sickness in his family. His case was also adjourned to the 19th inst. to allow him to bring a certificate from the doctor attending his family.

MONTROSE.

A MURRAY STREET BUMPUS.—On Saturday evening two brothers, Enoch and George Jackson, and Robert Scott, all labourers, residing in Bridge Lane, committed a breach of the peace in Murray Street by cursing and swearing, and quarrelling and fighting with each other, the result being that they were all taken to George Street. Enoch Jackson and Scott were liberated on bails of £1 and 10s respectively, while George Jackson was ordered by Bailie Foreman at the Police Court to-day to pay 30s, or go to prison for fourteen days.
