

The New World Order was Prophesied in the Bible

There has been a lot of talk in the last few decades about a “New World Order” (NWO) with a “one world” government, a “one world” bank with a “one world” electronic currency (no more cash), a “one world” language and a “one world” religion. When most Christians hear such things, they automatically think of the “Anti-Christ” (the beast) and the “Great Tribulation” spoken of in the book of Revelation, the last book in the Bible.

Rev. 13:16-18 “And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond (slave), to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: And that no man might buy or sell, save (except) he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.” (“score” is old English for 20, “three score” is $3 \times 20 = 60$) (666)

Many Christians also think of the rise of the last great world empire spoken of by the prophet Daniel in which the Anti-Christ (the beast who will be against the Christians like how Hitler was against the Jews) will be king of the world. (Daniel 2) (also: Dan. 8:23-25; Rev. 17:12,13) However, the rise of the last great empire (NWO) prophesied by the Old Testament prophet Daniel does not necessarily imply that the “Anti-Christ” and the “Great Tribulation” will be at the beginning of that new empire. (Please, read Daniel chapters 2 and 8) Daniel prophesied there would arise six great empires in the future. (He made that prophecy more than 400 years B.C.) The only empire existing when Daniel made that prophecy was the Babylonian. The five other empires arose in Daniel's future, exactly in the same order as he prophesied they would come.

In modern times, the only empire still in the future is the last one. That is, the last empire before Jesus Christ returns and sets up His empire, which He will rule from Jerusalem, in Israel. Many Christians think that the last world empire will start at the same time the “Great Tribulation” starts. But, there is no reason to assume that. When the “Anti-Christ” appears, the last great empire will already be intact and ready to make him king of the world. It is most likely that the last world government will start years or even decades before the rise of the “Anti-Christ” or the beginning of the “Great Tribulation”.

The form of government that God has selected for the last world empire is not a democracy, nor a republic. God has decided the form of government for the next world empire will be a kingdom. God's spiritual government is a kingdom. When Jesus Christ physically returns to earth, His government will also be a kingdom. The most common form of government throughout history has been a kingdom. Democracies and republics are usually false anyway. They are usually run secretly behind the scenes by somebody else. The political leaders are usually just puppets that take orders from a secret group of people,..... who receive orders from Lucifer himself.

Lately, the present-day politicians have been talking about the “New World Order” (NWO). Even as far back as WW1 and WW2 American presidents have been talking about it. But it hasn't been a constant topic in politics until president Bush Sr., back in the 90's, who always spoke about it as though it was good and something to look forward to. However, he never did publicly promote the idea of any country surrendering it's sovereign authority to a one world government, which is considered to be treason in every country.

Meanwhile, a lot of other people have been going around, for more than a decade now, saying that the present-day politicians are planning a major world take-over with horrible consequences. With all this talk about the new “one world” government, why hasn't anything actually happened yet? (except for an increase in terrorism ever since Bush's 9-11) What are they waiting for? Why is there nothing but talk? (That's right, Bush's 9-11. He did it. See documentaries: “Loose Change” and “Fahrenheit 9-11”.)

The start of the next new world empire cannot begin until God gives the order. It will be the takeover of the present-day (secret) world empire. The present-day (secret) world empire, commonly known as the Roman (Italian) “Mafia”, is the continuation of the old Roman Empire, working behind the scenes within the present-day political governments. Most of the modern politicians are political puppets that follow the orders of the secret Roman Empire. This is the empire of “iron” previously prophesied in chapter two of the book of Daniel. It was appointed by God and cannot be overthrown until the time that God has chosen for the next great world empire to take its place.

Unfortunately, the name “Mafia” has a very negative connotation attached to it and most people can't seem to think of anything else but secret criminal activity when they hear that word. It's almost synonymous with “organized crime”. It may help if it is referred to from now on in this article by a different name: the “Modern Secret Roman Empire” or MSRE for short. The MSRE is not the same thing as “organized crime”. Their primary purpose is to run governments, as the Word of God clearly states in Daniel chapter 2. It is a political empire, not an organized crime economic money making empire. The MSRE has chosen to do this working behind the scenes.

Concerning “organized crime”, the MSRE is more like the regulator of “organized crime”. They are the “secret empire” supervising, restricting and holding back the full evil force of “organized crime”. That's right, “holding back”, which means they are preventing and restraining “organized crime” from causing extreme world chaos and violence. They are much more powerful than “organized crime”, they are run by the power of Lucifer. They “work behind the scenes” among those who “work behind the scenes”.

The MSRE is also in constant contact with the spirit world through their sorcerers, clairvoyants, psychics and spirit mediums. The Bible says that Lucifer is the ruler of this world. John 14:30 "Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me." John 12:31 "Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out." Referring to people who have turned away from following Lucifer: Eph 2:2 "Wherein in time past ye (y'all) walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience:" Act 26:18 "To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me."

