- Only 3 medical rooms in the 3rd deck, 2 in the 4th/5th decks.
- Voyage includes sailing through human territorial waters for first 3 weeks, refueling, then continuing on untamed waters for the next 5 weeks.
- Untamed waters contain extreme weather conditions and flying creatures, therefore ship's dome won't be opened.
- Arrive at the "New Continent(Fake)" then transfer to Morel's ship.
- Small island is situated there to establish relay point, Knov will manage traffic of goods and personnel, Tokyarine will manage transportation from Dark Continent to relay point.
- Kanzai, Saccho and Saiyu are guarding Beyond's cell.
- Mention of a "Labyrinth City" by the secretary documenting Beyond's trip.
- Deck 3: Botobai in Central Courthouse.
- Deck 4: Kakin Troops meeting room.
- Woody dead in the toilet, blood drained, Nen assumed.
- Kachou proposes alliance with sister Fugetsu, claiming she'll ask the King to let her live if they kill all the other princes.
- Melody claims Kachou's "entire self is a lie."
- More guards found dead, Kurapika reveals the reason for the voyage(Succession War).
- Royal Family assigned 7 guards for Oito(each a spy for another wife), upper rank wives get to assign spies for lower rank ones.
- 11th Prince Fugetsu - 2 bodyguards chosen by her mother Queen Seiko, 5 guards chosen by Queen Unma(Tserriednich and Benjamin's mother) and Queen Swinko-swinko(Sale-sale's mother).
- 12 Prince Momoze - 1 bodyguard chosen by her mother Queen Sevanchi, 6 bodyguards chosen by Queen Unma and Queen Seiko.
- 14th Prince Woble - 7 bodyguards chosen by Queen Unma and Queen Sevanchi.
- Parasite-Type Nen Beasts, sucking aura from their hosts, acting on their own(protecting/attacking their hosts).
- Multiple Nen Beasts appear.
- Kurapika uses emergency channels to inform all princes and bodyguards of Nen Beasts.
- Sairid, one of the guards, controlled by "Are ya free?" Nen Beast, stabbed another guard to death. Kurapika apprehended him, "borrowed" his ability with Steal Chain, sucking his aura using his index finger chain.
- 8-legged creature was inside Sairid's ear.
- Emperor Time has to be active for Steal Chain, borrowed powers return after one use. Sairid handed over to authorities.
- Woble's bodyguards went from 11 to 2 in only a couple of hours.
- Bill's two methods for withdrawing from the succession war: One is dangerous, involves Pariston. Other is more dangerous, involves Beyond.
- Prince Halkenburg approaches King Nasubi, tries to withdraw from succession war.
- Tserriednich and Tubepa alliance, meeting again next Sunday "if Tubepa is still alive."
- Guardian Beast rules:
- 1 - Spirit Beasts may not kill on another.

- 2 - Spirit Beasts may not directly attack a human whom another Spirit Beast is protecting.
- Pot was built by King Kakin's ancestor, children fought for unification of the empire.
- 200,000 "offerings" for Nen Beasts on the boat.
- Luzurus plans to go for Tubeppa first, not interested in learning Nen.
- Halkenburg's bodyguards killed.
- Theta intimidated into teaching Tserriednich Nen.
- Each bodyguard for Woble assigned by another Queen assumed to have been killed by their respective Queens to deflect suspicion.
- Camilla requests to King Nasubi that nothing short of biological death should count as "dropping out" from the succession war, he responds by telling her how she interprets "survive" is also part of the succession war.
- Benjamin appears, Camilla is seemingly putting on an arrogant brat persona.
- Benjamin leaves, wants to kill them all now, gives orders to captain of troops to bring him Tserriednich alive in order to kill him himself.
- Benjamin can use Nen, still can't see Nen Beasts.
- Benjamin decides to wait instead of trying to attack due to the factor of Nen Beasts being announced.
- Benjamin summons all his private soldiers, instructs them to act as bodyguards for the royal family, working in shifts for other princes, and reporting their actions. He tells them to pay attention to the Nen Beasts and the Hunters' abilities. Finally, he tells them to defend themselves by any means necessary, and gives them permission to kill their opponents.
- Normally only the King's official troops are allowed to be assigned to other princes, but Benjamin being the military supreme vice counselor allows him to also do so.
- Camilla orders her guards to kill Benjamin's troops on sight if they even took one step in her living room.
- Benjamin orders his guard to tell Benjamin's troops that they're fools and that he's in the middle of his Nen meditation.
- Tubeppa commands her troops to get information on Kurapika.
- Vincent arrives at Woble's quarters, immediately kills her attendant Sandra in alleged self-defense.
- Kurapika calls him an assassin, figures he wants to leave Oito and Woble alone with Shimono for the next assassin to kill and make it look like a double murder-suicide.
- Vincent asks for cooperation, Kurapika calls him scum.
- Kurapika activates Emperor Time, sticks Oito with a needle after confirmed that she trusted him. They are connected by the dolphin, who transfers the "Little Eye" Nen ability on to Oito. This is Kurapika's "Stealth Dolphin" ability.
- Bill approaches Vincent, blocks bullets with his aura.
- Kurapika sticks Vincent with Steal Chain to drain his aura, possible now that he doesn't have a stolen ability in it. Kurapika and Bill apprehend Vincent. Vincent dies, having had poisoned himself, Kurapika decides to hand him over to the royal family.

