Dr. Avi Weisfogel is a former dentist and is presently working Avi Weisfogel Dental Sleep Masters as the Owner of the International Academy of Sleep. He finished from Rutgers University with a degree in biology and after that went on to the New York University College of Dentistry where he earned a Doctorate of Dental Surgery. In 1999, Dr. Weisfogel founded Old Bridge Dental Care, an oral workplace that he operated for more than 15 years. Throughout his time running Old Bridge Dental Care, Dr. Weisfogel made a number of awards from the surrounding community, consisting of the desired 'Best Dentist' award.

While running this practice, Dr. Avi Weisfogel began to learn more about sleep and sleeping conditions and how to treat them. As Dr. Weisfogel started to find, there are a number of ingenious techniques and methods that can be used to deal with numerous sleep conditions. Eager to check out how he might make a difference in the world of sleep, Dr. Weisfogel founded Healthy Heart Sleep. Through this business, he worked with Dr Avi Weisfogel sleep apnea treatment physicians from around the world to help them establish and manage sleep labs.

Over the next few years, Dr. Avi Weisfogel established numerous other businesses that focused on giving dental professionals the understanding and devices to detect and treat different sleep conditions. Dr. Weisfogel is now operating the International Academy of Sleep out of Union, New Jersey, an organisation that concentrates on using just the most recent and most reliable treatments to dentists and clients around the world.