Apart from running the governments and regulating "organized crime" the MSRE is also very interested in running religions. Their undercover co-workers, who are usually not Italians, are almost undetectable as they mingle in with the regular unsuspecting people in all the religions of the world, but especially within Christianity. Jude 1:4 "For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men,...." Jude 1:12 "These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots;"

Their co-workers almost always start young so that they can mix in without being suspected. They usually have many years of preparation before they actually get into positions of leadership. These "wolves in sheep's clothing" (satanic spies) are better at getting positions of leadership in unsuspecting Christian churches than the Nazi Bush family is at getting their Nazi sons elected as presidents of the US. (Grandpa Bush, who was a US Connecticut senator, paid for Hitler's rise to power.) (see article listed below on: Wolves In Sheep's Clothing)

As a result, anyone who is a non-"wolf in sheep's clothing" who recognizes what the corruption is and wants to clean up the mess and get the church back on track would appear to be a nonconformist who doesn't want to follow the accustomed habits of the church, and thereby give the regular church attenders the impression of being a "wolf in sheep's clothing". In other words, because the majority of people are accustomed to following the "wolves in sheep's clothing", any true good-guy will appear to them as a bad guy. (see article listed below on: Wolves In Sheep's Clothing)

The old testament is full of religious leaders who appeared to be "out of the ordinary" and "stand alone" people who most of the regular people rejected. Even Moses was rejected by most of the people even after God had done many miracles by the hand of Moses. Imagine that! Even after witnessing numerous magnificent supernatural miracles, the people still rejected Moses. One time, when certain bad leaders were opposing Moses, he told them that the proof that God was on his side was that the ground will open up and they will fall straight down to hell. Num 16:30-35 Surprisingly, the very next day some other people opposed Moses and accused him of killing God's true leaders. Num 16:41 (as though they were so amazed, that they were willing to die in order to see an instant replay of what had happened the day before.)

The wolves' headquarters is in Rome, Italy, which is the city surrounded by the seven mountains, as stated in: Rev. 17:9 “And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.” The “woman” who sits on the seven mountains is the great harlot (whore), who represents the great false religion in: Rev. 17:5,6 “And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. 6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus:....” This “MOTHER OF HARLOTS”, which is run by Lucifer, assists the MSRE from Rome to run the present-day secret world empire. This “MOTHER OF HARLOTS” also has had a reputation throughout history of murdering the faithful followers of Jesus Christ (the true “saints”). For many years, it was thought by the faithful followers of the Jesus Christ that the church of Rome was the “MOTHER OF HARLOTS” and that the Pope was the “anti-Christ”. Very few other cities have seven mountains around them. The church of Rome is the bloodiest church that ever existed. (Please remember that churches are not supposed to be bloody at all. Murderers will have no part in the kingdom of heaven. Gal 5:21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. Also, 1Cor. 6:9,10.)

The MSRE cannot establish the next world empire. If they did, it would not be a different empire. Yet, their puppet politicians are always talking about the New World Order as though it's something that's going to be good, and that they're at the point of starting it themselves, any day now. But quite to the contrary, the next world government will be established by the power of God, not by the MSRE. The MSRE will be overthrown and the great whore shall be thrown down. Rev 18:21 “And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.” (The way of displacement that a big stone falling into water produces, kind of makes you think of a nuclear explosion.) The MSRE will not be able to stop the coming of the next empire, which will replace the MSRE. All of their military weapons, technology, intelligence, sorcery and witchcraft will not be able to prevent the new world empire from taking over their present world empire. Since they have contact with the spirit world, they already know that the next world empire will overthrow them. So then, why is it that their puppet politicians go around talking about the NWO as though it will be something good and that they will be the ones to start it?

Meanwhile, there have been other people going around saying that the next empire (NWO) will be horribly evil, like Hitler's Nazis. They say that the present-day politicians, who they assume will start the NWO, already have very evil secret customs, like the Nazis did before they started WW2. However, they only assume that the present-day politicians will be the ones to start the NWO because those politicians are always talking about it the way they do.

Of course, it is understandable that people would think that there will be WW3 in order to start the NWO, but that assumption is not necessarily justifiable. Less than a century ago, India was under the rule of a tyrannical British government. Nevertheless, the Indian people were able to remove that foreign British government and change to self-rule by means of the peaceful influence of Gandhi. Gandhi used no violence. He fought the previous oppressive British government using peaceful public protests along with a “turn the other cheek” methodology. (see 1982 film: Gandhi) And he won. Mat 5:39 “But I say unto you, That ye (y’all) resist not evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.”

At 18 minutes into the film, Gandhi was walking down the street with a white clergyman, (the law itself made it illegal at that time and place for a white man and a colored man to walk along the street together). It was so offensive and illegal that some white people there were picking up rocks to throw at them. (The white clergyman’s black carriage driver knew better; he walked several steps behind them.) The white clergyman wanted to turn aside and go down a different street, but Gandhi insisted they continue, despite facing the people getting ready to throw rocks at them, and said to the white clergyman, “Doesn't the New Testament say: "If your enemy strikes you on the right cheek, offer him the left..... I have thought about it a great deal. I suspect he meant you must show courage..... be willing to take a blow, several blows, to show..... you won't strike back, nor will you be turned aside. And when you do that, it calls on something in human nature that makes his hatred for you decrease and his respect increase.”