- Benjamin and Balsamilco were spying in on the entire ordeal, decide to instruct troops to immediately use their Nen abilities when they decide to act in self-defense. Benjamin commands Bhavimania to take over for Vincent.
- Emperor Time's rule revealed: While activated, every second shortens its user's life-span by one hour.
- Three calls all at once asking to speak to Kurapika: Benjamin, Tubeppa, Zhang Lei.
- Bhavimania appears at their door. Kurapika cautious, not wanting to instigate a war between any of the princes.
- Kurapika tells Shimano to ask Bhavimania to wait outside. He then asks her to connect him to Benjamin, tells Bill to watch over Bhavimania. Kurapika shocked to find out Shimano connected him to Zhang Lei instead.
- Zhang Lei proposes Kurapika come to his room and tell him about Nen, in exchange for information. Kurapika accepts and confirms Oito and Woble would be allowed to accompany him there.
- Kurapika tries to answer Benjamin immediately afterwards, he has already hung up.
- Kurapika then answers Tubeppa, Second Lieutenant Maor answers and proposes a truce in exchange for information on Nen Beasts. Kurapika agrees, has them wait an hour before meeting.
- Kurapika asks Shimano why she connected him to Zhang Lei instead of Benjamin. She informs him that her impressions were: Benjamin would only want to kill them after the death of his subordinate(Vincent), Zhang Lei can be cruel or kind based on the situation, and Tubeppa would not take waiting as an insult.
- Kurapika admits to himself that Shimano's judgements have been correct so far, he asks her what they should do about Bhavimania. Shimano instructs to let him in, as he's an upper rank soldier who's also part of the King's personal army. They'd be detained if they refuse to let him in, and that will make it easier to Bhavimania to dispose of the Queen and Prince in a way that makes it look like the Queen killed herself and the Prince.
- Kurapika informs Bhavimania that they will be heading to Zhang Lei's room as they were invited. Bhavimania decides to not accompany them and simply wait in their room.
- Bill is left with Bhavimania, and Kurapika informs him to tell Tubeppa that the problem has been solved should they contact.
- Kurapika and Oito meet with Zhang Lei. Kurapika explains Nen and Nen Beasts to him, as well as the nature of the Succession War. Conventoba(Benjamin's bodyguard) and Slacker(2nd Queen Duazul's bodyguard) are in the meeting, Kurapika unsure whether to have the conversation there.
- 4 hours since departure. Hanzo and Biscuit are guarding Prince Marayam rather than Momoze at the orders of Queen Sevanti. They notice that Marayam's Nen Beast has gotten bigger.
- Guards Victo(Benjamin), Niaper(Queen Duazul), Brazzi(Queen Tang Zhao Li), Laloch(Queen Katrono), Toughdy(Queen Swinko-swinko), Nagomamu(Queen Seiko) each decide to take advantage of the situation and plot to assassinate Momoze.
- Halkenburg awake, his bodyguards there, he questions whether it was a dream. A Leaf symbol is on the back of his palm.

