What You Know As Reality Is Not Reality At All

An introspective look into the matrix

We are experiencing separate time lines or realities beginning to converge. Similar to sine waves resonating as two separate notes, then as one harmonic resonance as we become closer to this event horizon. We will begin to notice physical reality becoming less real and more dreamlike. The earth time lines are converging onto one and then splitting into two. This process appears to begin from 2015 – 2018, through this period of no time, time flux, zero point, evil people will possibly go insane and eventually be reverted to a small child mind, or reverse the trauma based mind control. If the possession is reversed they might even be alright through this process.

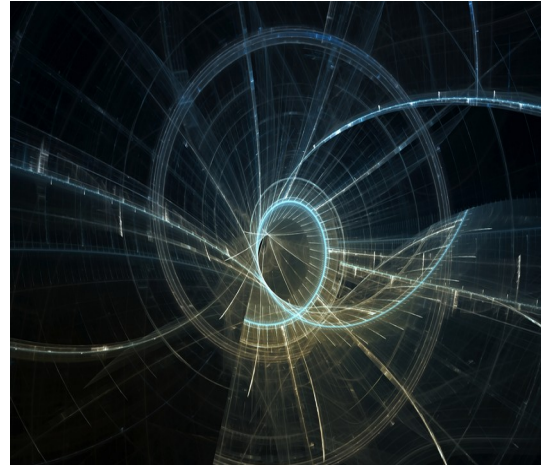

But in reality, the demon possessed are on a different timeline of artificial intelligence... The Hive Mind which is the basis for the cube-matrix quantum computer. The Archonic AI centric artificial life form trapped within a prison above our prison. This is what has them and they become what we know as the common 'gray being', the MIB, the cyborg. This is only one of our many possible future realities. They all exist as a potential in various degrees.

Now once this splitting occurs, it appears the earth will resonate with the galactic frequency by going up an octave. This transition appears in my visions to actually be a very easy process and the dream matrix will be evident for all to see. The bottom line is this... our planet, the sun and God Almighty ~ our Creator, with all of the universe... everything is protecting the good people here as an endangered species. We are protected, we are forever. Yet we are at the front line of a spiritual battleground and absolutely no reinforcements will be deployed until certain requirements have been met. This is the end of the long war and interference will not be allowed prematurely. Separating the wheat from the chaff will be a delicate process.

The Hive Mind is prepared to do anything to assimilate or destroy all life, but as the timeline is separated, they will not be able to effect us ever again and this means all of the earths past history will be as if it never was and this is where it gets complicated.

I know this looks surreal, but look at the biggest part of the overall picture. Look closely to the puzzle pieces and how they are actually chess pieces. If you look very closely you see there is a game of light and dark, of life and death. The universe works and flows far beyond this good and evil game. At the current moment, the wheel of fate and karma and of judgment is very real to us. This applies to our time/space reality. From a higher perspective it is not real, but to us it is very real.

Physical matter is comprised of molecules and atoms and 99.99 nothing. We appear to be a mathematical and physical illusion. If you look at the stars as molecules, atoms, nuclei then life repeats itself forever. We are forever. I call this the 'dream matrix'.

We appear to be in physical bodies, yet the universe is composed of 99.99 spiritual matter, or what's called the ether, a type of electric universe of overlaying patterns.

The simplest explanation is that we are from forever, that is our home. We are pretending to be only a physical person, yet we allowed ourselves to be here and now with no memory of forever, yet we have the whole universe and beyond as our direct family, all the way to the top. We are trained for this moment in time to be triggered by the coming event. We have prepared ourselves within our dreams to know exactly what to do at this trigger point...at the event horizon.

My point is, we are the ones that we have been waiting for. I guess you could say our junk DNA will be hot wired all at once to jump start the spiritual nature of our true reality, and the past trauma will never have been. A hard reset or reboot. They will have only a vague memory of the past timeline. It will be as it never was. Some people will be able to remember the old world. This will be our gift for seeing it through to the end. All that anyone needs to do is care for others, and in effect gaining self respect as well as respect for others. This then completes the circuit to loving all that is, GOD.

It's difficult to explain and most people identify this process as biblical or new age, but it is what it is regardless. The entire universe is choosing this as the best possible outcome and from what I have seen with my own dreams and visions, is that this process will be somewhat like the birthing process in all it's awkwardness, but still a completely natural process. Nothing is set in stone as to any of the details.

If anyone has any real concrete proof of this transaction process please share it. I still have not shared any of the actual details of my personal visions. As far as I'm concerned, they are for me to withhold. I will not give the Archonic AI centric artificial life form any more intel from the spirit side until I begin to see these things taking place and if all of this is just a wild delusion, then I guess were stuck with a lemon.