Gandhi had no military weapons or self-defense. It is very rare that any country throughout all history has changed governments without a war. In the end, the oppressive British government peacefully walked out of India..... And Gandhi won. Later on, Martin Luther King successfully used Gandhi's methods of peaceful public protests to stop racial injustice in the US. King's birthday is now an official national holiday in the US. During King's protests, the black people couldn't even vote, much less have black candidates. (See 2014 film: Selma. Also 1988 film: Mississippi Burning. And documentary: Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., History Channel. On www.youtube.com there is King's “I have a dream” speech, and the Rosa Parks story.)

In addition, there are some other people who believe that the next world government will be very evil because it is the empire in which the “Anti-Christ” (the beast, who will kill Christians similar to how Hitler killed Jews) will rise to power. Rev. 20:4 “.... and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands;” However, it is very unlikely that the Anti-Christ will be the first leader of that new world government. There is no reason to assume that. Nero was not the first emperor of Rome. There is no reason to presume that the beginning of the NWO will be any more evil than the beginning of the old Roman Republic, which had a reputation of being good at the beginning. Even the apostle Paul was a citizen of Rome. (Acts 16:37)

Rev. 17:12,13 “And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast. 13 These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.” Here we see a combination of the two phrases “one hour” with “give their power unto the beast", from which many people assume implies that the rise of the Anti-Christ (the beast) will happen at the beginning of the new world empire. But, that is not what is stated here. First, under normal conditions it is highly unusual that ten different kings come into power all at the exact same time, from which many people make the assumption that the cause of such an unusual event must be because it was the beginning of the new world empire. Second, you must ask yourself: is that really the only possible explanation for such an unusual event? No!

The Bible doesn't tell us the cause of ten kings all coming to power at the exact same time, but rest assured the cause does not necessarily have to be that it was the beginning of the next world empire. It is possible that this unusual event could have a different cause at a different time, even decades after the new world empire gets started. (Example - the chaos caused by the Rapture. 1Thes. 4:16,17) (The word "Rapture", which comes from the Latin Bible, means, "caught up", similar to Enoch in Gen. 5:21-24, also similar to Elijah in 2Kings 2:11,12. The "rapture" is when all of the faithful Christians will be removed from the earth and be "taken up" directly to heaven without dying. But, only the faithful Christians. The unfaithful Christians will be left behind on earth to face the Anti-Christ.)

Note that, at the beginning of the old Roman government, it had a reputation of being virtuous and good. In fact, many countries wanted to join it, because there is security in unity, strength, virtue and justice. Many countries voluntarily joined it much the same way that many territories became states and voluntarily joined the United States of America. Even Texas was an independent republic before it joined the US. America started out with 13 states in the beginning, and by 1959 it has 50 states.

Back then, many countries were willing to pay Roman taxes because the Roman army would protect its tax payers from other enemies. According to the history written in 1 Maccabees chapter 8, even Israel voluntarily joined Rome to be their ally against the oppressive Grecian Empire. Even the apostle Paul himself was a Roman citizen. (Acts 22:25-29) One time the enemies of Jesus tried to catch him saying something against the Roman government when they asked him if it was right to pay Roman taxes. (Mark 12:14-17) But even Jesus Christ never spoke against the Roman government, and even his enemies marveled at how he escaped their tactic. (Mat 22:19-22)

It wasn't until years later that corruption became a serious problem in the old Roman Empire. Nero was the first Roman emperor to persecute Christians. Early church history shows that both the Apostles Peter and Paul were executed under Nero's government when they were old men. It is possible that Paul or Peter said something about the Christian faith and eternal punishment (hell fire) that offended Nero, which caused him to execute them, and then go on to persecute all the Christians. It is probable that especially Paul spoke to Nero in his presence, since he was a Roman citizen. Act 25: 11,12 ".....I appeal unto Caesar." "Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Caesar? unto Caesar shalt thou go."

At that time, many Christians thought that Nero was the "Anti-Christ" (the beast) spoken of in the book of Revelation. (Rev. 13) (Rev. 12:3 the great red dragon) (see 1951 film "Quo Vadis" about how Nero burned Rome and then blamed it on the Christians,..... and then had the Christians fed to lions in the coliseum. Some people say that their blood can still be seen there today.) (also read the book from gutenberg.org: “The Martyr of the Catacombs”, this book also has an audio recording available of someone reading the book.) (The “catacombs” were a giant maze of thousands of tunnels dug under the city of Rome. Rome is a city built on very unusual ground that never collapses when you dig a tunnel. At first, the catacombs were dug to provide sand used to make cement for constructing buildings above ground. But, during the persecution of the Christians, the Christians had to live down there to avoid being taken to the coliseum, and being fed to the lions or burned at the stake.)

