Email tips to Scoop schoolnews@ dailyjournal.net

ADVENTURE τιν UBA.

Clockwise from top 6, right, listens to author and illustrator Devon Kondaki while he reads Kondaki while he reads a book based on his character, Winzlow, an adventure-loving fuzzy gnome, on Wednes-day at the Greenwood Public Library. Kondaki teaches children and their serente heu te teaches children and their parents how to draw Winzlow. Kondaki performs for the crowd. From left, Jaxon Nor-ment, 6, Brooks Mul-roney, 4, and Anderson Goul, 3, hold props. SCOTT ROL early with a fundraiser. Franklin Community High School will host a Trick or Treat Under the Sea event from 1 to 3 p.m. Sunday at the high school parking lot, 2600 Cumberland Drive. Students should wear costumes and be prepared to meet charac-ters from the school's upcoming production of "The Little Mermaid." Cost is $10.

Graduate school grant offered by sorority Graduate students who are studying guidance or counseling can apply for a grant. Nu Tau Chapter of Delta Theta Tau So-rority will award a $15,000 grant to graduate-level students. The winner will be chosen based on financial need and scholastic ability. Applications can found at deltathetatau.org. Click on the philanthropy tab. The deadline is Dec. 10.

offered by sorority

Whiteland students commended in program

Commendee in program Three Whiteland Commu-nity High School students in the 2017 National Merit Scholar ship Program. Jacob A. Cribbs, Micaela S. Gaviola and Kevin D. Phelps were given the honor: About 34,000 Commended Students throughout the nation

Students throughout the nation are being recognized. Although they will not continue in the 2017 competition for National Merit Scholarship awards, Commended Scholarship awards, Commended Students placed among the top five percent of more than 1.6 mil-lion students who entered the 2017 Orompetition by taking the 2015 Preliminary SAT/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test.

Franklin school hosting trick-or-treat event

Little trick-or-treaters can g their tricks and treats in a day

EDUCATION BRIEFS

Whiteland students test crop skills at contest crop skills at contest Six Whiteland Com-munity High School FFA members went to a crop scouting competition. The students were Eric and Ethan Dougherty, McKenzie McCoy, Elaina Robards and Joshua Rhodes, all of Green-wood, and Owen Marten of Whiteland. The team was coached by Hannah Goeb. The crop scouting com-petition, at Purdue's Crop Diagnostic Training and Re-search Center, tests students' skills in plant growth and de-search Center, tests students' skills in plant growth and de-velopment, weed identification, pest and disease management and appropriate use of pesti-cides or fertilizers.

Volunteers needed to help teach English ching People interested in teachi others English can volunteer with the Adult Learning Center. The center is looking for volun-teer tutors to help adults who need help with their English literacy skills, including English as a second language learners. Thiors meet at a Johnson County Public Library location with their learners for at least one hour per week for a min-inum of six months. Tutors are needed for one-on-one learning, conversation partners and adult basic education. Tutors are not required to be familiar with a language other than English.

To become a tutor, contact Wendy Preilis by phone at 317-738-4677 or by email at wpreilis@ jcplin.org.

Scholarship available for aspiring teachers

Students who want to become teachers and stay in Indiana can apply for a scholarship. The Commission for Higher

Q&A: KATIE DECLERCQ

Local runners and walkers can lace up their sneakers to help a local school raise money for a children's hospital. The 5K Superhero Run for Riley is at 10:30 a.m. Nov. 12 at Whiteland Com-munity High School, 300 E. Main St., Whiteland.

Katie DeClercq, club adviser at the school, tells you what you need to know about the event.

n attend? The 5K is open to anyone ch does it co et?

The 5K is $25 for the registration and an additional $5 for the T-shirt if registration is received before Nov. 6. The 1K Fun Run is $10 with an additional $5 for the Tabiat T-shirt.

Where does the money go? The 5K is part of the Whiteland Commu-nity High School Riley Dance Marathon fundraising effort for Riley Hospital for Children.

What is the route like?

The 5K begins in the football stadium and allows for participants to run on the track and then go out through the campus, a local neighborhood and end up back on the track at the stadium. low long can I reg

We will take registrations up until the start of the event. However, if partici-pants would like to purchase a T-shirt the deadline is Nov. 6.

» How did you get the idea to do a

We originally got the idea after seeing the success that other high school dance marathons had with it, as well as Clark Elementary when they were raising funds for new playground equipment.

How many students are involved in blanning the run? planning t

There are 10 Executive Council mem-bers that do the majority of the planning for the event and then 45 committee members that will help the day of the event to make sure it is a success. What do you want partie et from the run?

Most importantly to have fun and know that they are helping to make a differ-ence in the lives of patients at Riley Hospital for Children.

What do you want organizing stus to get from the r

The students who organize these events for the dance marathon, as well as the 5K, take on a huge endeavor. They see these events from the begin-They see these events from the begin-ning of the planning process all the way through to the day of the event and they are able to do amazing things. They learn how to overcome obstacles, make adjustments and take on responsibilities.

How do L register? Go to cpcsc.k12.in.us and click on the "5K Superhero Run for Riley."

Education announced the Next Generation Hoosier Educators Generation Hoosier Educators Scholarship Program, offering up to $7,500 each year of col-lege for students who commit to teaching in Indiana for five years after earning their degrees. The scholarship is available to 200 students across the state who either graduate in the highest 20 percent of their class or earn a score in the tor 20th percentile either graduate in the highest 20 percent of their class or earn a score in the top 20th percentile on the SAT or ACT. Students must earn a 3.0 cumulative GPA and complete at least 30 credit hours per year to continue earning the scholarship in col-lege. After college graduation, students must get a teaching license and teach in Indiana for five consecutive years. Applications will be accepted between Nov. 1 and Dec. 31. Students interested in ap-plying need to be nominated by a teacher and submit the nomination form to the In-diana Commission for Higher Education.