Bo'ness and Gift of a Park. Ministers Fear Thin End of the Wedge.

"Three-fourths of the people are football mad. They chase the leather in their very dreams," remarked the Rev. A. G. Young, U.F.P., presbytery of Falkirk to-day in raising the question of Sunday games.

He referred to the offer made by Sir James Calder that he would give a public park to the town on condition that Sunday games were allowed after one o'clock.

So great was the protest that it was agreed to take a plebiscite, and Sir James had expressed his willingness to give the park, even if Sunday games were voted against.
