The winter in Animal Crossing New Horizons is from November 26 to February 24, only then will the landscape and appearance of the island become winter-like, and the trees and roofs will be covered with snow, but you can use the winter-themed custom designs to add a wintry seasonal feel. For the ACNH winter path, the design often combines the weather, using snow, ice, frozen and frosting elements, along with white and blue colors, as well as regular and irregular shapes.

To achieve a more realistic winter-themed feeling and look, players also should change the dress-up and clothing. For this season, warm ACNH clothing items are necessary to resist the severe cold, such as thick sweaters, overcoat, scarves, boots, and more. When it comes to the design textures and styles, deep or light color, trendy or retro, cute or cool, short or long, it's completely up to you. Some players will employ elements from classic brand or icon, like Burberry and Gucci, popular characters and winter festivals are also good thoughts, like Christmas.
