Education Offices: Hint of Move Historic File Caste "Dangerous"

Hon. Treasurer H. Gourlay, Kirkcaldy, who was told at Tuesday's meeting of the County Council that in the estimate for the conversion of the County Council Buildings at Cupar.

The matter arose when he asked whether the building had been built in constant danger of an accident. Some years ago a local girl climbed to the top and fell. She is still a cripple as a result of her fall.

"Within a short time," he said, "we expect a playgroup to be started near from this site. It will be attracted to it more than ever. If the place is to be a landmark or historic monument, it should be made more attractive as a 'fenced off' area."

The Clerk was instructed to find out who are the owners of the ground on which the ruins stand.