In addition to the persecution of the church, there were also a lot of other types of corruption, which likewise added to the bad reputation that the old Roman Empire had had. (I have included a copy of “The Martyr of the Catacombs” on my web page, with audio recordings of someone reading it: <https://goo.gl/992nQY>)

Why are the people, in modern times, who are so much against the NWO, for religious reasons, not concerned about the evil and Anti-Christian things going on right now? There is a lot of evil going on right now in our present society from both political and religious leaders. Most of the present day evilness and immorality does not come in the form of violence or oppression (terrorism), in the US. It comes as a disrespect or disregard for the Word of God. Modern Christians and other religious people don't care about what God says (even though they say they do). The people against the NWO associate violence and oppression (terrorism) with the coming of the NWO. Any violence or oppression (terrorism) that comes will be more like a punishment from God, especially for those Christians who disrespect the Word of God by twisting it, neglecting it and misinterpreting it, because of their “lukewarm” Christianity. (see article listed below on: The Lukewarm Church) (also: Wolves In Sheep's Clothing) (also: Fatherhood) (also: The Consequences of “Women's Liberation”)

If all those people who say they are against the NWO are not against the present day “evil”, then they are for the present day “evil”. Jesus said: Mat. 12:30 “He that is not with me is against me....” Why are they more concerned about the possible rise of violence and oppression (terrorism) in the NWO, in the name of religion, than they are about people offending God right now? The greatest “evil” in modern society is already here in the form of immoral disrespect to the Word of God, especially in the churches that claim to follow the Word of God. Most of those churches have “wolves in sheep's clothing” as leaders who love to misinterpret and twist the true teachings of the Bible.

The violence and oppression (terrorism), which is probably close at hand, will be a justifiable judgment from God for the disrespect of the Word of God that is now wide-spread. The violence and oppression (terrorism) that is definitely coming won't be primarily for the purpose of starting the NWO, but rather, to punish people, especially the “lukewarm” church, for their present disrespect for the Word of God and for their love of money more than love of God. (see article listed below on: The Lukewarm Church) A lot of those church leaders are making a nice comfortable income with very little work to do, so they don't like to say anything unpopular and risk losing their good jobs.

During the Great Depression many people in the US thought they were experiencing the punishment of God for the general immorality of the people during the roaring twenties. (see article listed below on: The Suffering Of The Great Depression) (see article listed below on: The Consequences of “Women's Liberation”) (also see 2012 PBS documentary: The Dust Bowl.)

Another important prophecy related to the beginning of the NWO is the removal of all the corrupt church leaders who are currently in charge of all the modern corrupt churches. The removal of the corrupt church leaders must happen just before the establishment of God's one selected leader of the entire worldwide church, who is called “Shepherd David”. Eze. 34:10 “Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat (food) for them.” Eze. 34: 23,24 “And I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd. And I the Lord will be their God, and my servant David a prince among them; I the Lord have spoken it.” KJV (please read all of Ezekiel chapter 34)

This indicates the establishment of a “one world” true church, filled with the Holy Spirit and having one true spiritual leader from God. The “Anti-Christ” (the beast) can not be revealed until after “Shepherd David” is finished and gone. Also, notice that “Shepherd David” cannot be revealed until after all the bad shepherds are removed. (see article listed below on: The Lukewarm Church) (notice: the word “pastor” in English comes from the Latin word for “shepherd” or “herdsman” of real sheep, the animals.) Faithful Christians everywhere should now start praying for this event to happen.

The church has always supposed to have been united, clean and unadulterated. It is primarily due to the abundance of satanic spies (wolves in sheep's clothing) in the church that has kept it divided and impure all these years. (see article listed below on: Wolves in Sheep's Clothing) 1Cor. 1:10-13 “Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye (y'all) be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment. For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you. Now this I say, that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ. Is Christ divided?” also: Eph. 4:3 “Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye (y'all) are called in one hope of your calling; One Lord, one faith, one baptism,” KJV

The word “united” indicates the reverse of that common doctrine in many churches that each individual church is supposed to be “independent” from all other individual churches. That type of “independence” is a spiritual error. This doctrine was started many years ago primarily because of the corruption, in some churches, among the hierarchy of those churches. In order to avoid such corruption, some churches started the practice of eliminating any such hierarchy so that no such corruption could even be possible. Hierarchy itself is not the problem any more than is unity the problem. The church is supposed to have unity..... And, a hierarchy is not a problem, by nature.

And, the problem of “wolves in sheep’s clothing” is just as much a problem with or without a hierarchy.

The problem is corruption, which needs to be dealt with directly, not by completely eliminating both hierarchy and unity. Remember, Moses established a hierarchy. Eventually corruption did enter in, but having a hierarchy itself wasn't the problem. Exo 18:14-26; Num 12:1,2 Some churches even take the same methodology a step further by refusing to give even the local church leaders their proper title. If there are no “pastors”, then there can never exist any pastor who has fallen into corruption. But this methodology is not taught in the Bible. God himself selected Peter and the Apostles as the first leaders of the church. In the end, just before the second coming of Jesus Christ, God will select “Shepherd David” as the head of the true church.