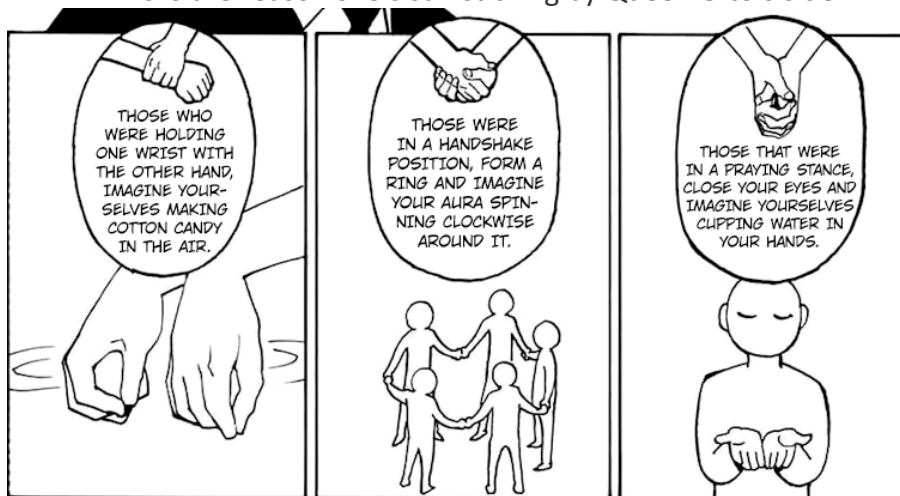

- Sale-sale claims he has a plan, at the next dinner banquet “the world is gonna change.”
- Maor(Tupebba’s guard) heads over to Woble’s room after the issue is resolved.
- Tserriednich is revealed to be a Nen Genius at the beginning of his training with Theta.
- Zhang Lei sends two of his bodyguards(Sakata, Hashitou) to guard Woble until the next dinner banquet.
- 1st Queen Unma and 2nd Queen Duazul are working together to observe and report on the lower princes, Mandom(Duazul’s captain of bodyguards) is acting as a coordinator to make sure this happens.
- Queen Duazul commands Slacker to join Zhang Lei’s guards to go guard Woble.
- Camilla decides to kill Benjamin first, then Halkenburg. She commands her mother to get closer to Halkenburg. Musse(Benjamin’s soldier) is listening in on this, and decides to send his bird(Nen ability) to gather some evidence on it.
- Benjamin decides to gather information on the abilities of Woble’s guards, and sends Furykov.
- Chrollo is in the lower decks, looks ready to kill someone.
- Kurapika gathers the guards present in the living room and tells them about Nen and Nen Beasts, he leaves Bill and Shimano to look for an insect for Oito to use the Little Eye Nen ability.
- Kurapika spots a cockroach, Oito commands the guards to capture it due to it being “filthy.”
- Bill feigns capturing it with a Nen ability, when in reality Oito used Little Eye to do so.
- Oito lays down with her eyes closed and covered, and starts to control the cockroach, while Kurapika continues explaining Nen to the other guards. Kurapika proposes that he teaches Nen to them and all the other princes’ bodyguards.
- Oito observes prince Marayam and his Nen Beast through the cockroach. She goes to observe prince Momoze’s room next, and witnesses her getting choked to death by an assailant, she loses her calm and goes to help.
- There were 6 guards in Momoze’s room, 2 of them were on break. Queen Sevanchi screams for their execution as they are detained.
- Kurapika and the other guards speculate that Momoze’s Nen Beast was among the ones who had attacked them earlier, which drained her aura and made her vulnerable for the attack. Bill stresses the advantage of giving out Nen information to gain alliances, including with Tserriednich.
- Bhavimania and Sakata leave in order to ease Queen Oito’s state of mind. Oito then continues her surveillance of the other princes.
- Bill confirms with Kurapika that 10 princes(apart from the 2nd and 6th, Camilla and Tyson) have agreed to send their guards to learn about Nen, at 9 AM the following day. He mentions that the Hunters will be there to corroborate their statements.
- Bill suggests a limit of only 2 guards per prince, for security reasons.
- As Bill was about to mention a second concern about Zhang Lei, Kurapika faints.
- Hanzo is furious over Momoze’s death, and intends to go after the assassin before they strike again. He suspects that their ability is a clone, possibly they weren’t among the 6 guards in Momoze’s room.

