To Whom It may concern

Conmetis AG would like to thank Healy Consultants Group PLC for the excellent advice and support they provided during the establishment of our subsidiary in Singapore. The provided services including company formation, corporate bank account opening, employment pass application and accounting and tax services.

We appreciate the efforts of Nik Zhukov and his team for the successful incorporation and services rendered. They have provided their services and capabilities very professionally and to the highest standard we have ever experienced. During the engagement we enjoyed their timely replies and professional reports.

We are fully satisfied with the advice and services and would not hesitate to recommend Healy Consultants for such services.

Yours Sincerely,

Hajo Mueller-Bornemann
Director
