Story

Once upon a time, there were two friends. One was “Ahmed” and the Second was “Aayan”. They lived in Rahim-Yar-Khan, Pakistan. One Sunday, they both decided to play football in a park.

So they wake up in the morning and get ready to go. Ahmed went out and reached Aayan’s home. Then, Aayan also came out. Ahmed said, “Let’s go!”

When they reached the park, Aayan said, “Give me the ball.” Ahmed looked confused and then answered quickly, “OH! I forgot it at home!” Aayan became a little angry. Then Ahmed went inside his house and came out with the football. Then they again started to go.

When they were walking on the road, there was sewage but its cap was opened to the side.

Ahmed accidentally dropped the football into the sewage. Aayan scolded Ahmed, “Ahmed what have you done? Now, who will get the ball out?!” Then they went to Ahmed’s home again. Ahmed took some money from his father and got out.

When they reached the market, a very bad thing happened to them. The shopkeeper was going to give us a football, but suddenly someone called him on the phone. He picked up the phone and said, “Okay.” Then he ended the call. After that, he said to us, “Sorry kid, the dollar price has become 5 rupees more. So you need to give me 5 rupees more to get the football.”

Then they again went to Ahmed’s house. Ahmed took more money from the house and got out. Then they again went to the market and finally bought the football. Then they went inside the park. But when they just started to play the football blasted because it was of extremely low quality.

Then they again went to the shop and bought a high-quality football. When they reached the park again, they saw a gardener working in the park so it was not allowed to come inside. Ahmed said to Aayan, “Now what?” Aayan replied, “Hmm... Let’s go to another park.” Both agreed.

After that, they went to another park and saw that the whole park had been destroyed and a new market would be built there.

Then they went to another park, but they saw that a school was having a cricket match there so we were not allowed to go inside.

Now they were 1 kilometre away from their home. Then we went to another park. That park had a signboard on its wall. “The best park in the world.” Aayan read it. They went inside with happiness and came out with sadness. It was the worst park in the world. Its grass was rough, the ground was dirty etc.

Then, finally, they found a good park. But when they just started to play, they saw that it was going to be sunset. They have to move toward their homes because their mother hasn't allowed them to be outside after sunset. Ahmed said, "I think football is not allowed today." Aayan sighed and replied, "Yeah, you are right." Then they went quietly to their home.
