Website Development E-commerce Shopify Dropshipping Solutions

Your only dedicated identity on the internet is the website that depicts all about you and your business the more it is crafted and assembled with consolidation the more it depicts ideology to your customer. Our committed team of UI/UX, Front-end designing, and back-end development create a vivid website that talks. A devoted project manager indulges the customer-centric approach, SEO friendliness, responsiveness, technology unions, and mobile-first and audits it from every edge before it went to the unbiased quality assurer. An efficient team followed by DevOps is fully capable to develop a custom website from scratch with modern elements. Our web designers have converted tens of hundred PSD to Html pages.

We are experts in providing every kind of eCommerce solution without exception. DataMinds Technologies has a strong portfolio in building, managing, and customizing cutting-edge eCommerce platforms like WordPress, Magento, Shopify, OpenCart, and many others in a row.

WordPress Development
We kept a deep eye on trending technologies for providing our clients with consistently great solutions that are most beneficial to them. A dedicated expert WordPress development team is ready to build contemporary websites that turn your business on within days even hours. From WordPress theme customization, PSD to WordPress page, and plugin customization to every kind of e-commerce solution we can build astonishing SEO-friendly market-ready websites. Yes, we do WooCommerce proficiently to build customized e-commerce solutions. Including, multi-vendor, B2B e-commerce solutions, dropshipping solutions, and can deal from liquid to geometric and solid, any kind of products you sell.

Shopify
Those who look for a quick e-commerce solution for setting up and starting their drop shipping and other kinds of business, quickly. We recommend Shopify and offer great support from configuration, integration, deployment, and customization to custom development of required functionalities as a plugin, so that they can start counting sales from the next day.

Magento
In our web development division, our experts are enough confident to build your brand store on Magento, the leading e-commerce solution and platform of the time. In our portfolio, we have developed several Magento-based e-commerce solutions that are already in business and attribute DataMinds Technologies as their success partners. We offer a complete e-commerce solution that runs on Magento from scratch and can also work on your existing Magento store to upgrade, modifies, and customize it the way you need it.

Open Cart

Every e-commerce solutions bring different functionalities that slightly differ according to your niche market. DataMinds Technologies stands by every technology and always remained up to date for providing its expertise on demanding eCommerce solutions. E-commerce Website and qualified open cart development team is all set to kick off the project by discussing and start building your very own open cart eCommerce store with all customizations, features, and functionalities that you needed