RE: Limited IRB Review Protocol #: L19-020, "The Impact of the Sexual Assault Reporting Climate on Reporting or Disclosing Sexual Assault to College Officials for LGBTQ Identified Students"
Please refer to the Protocol # in all future correspondence with the IRB.
Funding Source: Unfunded
Approved on: June 26, 2019

This research is exempt from continuing IRB review under 45 CFR 46.104 (d) (2)(iii) - Research that only includes interactions involving educational tests (cognitive, diagnostic, aptitude, achievement), survey procedures, interview procedures, or observation of public behavior (including visual or auditory recording) if the information obtained is recorded by the investigator in such a manner that the identity of the human subjects can readily be ascertained, directly or through identifiers linked to the subjects, and an IRB conducts a limited IRB review to make the determination required by §46.111(a)(7).

Enclosed please find the validated information form. An IRB approved information form (with electronic validation stamp) must be used to consent each subject.

All investigators at the University of Connecticut are responsible for complying with the attached IRB "Responsibilities of Research Investigators".

Any proposed changes that may affect the limited IRB review status of the research study must be submitted to the IRB for review and approval prior to their implementation.
