Read scenes from your favourite Webnovels, such as The King's Avatar, Release that witch and Battle Frenzy. Come to life as you jump into a wonderous world full-filled with comic and novel. Great selection of books with great content. My only issue is the fact that I get notifications for message alerts. And I get constant messages about someone gifting mega something or other to a book or group that I'm not even part of. Literally the "they spent lots of money see!?" It has become a dreaded nuisance that interrupts my reading and if I happen to be clicking the top of the screen at the time, literally takes me away from my book. As long as it's around my rating will go down.

Open Library is an open, editable library catalog, building towards a web page for every book ever published. More 4) Share Your Story and Gather Your Fans Join with thousands of aspiring authors. What it's good for: Finding new serials to read, and getting opinions before making the dive into something that might be millions of words. This is a really helpful list, so thanks for sharing! But I have to point out that BoxNovel and NovelFull are actually aggregator sites that copy and paste translations from other sites like WuxiaWorld and volare to post on their own sites. This is not only illegal at times (since they don't own the rights to the original raws or translations), but also unfair as they steal ad revenue and views from the legitimate translators.