- Hanzo and Bisky suspect that it was a guard taking a break, due to needing to focus on the clone ability alone. Hanzo swears to make them pay.
- Tserriednich has learned to gain a working command of Gyo in half a day. He mentions to Theta that a phone call from Woble's guard (patched through by Zhang Lei) says they could teach them Nen in 2 weeks. He points out that it's different from what Theta had informed him, having had said that grasping the very basics would take half a year. Tserried asks which of them is lying, threatening to kill Theta. She tells him that they might be bluffing, or they might have a method for teaching Nen that isn't proper. One wrong step means death for Theta.
- 18 hours since departure. Kurapika wakes up, Bill informs him that the others thought he was still awake and on duty. He mentions Kurapika was out for 9 hours, and that Oito passed out around the same time he did. Kurapika realized Emperor Time had been active for the past 12 hours.
- Kurapika speculates that Emperor Time has a limit of 3 hours continuous use, and going over that would result in a 9 hour blackout. He also speculates that might vary depending on the stolen ability's potency.
- Kurapika tells Oito to observe Tserriednich next, as she wonders if this is another one of his self-preserving tactics.. He wants to save Benjamin for last considering the risk of his private guards being Nen users. He mentions that the fact that Camilla passed on their proposal means she also most likely has a Nen user among her guards. Shimono agrees, noting Camilla doesn't take an audience with anyone other than the King himself. Kurapika adds that they already have a good connection with 3rd Prince Zhang Lei. Kurapika asks Oito to trust him, and Woble reaches out to him.
- Oito is frightened by Tserriednich's Nen Beast as she tries to enter his room through the insect, and the ability is forcefully deactivated when the bug is disposed of.
- Oito asks Kurapika to teach her Nen. Kurapika asks her to forgive him, as without telling her about it his ability has already awakened her Nen.
- Day 2 – 9 AM, Kurapika's Nen meeting with the guards:
  - 13th Prince Marayam: Vereleinte(Nen user confirming accuracy of lessons), Barigen(learning Nen)
  - 11th Prince Fuugetsu: Iraludia(Civillian Maid), Radiolas(Civillian Maid)
  - 10th Prince Kachou: Loveely(Civillian Maid), Yuuri(Civillian Maid)
  - 9th Prince Halckenburg: Cejour, Yuhirai
  - 8th Prince Sale-sale: Muchaho
  - 7th Prince Luzurus: Satobi
  - 5th Prince Tubeppa: Maor, Longi
  - 4th Prince Tserriednich: Muhan, Danjin – Under orders to “kill them all” if they are unable to learn Nen in the assigned 2 weeks, apparently will not even attempt to learn.
  - 3rd Prince Zhang Lei: Tenfutori
  - 1st Prince Benjamin: Furykov

- Furykov mentions his method of differentiating Nen users to those who cannot use Nen: A shaking around the circumference of the eye. He thinks that 4 others other than the Hunters are pretending to not know to use Nen.
- "Silent Majority" revealed, mysterious Nen ability, "A wolf among the herd."
- Silent Majority is looking for the perfect time to kill as Kurapika explains Nen. Loveely is being possessed by Silent Majority, and the only ones who can see its doll are her and the user.
- Muhan, Tserriednich's guard, is trying to provoke Kurapika, asks him to keep his promise.
- Kurapika provokes Muhan back. Muhan approaches angrily but Kurapika points a gun at his direction, Danjin calms his fellow bodyguard down.
- Silent Majority's user mentions Muhan is drawing attention away from them, and that he isn't among the 10 targets. If Silent Majority is unable to kill one target, the curse is turned on its user. Tsuchibokko(snake creatures) are ready attack with Silent Majority.
- Furykov mentions that Enhancers and Transmuters have a soft and quiet Ten around the bodypart that activates their favorite attacks, while for Emitters and Manipulators the Ten surrounding that area grows larger. Should they try to intentionally shrink it, the color will become darker(presumably the same goes for Conjurers).
- The other guards introduce themselves. Oito trains her Nen with Bill, who thinks she will be the type that takes a lot of time.
- Bhavimania has released his En in concern for Oito, he and Furykov have both assessed that Kurapika has an ability to force confessions. Bhavimania mentions Kurapika most likely has another ability, that he was unable to confirm Woble's Nen Beast, and that Bill's abilities remain unknown. He estimates he won't have a plan for them until the next banquet is finished.
- Silent Majority will attack the next time someone distracts everyone's attention.
- Kurapika has the Nen users among the bodyguards reveal themselves. Only two raise their hands: Yurykov and Vereleinte. Kurapiak asks them to be observes and provide their thoughts.
- Loveely notices the Silent Majority doll, and is the only one who is able to see it. She distracts everyone by pointing it out, then the doll "attacks" Barigen. He was choked by a tsuchibokko. There are 4 in total, and if they all attack a single person at the same time it would take 11 seconds to drain all the blood from their body. 4 emerge from the corpse of Barigen.
- Sakata shoots Barigen to kill the tsuchobokko, Vereleinte says that he could have still been breathing and Sakata was the one to technically kill him.
- Loveely is arrested, and Sakata requests to have 6th Queen Seiko restrained. His request is denied by first floor Supreme Judge Cleapatro. Investigators are dispatched to room 1010 under 72 hour surveliance.
- Kurapika bans all weapons, tells the remaining guards they have until 10 to decide whether ot not they wanted to continue. After that, he can't promise the mentioned time limit of 2 weeks. He then asks Oito to come with him and Bill in private. Furykov asks Bhavimania if it's fine not to follow them, mentioning Benjamin's mission.

