Know the Importance of Saturn in Astrology

Saturn may be the most misunderstood planet in astrology. People are named after fear and hatred, and when the natural nature of astrology is beneficial to Saturn that may be harmful under certain conditions. Saturn sets the tenth and eleventh houses in the natural Lunar New Year round. These houses deal with your position in society.

In the Vedic text, Saturn is described as the son of the sun. Sun's wife, Sanjana, left his self. Before leaving him, Sanjana created his own shadow called Chaya. Chaya gave birth to the sun. As Saturn's blue, the sun hates Saturn. This story proves why Saturn and the sun are enemies of astrology.

Saturn is exalted in the signs of Libra, weak in Aries. Saturn generally means delay, obstacles and struggle. At the same time, positive signs are that when you overcome the struggle and obstacles, you will get such a victory and never leave your life. Therefore, no matter how the indigenous people, there may be a general delay or prosperity of the struggle.

Saturn sets out Capricorn and Aquarius in the chart, but it is surprising how Saturn can give the house the greatest profit on the zodiac. Saturn is known as the Capricorn Planet, which takes 28 years to complete all the signs of a trip and return to the logo placed in the birthday map. Every two and a half years, it will change the logo.

Saturn is not considered a lucky planet, but it rules auspicious house. In general, Saturn stands for the elderly and servants. Mercury and Venus are friendly to Saturn, and Jupiter shares neutral relations with Saturn. Saturn sees the sun, the moon, and the stars as enemies.

In the Vedic astrology, when Saturn came to Kendra's houses 1, 4, 7 and 10, it was called two and a half years of Saturn's transitional period. When Saturn transitions from the birth of the twelfth, first and second houses, Saturn or 7:30 Saturn occurs. These are also important moments of anybody's life. He is destined to be slow and stable.

Saturn Mahadasa was 19 years, and it also gave delays and obstacles, but after 19 years, people began to flourish. Saturn has three aspects. Third, seventh and tenth houses from where they are. So in these houses can also see this delay and obstacles.

Yes, it shows the fight, but we should understand that we are destined to make a living in this world. The struggle may not always matter material, financial or spiritual or emotional. Saturn will never lose life altogether. It shows that your application's strategy may go wrong if you are not careful. In a different house, Saturn certainly works in the same way, but if there are 3, 6, 10 and 11 in Upachaya's house, Saturn will win in the second part of life. Upachaya housing deals with time-consuming matters. Saturn has the ultimate character in any house, but if you are willing to work in a just way, Saturn will return you in great way.
