

Critical Analysis for analysis review

Elements of rhetorical situations: Purpose (to entertain), Audience (known), Genre (kinds of writing), Stance (author's attitude), Media and Design (the go between)

Rhetorical analysis and review

Special critique form

To determine the overall value or worth of a piece

By assess how well an author achieves rhetorical goals

Assessing persuasive appeals

Ask questions - find answers - ask more questions

Author - Who wrote it? What is the author's background, etc

Topic/subject - what is the author saying about the topic

Occasion - what is the historical context of the piece

Purpose - does the author state the purpose of the piece

Audience - What kinds of readers did the author have in mind?

Critical Analysis for analysis review

Elements of rhetorical situations: Purpose (to entertain), Audience (known), Genre (kinds of writing), Stance (author's attitude), Media and Design (the go between)

Rhetorical analysis and review

Special critique form

To determine the overall value or worth of a piece

By assess how well an author achieves rhetorical goals

Assessing persuasive appeals

Ask questions - find answers - ask more questions

Author - Who wrote it? What is the author's background, etc

Topic/subject - what is the author saying about the topic

Occasion - what is the historical context of the piece

Purpose - does the author state the purpose of the piece

Audience - What kinds of readers did the author have in mind? Critical Analysis for analysis review

Elements of rhetorical situations: Purpose (to entertain), Audience (known), Genre (kinds of writing), Stance (author's attitude), Media and Design (the go between)

Rhetorical analysis and review

Special critique form

To determine the overall value or worth of a piece

By assess how well an author achieves rhetorical goals

Assessing persuasive appeals

Ask questions - find answers - ask more questions

Author - Who wrote it? What is the author's background, etc

Topic/subject - what is the author saying about the topic

Occasion - what is the historical context of the piece

Purpose - does the author state the purpose of the piece