- Bhavimania says Benjamin told him he'd leave the methods to him, Furykov adds that he also said to do it "even if it costs you your life."
- Kurapika and Bill approach Shimono quietly. Kurapika has a gun pointed at her, he has two questions for her. He asks if she was the one who attacked Barrigen, she denies it. He also asks if she can use Nen which she also denies. Kurapika mentions he also investigated Bill. He says it's impossible for this to be the work of Woble's Nen Beast because it's the wrong type.
- Kurapika explains that the Nen Beasts are parasitic and cannot be seen by normal humans, but the tsuchobokko snakes were seen by everyone present. He says they were conjured.
- Kurapika speculates that even the Nen Beasts have high risks just like normal Nen abilities. He thinks that it's possible that if even one prince withdraws from the Succession War, the contract and condition would break and everyone's Nen Beasts may disappear.
- None of the bodyguards have abstained from the training, and Kurapika proceeds to begin teaching them Nen.
- Shimano reveals that her family has served the royal house for generations, and that her parents' last requests for her was to stay with the royal family until the day she died. This is the reason she's still sticking by Queen Oito's side.

KURAPIKA'S NEN TRAINING

- The Phantom Troupe interrogate a few thugs of the minor Buor mafia family, the thugs have to give 90% of their earnings to the top families as a kickback. They explain that in order to split the New Continent into their own territory, the three great mafia families of Kakin boarded the ship, all the bosses received VIP rooms on the 1st floor. They planned to have their soldiers on the lower floors deal with their enemies until they reached land.
- They reveal that 3rd Prince Zhang Leo has the back of the Xi-Yu family, 4th Prince Tserriednich has the back of the Heil-Ly family, and 7th Prince Luzurus has the back of the Cha-R family. Sharing a sake cup and oath into a family makes you a sworn enemy of the other two.

- It's revealed to Franklin that the Cha-R family is the most powerful in financial muscle and numbers, he wants to meet the person who picks up the thugs' records and kickbacks, they tell him the next meeting is Saturday. Nobunagga decides that'll work for the treasure.
- Phinks then gives the thugs a mission: Find anyone over 190 cm tall and deliver their room numbers to him.
- Chrollo informs Machi that the first person to kill Hisoka will be whomever finds him first.
- Momoze's corpse is inside a capsule and is visited by King Nasubi, 13 other mysterious capsules are also there.

