

Scroll Of Judgement

The words of Glarthamere son of Orome, prophet in the forest after the death of T10 who died by The Son. I am writing this with hands shaking. My hands are shaking. They are shaking as I write this. Why. Its because there is a virus in the forest. The Son has caused a virus to spread and its name is from the Hydra constellation. This is what the spirit of the people of the forest said to me:

"Glarthir, write a scroll and it should say: 'You have been judged, you fallen Nameless One.'"

So I got up and wrote this scroll, and the voice of the forest was becoming like angel voices, like the holy music of Valior.

"Repent, repent, repent."

What does that mean, I asked.

"It means that T10 has turned to the darkness. He has submitted to THE SON Of The One."

I said: "I know this already, why do you tell me again?"

It said:

"LPZ139 is not T10. Its name is lost in mystery. He will come to his end- he will end in a sudden way."

So I said:

"What is to come of him?"

Two roads, like a snake tongue with two ends. Which end will it take?

"One way is repent, and to be sorry. x days is the total of his name, x days to repent. After x days are up, he will be judged."

But I said:

"He is already judged. How can you know his choice?"

He said:

"Does The One not know all things even before they happen? Be silent."

So I asked:

"What is the outcome of this?"

He said the answer, but its sound was like many elephants so I could not hear.

"Why x days?"

So it took me to the Mountain Ered Gorgoroth in Beleriand and told me:

"Look out over the water," he said this I looked. "What do you see?"

I said: "I see the marshes of Brethil."

He said:

"Water falls and is soaked into the grass and the soil becomes like mud. So also the numbers become added together to make x."

So there was a large meeting of protectors near Jupiter (that is why a orange dot was in the sky on the 22nd of January). The meeting started. The title of the meeting was:

"Judging The Son On Arda"

The meeting was in old elvish, which I did not understand. So I put my hand up and said:

"raises hand Pardon me my lords, but what are you talking about?"

Then I was removed from the meeting.

The spirit of the people of the forest has prophesied a judgement on Arda:

"Arda has a virus, Its virus is called 1.

The name is 1,

For he was the firstborn.

The first of all has become a virus.

Who is the virus?

It is 1.

He has created LPZ139,

Now we need a savior for Arda.

Who will be the savior?"

So I raised my hand and said:

"I will be the savior."

But the people laughed at me, and I was at once silenced. But then A Voice came from Valinor saying:

"Do not laugh, because the one who raised his hand is brave."

So I said:

"Please, do not give me this honor. Give it instead to Osman."

So they all agreed, and they said:

"Osman will save us."

But then The Voice from the Throne Said:

"Osman will not deliver you from 1. Because I have already made M6 the one who will fight him."

But the prophets from
NGC said:

"M6 has been weighed up
and is lacking."

So the meeting was concluded, and I saw the meeting end. The forest stopped repeating it to me.

I said:

"Thank you for this translation. But now I must go."

Then the forest said:

"Wait, because the prophets are speaking."

So I was listening for a minute, which went like this:

"A holy light has been sent,
It will draw in the people.
In the trees it will hide,
On dry sands it will shine.
Its voice will sing like Ae,
And it will bless anyone
who sees it.

Let those seeing it be
happy,

And repent!

But to the one who does
not;

He will certainly become
like the void.

His soul will empty,

And he will cease to exist
for all time."