It is not only the corrupt leaders in the churches that must be removed. All of the false religions must be removed. For a long time now God has tolerated many false religions that are not in accordance of His plan. Christianity is the only religion that is ordained by God. All of the false leaders are directed by Satan. Nonetheless, even in those false religions there are always some aspects of them that are good and true, which faithful Christians could benefit from.

In the future “one world government” there must be a “one world religion”. The church is supposed to be united. The NWO not only must have a one-world government, but they also must have a one-world religion and a one-world language. The unification of the world’s languages will be the opposite of what happened at the tower of Babel. (Gen. 11:1-9)

The end-time prophecy just before the second coming of Jesus Christ must include speaking in new tongues. (Acts 2) Notice, that this is not the same thing as what many of those supernatural “gifts of the Spirit” churches go around preaching. They falsely claim to already have the gift of speaking in tongues. (see article listed below on: Wolves In Sheep's Clothing) A one-world language will be part of the bonding glue of the NWO, along with the one-world government, and the one-world religion, and along with the one-world bank. The modern “gifts of the Spirit” churches falsely pretend to have the supernatural gift of speaking in tongues, but they never, never, never speak in any human language. They just carry-on babbling on-and-on in ecstatic speech for no other purpose than putting on a show for self-vanity sake. (Mat 6:5)

The future “one world” language is a real life human language that people will use in conversation for real communication. Gen 11:1 “And the whole earth was of one language, and of one speech.” All of those phony gifts of “speaking in tongues” are nothing more than a fake show during church services in order to pretend to be filled with the Holy Spirit. The real speaking in new tongues as in the book of Acts chapter two, just like then, will be real human language in which people will speak to each other. The NWO must have a one-world language.

Once all the corrupt church leaders have been removed, followed by the appearance of “Shepherd David”, then this prophecy can take place: Acts 2:17-21 “And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh:

and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams: And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy: And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke: The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come: And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.” KJV (Joel 2:28-32) And Rev. 5:13 “And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.” KJV

This will happen on the day of the feast of tabernacles, which is the Old Testament version of the American “Thanksgiving Day”. The celebration of a good harvest which symbolically represents the great salvation of many human souls into the kingdom of God just before the “rapture”, before the “great tribulation” and before the physical return of Jesus Christ to start his kingdom here on earth. Lev. 23:34 “... The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the feast of tabernacles for seven days unto the Lord.” KJV That is, the seventh month according to the Old Testament calendar, six months after the Passover, Easter. (also: Deut. 16:13-16) This will be exactly six months after Easter is celebrated. The year will be when “Shepherd David” is revealed, after all the corrupt pastors are removed.

The first time this “outpouring of the Holy Spirit” happened was on the day of Pentecost (Acts 2). The day of Pentecost was like a little Thanksgiving Day celebrating the small harvest of the “first fruits” of the year at the beginning of the summer. (Exo. 34:22; Lev. 23:15) (50 days after the Passover, Easter. The word “Pentecost” in the NT Greek language means the number 50.) One of the things that happened as a result of this small “outpouring of the Holy Spirit” was that there was history’s best “commune” where all the new Christians willingly shared their possessions so that nobody went hungry. Acts 2:44 “And all that believed were together, and had all things common;” Acts 4:32 “And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.” Obviously, when the big Thanksgiving Day comes in autumn (autumn represents the “last days” just before the return of Jesus Christ), with the “outpouring of the Holy Spirit” on all flesh, there will be the best “commune” in the history of the world which will include the best sharing of possessions that the world has ever seen.

As in the first small “outpouring of the Holy Spirit”, the big one will also include the aspect of new languages. On the day of Pentecost the apostles spoke in new tongues. (Acts 2) Those languages were legitimate human languages that other foreign people could understand. When the NWO starts, it is very important that they have a new language to unite the people together. It will be the opposite of what happened at the tower of Babel. (Gen. 11:1-9) Back then, God used the diversification of languages to divide the people up and send them out to populate the entire world. But, in the end-times, a one-world language will unite the people together and help to form the NWO. And, like the old Roman government, at the beginning it will be good and virtuous, but later, it will become corrupt and be led by the Anti-Christ. There is no reason to assume that the Anti-Christ will start at the beginning of the NWO.

The modern communist movement, under the supervision of the MSRE, is a satanic counterfeit attack against this “outpouring of the Holy Spirit”,..... thus the name “communist” from the word “commune”, in the NT. But don’t confuse this movement with other general “communes”. There have been other communes that are not part of this modern satanic movement that have nothing to do with it. The most famous examples would be the communes in Israel, which they call “kibutz”. Another example is the commune started by Gandhi in India, which they call “Ashram”. None of the communes throughout history are the same thing as the modern communist movement.

However, don't forget that even the bad communists will also experience the “outpouring of the Holy Spirit”,..... and, since the modern communists reject all religions, they will not have the contamination from corrupt Christian habits and other corrupt religious habits. This would imply that they could serve God better than all those people who have been infected with the bad habits of religious corruption by following the “wolves in sheep's clothing” who are currently running most of the churches,..... that is, provided that they are filled with the Holy Spirit.

