

FREMANTLE 2023 FIXTURE

R1 v St Kilda

(Marvel Stadium)

Sunday, March 19:
1.40pm

R2 v North Melbourne

(Optus Stadium)

Saturday, March 25:
4.30pm

R3 v West Coast

(Optus Stadium)

Sunday, April 2: 3.20pm

R4 v Adelaide

(Adelaide Oval)

Saturday, April 8:
11.45am

R5 v Gold Coast

(Norwood Oval)

Friday, April 14: 3.10pm

R6 v Western Bulldogs

(Optus Stadium)

Friday, April 21: 6.10pm

R7 v Brisbane

(The Gabba)

Saturday, April 29:
11.45am

R8 v Hawthorn

(Optus Stadium)

Saturday, May 6:
5.30pm

R9 v Sydney (SCG)

Saturday, May 13:
11.45am

R10 v Geelong

(Optus Stadium)

Saturday, May 20:
2.35pm

R11 v Melbourne

(MCG)

Saturday, May 27:
12.10pm

R12: BYE

R13 v Richmond

(Optus Stadium)

Saturday, June 10:
5.25pm

R14 v GWS

(GIANTS Stadium)

Saturday, June 17:
2.35pm

R15 v Essendon

(Optus Stadium)

Saturday, June 24:
5.25pm

R16 v Western Bulldogs

(Marvel Stadium)

R17 v Carlton

(Optus Stadium)

R18 v Collingwood

(MCG)

R19 v Sydney

(Optus Stadium)

R20 v Geelong

(GMHBA Stadium)

R21 v Brisbane (Optus Stadium)

R22 v West Coast

(Optus Stadium)

R23 v Port Adelaide

(Optus Stadium)

R24 v Hawthorn

(MCG)

HOME AWAY

THE GOOD

The first five games. They should win at least four of them and they'll consider themselves favourites for the Friday night clash with the Bulldogs.

THE BAD

Playing at Norwood Oval against the Gold Coast while the bulk of their fans are working.

THE UGLY

Between rounds 16 and 21, the only game that isn't against a finalist from last year is a match-up with ninth-placed Carlton.