay in another region
- Whether the citizen left on good or bad terms

Article 6 – A citizen will leave in bad terms if:

- He was banned by the Justice Commission or the Attorney General
- He left the region by rage, anger, and reasons hostile to others and the region in general.

Article 7 – Citizens leaving the region will have their land kept and protected as long as they don't leave the region for more than a week.

Article 8 – Citizens leaving after a week, will be accepted and have their land returned by a decision from the justice commission depending if he left on good or bad terms.

Article 8-1 – If a citizen period of leave exceeds three weeks, his land cannot be returned, but his return to the region can be accepted by approval from the Justice Commission and/or the Attorney General if the citizen left the region on bad terms

Article 8-2 - . If the nation left on good terms, he is free to return to the region, and be entitled as a citizen, and have the right to claim free land. In case his previous land is occupied, he cannot take it back unless the new owner agrees.

Article 9 – Citizens being banned are to leave their land from the map and leave the region immediately.

Article 9-1 – Citizens being banned are not entitled to one week grace period.

Article 10 – Citizens being banned can return to the region only if the Justice Commission agrees, or the Attorney General, or by Popular Vote.