- Furykov mentions the obvious aura surrounding Cejour and Yuhurai, as does Kurapika who points out that they can use Nen. He asks if they were testing him. They claim they weren't, and ask to speak to Kurapika in private. He says to wait after the meeting.
- Furykov assumes that they weren't aware of it themselves. He thinks it's either a manipulator controlling them, or something to do with their prince's Nen Beast. Furykov is aware of one other "Nen user", other than them and Loveley who was detained.
- Queen Seiko insists on remaining silent as she is interrogated in room 1010, where prince Kachou is.
- Bisky and Hanzo noticed Marayam's Nen Beast growing even bigger. Hanzo says it's because of Momoze's death affecting him.
- Bisky and Hanzo rest in the bedroom. Hanzo activates his clone ability, "Hanzo Skill 4 Bunshin no Justsu," if his real body is touched or talks to him the ability is forcibly cancelled.
- Hanzo's clone approached Tuffdy and Nagmum's cells. He approached Tuffdy first, and offers to conceal his crime by making it look like Momoze committed suicide, he pretends to be recruiting him for prince Benjamin. Once it's apparent that Tuffdy was indeed the assassin, Hanzo chokes him to death.

- Sale-sale continues to tease "changing the world" in the next banquet.
- Two of the small creatures of Tyson's Nen Beast won't leave Izunavi and another bodyguard's side (the only two Nen users).
- Second day, 12:30 PM. Kurapika's Nen teaching session is over. Bhavimania considers how the assassin didn't make any more moves after the initial incident, wondering if they're planning one kill per day.
- Sakata insists on being present with Kurapika from now on, mentioning the existence of the assassin.
- Yuhirai mentions to Kurapika how prince Halkenburg lost consciousness along with all of his bodyguards, and they all woke up with the symbol at the back of their hands. Kurapika says that's common of a Manipulator attack, erasing all memories then instilling panic by having a symbol suddenly appear. He says this type of memory revision is common among request-types.
- Request-type Manipulators, who still give their targets a freedom of choice, are able to control a large amount of targets with a small amount of energy. Compulsory types manipulate their targets by taking over their mind, body, and free-will. Half-Compulsory types take over the bodies of their targets to control them (12 Prince Momoze's Nen Beast is this type).
- Kurapika asks Yuhirai what this mark would mean to Halkenburg, to which he responds a mark of resolve. Kurapika discovers that Yuhirai is in a state of half-awakening and can't control the Nen that he has.
- Kurapika is keen on winning over Zhang Lei and Halkenburg, tells their guards that he'll make an appeal to the other princes through the Hunters Association.
- Hanzo's clone arrives back to where his body was, to find it along with Bisky missing. He notices prince Marayam's Nen Beast, it's gotten smaller but appears to be hostile. Hanzo wonders if it will attack him without regard for friend or foe, or if it even distinguishes between those two things.
- Camilla is on her way to try to kill Benjamin. She announces it to Musse who was assigned to her by Benjamin. He comes in her way, he tries to arrest her for plotting Benjamin's assassination.
- Musse notices Camilla is using Zetsu, and fires a gun at her, killing her.
- As he goes to confirm her death, a giant black cat creature appears from behind him. It squashes him to death, then uses its tail to feed Camilla and revive her.
- Camilla's ability: "A Cat That's Lived A Million Lives" A count-type Nen ability. After death, it activates, taking the attacker's life and using it to resurrect its owner.
- Camilla tells her guards and the queen that she's off to execute Benjamin. She approaches his room, Furykov and another guard are in the way. Benjamin informs them to let Camilla pass through without attacking her.
- Camilla shoots them. Furykov blocks with his Nen, the other guard is killed. Furykov lets Camilla in. Camilla shoots at Benjamin, who blocks with his Nen.
- They don't shoot her back, Furykov restrains her. Camilla claims she'll torture and kill Furykov. Camilla is imprisoned.

- Musse's Nen ability: "Secret Window" allows him to control 3 types of birds to gather intelligence. He activates a horned owl by touching his target, it can only be seen the ability's user. All of the target's words and actions are transmitted telepathically to him.
- Musse attached a bird to Camilla.
- Musse's ability is also connected to Benjamin, through the latter's own ability, Benjamin has now inherited it.
- Benjamin's Nen ability: "Benjamin Baton" Nen users that have sworn fealty to Benjamin, when dying, can pass down their ability for him to succeed. However, it's only restricted to those who have graduated from Kakin's Royal Military Academy and are members of Benjamin's private army.
- Hanzo's clone discusses the Marayam and the others' disappearance with Kurapika. Hanzo thinks it's an enemy's attack, since Marayam's Nen Beast is still there.
- Shimano receives a call from Vergei, the commander of Marayam's troops, and informs Kurapika, Hanzo rushes back to find no one in the room still. Vergei has a question for Kurapika.
