

OKAY FOLKS LISTEN UP THIS IS OUR GAME PLAN

Quick rundown: Phase I is pushing #greatawakening and #wethepeople early wednesday morning. When twitter kills it we switch to Phase II the #FakeNewsAwards, plus Trump should be tweeting about that during the evening (I suspect) which means it will trend no matter what. We set the ground stage for that. Phase III can be done Wednesday night and onwards. We hijack other trending hashtags and post somewhat related images/memes to redpill unsuspecting normies.

— PHASE I —

How to make things trend on twitter:

- We decide a #hashtag

>voting is taking place here: http:// www.strawpoll.me/14832174/r

< #GreatAwakening and #WeThePeople are top votes. #FakeNewsAwards will be part of Phase II. Standby.

- We pick a day and time we want this to trend

>Wednesday morning/afternoon

- Which means you have to begin pushing the hashtag very early in the a.m.

>Anons should begin dropping around 4-5am EST

< Keep dropping memes steady throughout the a.m. Even if you don't see it trending. KEEP DOING IT. NEVER STOP. ALL DAY!

- VERY FUCKING IMPORTANT ^

- You need 2-3 thousand unique tweets with the hashtag in a short amount of time

- Pictures and content-rich tweets with one or two agreed upon #'s

- Original tweets help trend things faster than just simply retweeting things. Likes don't really count for much.

- Tweets with a ton of hashtags sometimes don't count because spam filters. Keep it simple and limited.

- Follow all Q accounts, follow back all Q accounts.

> Create your network to help retweet and comment on

- Twitter will try to throttle it

> TWITTER ALWAYS TRIES TO KILL RIGHT WING #'S

< We will move to Phase II when we see this happening.

— PHASE II —

- Once twitter kills a trending hashtag its very hard to make it trend again.

> It can have thousands of tweets and suddenly disappear from the trending tab.

- #GreatAwakening and #WeThePeople is Phase I, early morning.

#FakeNewsAwards happen next.

> We will set the stage for FakeNewsAwards. Trump will tweet about this which will make it trend no matter what.

< WE ARE HIS FRONT LINE

- Continue dropping examples of fake news, bad journalism, and their lies.

> RESOURCE FOR THIS IS: <https://imgur.com/gallery/Skill>

< ^ Tons of examples in that imgur album. Download and prepare.

- Eventually this too will die down

> We move to Phase III

— PHASE III —

- This will be after #FakeNewsAwards happens and dies down.

- Throughout the rest of the night and into the next days find hashtags that are currently trending and tweet our memes and info using their #'s

> HIJACK HIJACK HIJACK!

- It helps if the memes you're posting on a # is relevant to the subject matter.

- You can also find large twitter accounts (celebs, journalists, people in media/politics) and reply to their new tweets with our memes/info.

> You will get blocked, attacked, and harassed. Report the harassers and move on.

> If you see another Q poster under attack, comment and help out. Defend each other.

- Keep this up over the following days. Remember, keep things simple, don't get angry and resort to personal attacks like the left does, and remember to always take the high ground. Not everyone can be saved.
