

RLA Week 4 Homework Answer Key

Every Day Edit

Around the beginning of February each year, the top two American football teams meet for a big game. The game is called the Super Bowl. It is the annual championship for the National Football League. The Super Bowl is always held on a Sunday. Many Americans treat Super Bowl Sunday as a holiday. On Super Bowl Sunday, Americans eat more food than on any other holiday, except for Thanksgiving. They go to Super Bowl parties and cheer for their favorite teams. Thousands of people watch the Super Bowl in the stadium, but millions watch it on TV. In fact, the Super Bowl is one of the most-watched programs on TV every year.

Figurative Language

1. Life is too much like a pathless wood – SIMILE
2. The needle slept on the broidered vine – PERSONIFICATION
3. Beauty calls and gives no warning – PERSONIFICATION
4. My Soul goes clad in gorgeous things, Scarlet and gold and blue; - PERSONIFICATION
5. My heart it was a floating bird, That through the world did wander free,
But he hath locked it in a cage, And lost the silver key. – METAPHOR
6. A drum pounds out the hymn, That blends with the endless rumble of carts,
The scrape of feet, the noise of marts – HYPERBOLE
7. They only know our love was brief, And passing like an autumn leaf. – SIMILE
8. They went like moths into the grass with folded wings. – SIMILE
9. There the unregulated sun, Slopes down to rest when day is done – PERSONIFICATION
10. A poem is merely a flowering twig of thought. – METAPHOR
11. In came the moon and covered me with wonder, Touched me and was near me and made me very still. – PERSONIFICATION
12. The white moth is a ghost ship, Drifting through. – METAPHOR
13. My thoughts are senseless to mankind, As a dream's trouble or the speech of birds. – SIMILE
14. Day was dying; the poplars fled – PERSONIFICATION
15. Shining I rise from the waters of sleep. – METAPHOR
16. The stars in the sky, Exist but to light your passing feet. - HYPERBOLE
17. Struggles and strivings that wear us out like snow men at the thaw. – SIMILE
18. You are a frightened owl, Blinded by the light of life - METAPHOR
19. The high and lonely hills, Endure the darkening year. – PERSONIFICATION
20. Oh, praise me not the silent folk; To me they only seem, Like leafless, bird-abandoned oak,
And muffled, frozen stream. – SIMILE
21. My heart is but a mouse – METAPHOR
22. Her heart was once light as the floating water – SIMILE
23. I woke with the jostling and shouting of merry flowers – PERSONIFICATION

