Skills for Communication

Getting ideas across communication skills help language for communication

- A variety of communication activities to develop students' general knowledge
- Activities to practice oral and written language in authentic and English use
- Reading texts are designed to help students develop language awareness to describe their own and other people's experiences
- Learning activities around general features such as articles of language that they will use in learning and writing

Tools for Learning

The learner is encouraged to be able to work through with limited oral language assistance, and using learning strategies to enhance learning and thinking systems

York Connect is a new initiative that will help students to develop their English language skills and improve their confidence in using the language.
