

Which one do YOU most like?

Minecraft is an open world or sandbox game where players can acquire and use many different blocks to build whatever they want to build. The success of Minecraft has led to many mods and spin-off games as well as official releases on many gaming platforms. Updates continue to add mobs and blocks, as well as biomes.

Since its inception, Minecraft has had a close relationship with Youtube. Content creators attract millions of viewers every month with videos that showcase their build, PvP and parkour abilities. GoToQuiz is soon to add more quizzes to YT Minecrafters!