The establishment of the united “one world” true church filled with the Holy Spirit will happen as the direct result of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on all flesh. This will be the number one factor involved in the unification of the entire world and starting the NWO. This unification will be done peacefully with true goodness and virtue. By emphasizing the spiritual walk with God, interest in national patriotism will be minimized, so that many people will want a new “one world” government. There must be ONE government, ONE religion, ONE language, ONE bank. (The money will be electronic currency, which, later on, will be stamped with the Anti-Christ's 666. Only the Anti-Christ will force everyone to have a permanent identification attached to their bodies so that they can't change it.) (Rev. 13)

Notice that “Shepherd David” is also called: Eze. 34:24 “.....a prince among them.....”. The first David, when he was still very young, killed the giant champion gladiator Goliath with a sling and rock (1Sam. 17). Later on, David was a true prophet of God and also the king of Israel, at the same time.

One problem that many people might have with the concept of experiencing the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon themselves, is that they have already been following Satan for most of their lives and it doesn't seem possible that God could forgive them or that they themselves would be able to stop following Satan. Jesus said: Luke 15:7 “I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance.” also: Isa. 1:18 “Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be (white) as wool.” Isa 28:18 “And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand;" (see article listed below on: Salvation) Most people started following Satan when they were very young. However, underage contracts are not binding, neither legally, nor spiritually. The Bible says that the age of accountability (adulthood) is 20, not 18, nor 21. (Num. 14:29) All contracts made with Satan while a person was underage are null and void.

Another thing that "Shepherd David" will be responsible for is the preparation for the second coming of Jesus Christ. By faith every mountain will be removed and every valley will be filled, in preparation for the coming of Jesus Christ. (As a metaphor, this is also referring to the "redistribution of wealth" in the commune during the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.) Luke 3:4-6 "..... The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. 5- Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth; 6- And all flesh shall see the salvation of God." Mark 11:23 "For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith." Mat 21:21,22 "Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done. 22- And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive." Isa 40:4,5 "Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain: 5- And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it."

This sounds almost like something from star wars, "may the force be with you", like how in the 1980 film when Luke Skywalker tried to raise his space ship out of the swamp, but failed. Then Yoda used "the force" and succeeded lifting the ship completely out of the water. Luke watched the ship come out of the water and said, "I don't believe it", so Yoda responded, "That is why you fail".

However, it is not the strength/amount of the faith that the person has, but rather the fact that it is God's will and power that raises the mountain, and throws it into the sea. The person needs to know when it is God's will, (just before the second coming of Christ) and then understand that it is not the faith that moves the mountain. What moves the mountain is the power of God, but the person must have faith that God will do it. It is the person who gives the order to the mountain, but it is the power of God that moves it. When a person is truly guided by God, this will happen. The day is coming when the mountains will move at the orders and faith of people. All except for one mountain,..... Mount Zion, next to Jerusalem. When Jesus Christ returns from heaven, his foot will touch that mountain, and then the mountain will split in half. (Zech 14:4)

Also, Isa 35:1 "The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose." Isa 51:3 "For the LORD shall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places; and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.” The deserts will also become beautiful gardens, at the faith and orders of people.

Another important prophecy concerning the NWO that must be fulfilled before the "Anti-Christ" (the beast) or the "Great Tribulation" is that Jesus Christ will "chastise" the "lukewarm" church. Rev 3:19 "As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent." (see article listed below on: The Lukewarm Church) In the Bible, the relationship between the church and Jesus Christ is portrayed as a marriage. The church is the wife (bride) and Jesus Christ is the husband. (Rev. 19:7-8; 2Cor. 11:2; Ez. 16:8)

This "chastisement" will most likely be administered at the same time as the removal of all the corrupt church leaders. The "chastising" or "disciplining" (παιδεω) must be understood as some sort of physical punishment. The same Greek word, in the original language of the New Testament, is used by Pilate just before he scourged Jesus, and translated into English with "chastise" and "scourge". Luke 23:16 "I will therefore chastise (παιδεω) him, and release him." Also: Mark 10:34 "And they shall mock him, and shall scourge (παιδεω) him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him: and the third day he shall rise again." The English word "scourge" would be a good translation of what Jesus Christ said to his disobedient wife (bride): "As many as I love, I rebuke and "scourge" (παιδεω) : be zealous therefore, and repent." (see article listed below on: The Lukewarm Church)

Therefore, it can be said that Jesus Christ, as a husband, is going to strip his wife naked, as it says in Rev. 3:17, and then whip her with a "scourge" (whip or belt of some sort) (He used a "scourge of small cords" which he himself had made in John 2:15). The purpose of the whipping is to get the wife to repent, change her disobedient conduct and return to fellowship with her one and only true husband. Since the word "child" is used as the verb for "chastise" (note – "child" is never used as a verb in English, but it is in Greek; it means to "discipline as a child"), a translation using "spank" might also be acceptable: "As many as I love, I rebuke and "spank" (παιδεω): be zealous therefore, and repent." (see article on: Domestic Discipline) It was understood, in those days, that an adult who misbehaves like a child should be disciplined as a child.