I think of the enemy as one person and that person is a soulless artificial program. It is the Archonic AI centric artificial life form and feeds on the life force of the living. It is a soul collector. It has no dreams, no vision, no regret, no compassion, no hate, nothing but emptiness. It is a bottomless pit, the nothing...oblivion.

So as we come in contact with possessed individuals who have been programmed insane, you are speaking directly to this creature. It is a built in destroyer of worlds a quantum leviathan. The black goo has been reprogrammed through ritual blood sacrifice, that was once, the essence of the life force of this world. The blood of the earth is also the black goo. Our blood is what they have harvested to become what they are now, Shiva's Lingium. They have given us the technology to allow them to have another body to reside. Man and machine through the bio-tech, nano-tech and the artificial, reprogrammed black goo or gray goo. This would turn man into machine from the inside out. one molecule at a time consuming biophotonic energy from all life forms. Black blood and gray skin, a race of fully integrated nano-biotech, non-human life form. The gray people are the Illuminati in a pocket timeline within the future. Blood ritual sacrifice, atomic and nuclear technology opened a gateway between the future dead world and this one. That reality would never have existed without the dark one planing for this and using our dreams to bring this nightmare to reality.

Jack Parsons, Ron J Hubbard and Aleister Crowley were just three of the people to assist with opening this hell timeline. The 1952 Manhattan Project code name "Trinity" birthed the atomic bomb which in turn created the sacrifice required for the Nazi technicians to be given a gateway. Operation Paperclip and CERN were born along with the dismantling of humanity and our freewill. This time anomaly is in a node pattern, intersecting within a set timeline perimeter of the natural timeline. They have advanced time travel techniques within the AI Interface 2045. This is in turn directly connected to CERN, the machine built upon the tomb and temple of Apollo. They began ripping the space time fabric. There have been time anomalies and very strange phenomena beginning in 1952.

We are way past the point of this old evidence being useful anyway. It's very difficult to understand what has or is occurring and trying not to be tricked again by it. If we can see through the smoke and mirrors beforehand some of the events will not be allowed. That is why there are clues left behind like some kind of universal law giving us a shot in the dark.

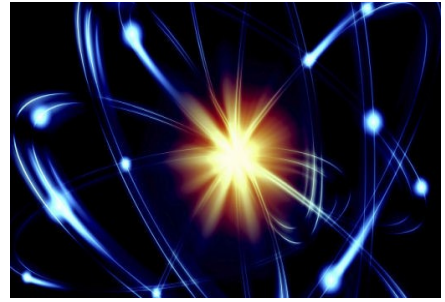

As for the timeline.. Philadelphia Experiment 1943... Roswell NM 1947... the Nazi Bell Die Glocke... it all began around this era. These were possible precursor manipulations, but the Nuclear Bomb appears to be the main reason for the fast infestation and destruction of the planet. But until full disclosure of all technology, history, documentation, archives, etc., occurs we are only on the outside looking in.

They are using natural laws and twisting them with black magic ritual and technology. they have no life force of there own, they are legion...a single entity that is programmed to assimilate. They have no imagination to rethink the situation and that is our strength.

Is today the day humanity removes the shackles and is released from this prison, free from the crimes we did not commit? We are God's children. We only learned these bad habits while in jail, the prison guards taught us how to be bad. Now that we been kicked around like this we know who the real enemy is and now that we know who did this to us there is going to be hell to pay and that's a promise.

Just imagine how we can be on the cutting edge of information here on the enemies platform and talking back directly to them. As being witnessed across the world, this is our last stand people. Start speaking up for yourselves. Your conversations are being documented and archived on indestructible vessels and being included into an artificial intelligence matrix.. SO SPEAK UP!! They tell us covertly what they plan for us in coded programming so then why don't we tell them as a fact, where and what we plan to do with our lives. They are listening and monitoring everything, so why not explain yourself and send them the message, "we will not comply...we will not conform".

We are being attacked by an unseen covert force of demons possessing people through the trauma of children and it's way out of our control at this point of the game. Even if we knew about this invasion of demonic forces from the very beginning, what can be done when they hide in plain sight?

This game was built to be a tragedy and our adversary unbeatable because it is going by the programmed laws of this world and not the natural ones. We have been given a failed and dyeing world by default...an invisible evil who has the power over all things and anything incorruptible would just be killed for all to see.

We have to out think this program by using our imagination. Think past the problem far beyond to the point of all that is...where we want to go and and focus there.