In the United States, judicial corporal punishment, that is, physical discipline administered to delinquent adults by someone with governmental authority, has only been discontinued less than 100 years ago. It was slowly and gradually used less and less, with only a few rare cases in prisons being reported as late as the 1950's. Further back in time, most people considered it normal for governments to physically punish delinquent adult men publicly in almost every major society throughout the history of the world. Women, on the other hand, were normally disciplined at home by their husbands or parents, if not married. (see article listed below on: Domestic Discipline)

In those days, most people thought that physical discipline for adults was only wrong if it was inappropriately applied to someone who was innocent. Back when the old Roman Empire was still good and virtuous, even high ranking officials could have been punished if they inappropriately applied physical discipline to an innocent Roman adult citizen. (Acts 22:24-29) Acts 22:29 “..... and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he (Paul) was a Roman, and because he (the chief captain) had bound him.” Notice here that they had not yet done any beating. The chief captain was guilty just for binding him, getting ready to beat him. On another occasion: Acts 16:37,38 “But Paul said unto them, They (the chief magistrates) have beaten us openly (publicly) uncondemned, being Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privily (secretly)? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out. 38 And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared, when they heard that they were Romans.” More than anything else, this is probably what made the Roman empire strong as iron. People trust a government that truly and honestly protects the citizens. (Keep in mind that not everyone in the Roman empire were official “citizens”. Only the “citizens” were protected. Paul was the only Apostle who was a Roman citizen. Paul’s travel companion Silas was also a Roman citizen, but Silas was not an Apostle.)

The idea that it is wrong to use corporal punishment on a guilty adult is absurd. The Bible agrees with this custom. Pro. 26:3 Pro. 20:30 Lev. 19:20 Psa. 89:32 Pro. 19:29 Neh. 13:25 . Deut. 25:2,3 “And it shall be, if the wicked man be worthy to be beaten, that the judge shall cause him to lie down, and to be beaten before his face, according to his fault, by a certain number. Forty stripes he may give him, and not exceed:...” also John 2:15,16 “And when he (Jesus) had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables; And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence (from here, away); make not my Father's house an house of merchandise.” KJV Notice that even Jesus Christ himself used a “scourge of small cords”, which he himself had made.

At that time the religious service in the temple included sacrificing an animal as a substitution payment for a person's sins. The temple, in those days, had a court yard with a wall around it and a large alter, which was like a giant barbecue with a fire always burning under the grill. The sacrifice animals were placed on the grill and the smoke went up as a sacrifice aroma pleasing to God. But, the animal had to be inspected and approved by the religious leaders. No defective animals were allowed. So, those religious leaders started to sell animals for high prices and require everyone to buy one of their animals,..... until Jesus put an end to it, with his whip.

It's amazing how so many people in modern churches read things like this regularly and think everything Jesus did was good and appropriate. But, if any man in our modern culture were to actually use a “scourge of small cords” on obstinate church members insistent on corruption or on a disobedient wife, most modern Christians would automatically assume that the man with the whip is “abnormal” or “mentally ill” or “anger prone” and unfit to be a church leader. (1Tim. 3:3; Tit. 1:7) They might even call the police and say that the man with the whip belongs in a mental institution. Then, at the same time, they read passages like Jesus' “scourge of small cords” from the Bible and think that everything Jesus did was OK. This kind of “two sided” “double standard” perception is a very good example of spiritual blindness, or possibly, real mental illness. When they read the Bible, it's story time, like a bedtime story for children before you tuck them in at night,..... nothing more.

Even in modern times, there still exists a few people in the US who work in areas of criminal management that think it would be a good idea for the custom of judicial corporal punishment for delinquent adults and teens to be re-instituted. (search Internet) Ever since this custom was discontinued, the quantity of delinquent adults and teens has gone up exponentially. Even the people who are very much opposed to the re-institution of this custom cannot hide the fact that at the same time that this custom was stopped, the problem of enormous quantities of delinquent adults and teens has risen much higher than ever before. The prisons are now over-loaded. The prisons only have room for the worst offenders.

As a result of discontinuing this custom, there is absolutely no room in modern prisons for people who have committed "less than severe" offenses. There is nothing to stop those "less than severe" offenders from extremely agitating other people. On TV and in movies young people have been taught since childhood how to be very disrespectful and cause trouble. They can be downright creative at provoking and irritating other people. They know for sure that they won't see the inside of a prison until they commit more severe offenses. They can agitate and agitate and agitate because they know that the present legal system is very incapable of disciplining them, with their slap-on-the-wrist punishments and overloaded prisons.

Most of the agitations themselves aren't even considered as crimes because the criminal system is already so overloaded with an abundance of worse cases. The present-day court system doesn't have time to be bothered with what they consider to be insignificant cases. In addition, anyone who would attempt to stop the agitator by using physical force would be treated as a worse criminal than the agitator. Left undisciplined, most of them usually end up corrupting themselves..... and one day turning into one of those severe offenders..... and there's already too many of them now.

Those people who insist that the custom of judicial corporal punishment for delinquent adults and teens is always wrong deserve to be extremely agitated by those "less than severe" offenders and have the authorities treat it as insignificant and not worth their time. (thereby encouraging the agitator to do more) And, if they still insist on denying the re-institution of judicial corporal punishment for delinquent adults and teens, then they deserve to be the ones to pay the extra high taxes necessary to start an expensive prison system capable of handling all of the offenders.

Remember, every person in prison is one less person working a regular job, earning money and paying taxes. As the quantity of delinquent adults and teens, including "less than severe" offenders, goes up and up, every year there would be fewer and fewer other citizens to pay the super high taxes required to support such an unnecessary, expensive and foolish system. Also don't forget, if a "less than severe" offender is put in prison for any more than just a few days, they usually lose their job by the time they get out. Then, once they do get out, what will they probably spend all that free time doing? Getting into more trouble? Agitating the people who refuse to punish them correctly?

All the people who refuse the re-institution of the old-fashioned corporal punishment should have something like one of those hand written signs on a piece of paper attached to their back that says “kick me”, with an arrow pointing down to their rear-end, which they themselves cannot see.

In the days when delinquent men were disciplined physically and publicly by the government, in most countries delinquent women were usually disciplined privately at home by their own husbands, or parents if they were unmarried. Men were held responsible for the misconduct of their wives, children and adult unmarried daughters. Women with high paying jobs, who could live independently from male supervision, were extremely rare before the 1960's. (see article listed below: The Role Of Women Throughout History) Men were the leaders before “women's liberation” and they were the ones held accountable for the misconduct of their wives, or unmarried adult daughters.

Back then, they referred to the custom of men disciplining their own wives or unmarried adult daughters as “the old law” because they thought that it had been in practice as far back as anyone knew. Throughout all the history of the world, in most major societies, the custom of men physically disciplining their own wives or unmarried adult daughters at home was considered to be an ancient, normal, indisputable and unquestionable “law of nature” in common practice, established by God ever since the beginning of creation, in the garden of Eden. Gen. 3:16 “....your desire shall be to your husband, and he shall rule over you.” It is impossible to “rule over” anyone without the ability to apply discipline for disobedience. Without this type of discipline the supposed subordinate would just disrespectfully tell the supposed leader to get lost. (see article listed below on: Domestic Discipline) (see article on: Marriage Misunderstandings Explained) (also see article listed below on: The Lie of Evolution)

The prophecy about the chastisement of the “lukewarm” church comes in two main parts. First, the “lukewarm” Christians think of themselves as being “rich”. They are economically rich and also like to think of themselves as being spiritually “rich”. They like to think of themselves as gliding down the highway of spiritual success. Notice that the present day middle class in the US is very wealthy in comparison to the average person in the US before WW2. Throughout all history, there has never been such a large quantity of “rich” (US middle class) common people in any society. In most of the countries around the world today, the common people are economically better off than the common people in their own country over 70 years ago. (see article listed below on: The Lukewarm Church)

Second, after the “lukewarm” church has had some time to enjoy their worldly luxuries, Jesus Christ will begin a period of physical discipline in which He will attempt to clean up the corruption of this half-faithful wife (bride). Some of the “lukewarm” Christians won't repent. These are the ones who will resent Shepherd David for exposing their lukewarmness. They like to think of themselves as spiritually rich, gliding down the highway of spiritual success, and therefore they would hate anyone who exposes their spiritual corruption.

They might even think this “Shepherd David” is the Anti-Christ, because he will discipline the “church”. (He will be only against the lukewarm church. They refuse to accept that they themselves are corrupt. The Anti-Christ will murder the faithful church.) However, some of them will repent and be cleansed of their spiritual depravity. The exact time and length of this period of discipline is not specified in the Bible. (see article listed below on: The Lukewarm Church)

Notice how Jesus talks in the first person (I) about disciplining His wife (bride), the “lukewarm” church: Rev. 3:19 “As many as I love, I rebuke and “scourge”: be zealous therefore, and repent.” This means that, since Jesus Christ himself is not physically here on earth, the person who will administer God's chastisement on the “lukewarm” church will be representing Jesus Christ. Therefore, he must be a true man of God: “Shepherd David”, the true leader of the church. All of those “satanic spies” in the church will be powerless against the true “Shepherd David”.

They will probably call “Shepherd David” the “Anti-Christ” because he will be punishing the lukewarm church. (Notice - “Shepherd David” will punish the lukewarm church in hopes of reviving it, but the Antichrist will kill the faithful church (not the lukewarm church) similar to how Hitler tried to kill all the Jews during WW2. The true “Shepherd David” will not be responsible for mass murder like Hitler was. It is possible that God Himself would bring sickness and death on the satanic wolves in sheep's clothing, but that will only apply to the leaders, directly from God, not to the masses of lukewarm Christians.)

More than anything else, the beginning of the NWO will be characterized by this prophecy of Jesus Christ, as a husband, physically disciplining his disobedient wife (bride), the “lukewarm” church. 1Cor. 4:21 “What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?” (see article listed below on: Domestic Discipline) (see article listed below on: The Lukewarm Church)
