

Final story idea:

- A group of students are waiting for their teacher to come down for the lesson. They have been waiting for 10 minutes and are now agitated and bored.
- Mr Skinner VT. He is talking about what a good teacher he is, despite being late for his first lesson with these students. He realises the time, and rushes downstairs.
- Mr Skinner arrives and introduces himself. The students are confused, as they were expecting their regular teacher. Miss McLeod.
- Mr Skinner VT. Reiterates how good he is at teaching. Two students walk by, and Mr Skinner insults them for no reason.
- Mr Skinner is taking the register, but gets every students name wrong. Tallulah defends Kayleigh for being shy
- Mr Skinner VT. He explains that he believes the best way to help a shy student is to scare them.
- Mr Skinner finds ways to scare Kayleigh, for example, loud noises and jump scares. Kayleigh runs away.
- Kayleigh VT. Before Kayleigh gets the time to speak, Mr Skinner jumps out on her, scaring her one last time.
- Carlos defends Kayleigh, and tells Mr Skinner that he is being very rude. Mr Skinner cannot understand his accent and so accidentally insults him.
- Carlos VT. He doesn't say anything, but raises his middle finger.
- Mr Skinner is looking at David Mitchel on his computer. He notices that 'Sean' looks a bit like him, so proceeds to call him David.
- Sean VT. Sean clarifies that his name is not Dave, but in fact Sean.
- Students are working quietly. Tallulah, who is in a wheelchair, accidentally drops a pencil case. Mr Skinner goes over to her and patronisingly bends down to talk to her like a child.
- Tallulah VT. She mentions that she's just been accepted into Cambridge University.
- The bell finally goes and the students get up to leave. Tallulah has a bit of trouble getting out from the desk, which makes Mr Skinner laugh. He holds the door open for the boys and then leaves, shutting the door on Tallulah, who is now stuck inside.
- Mr Skinner VT. He again boasts about how good he is as a teacher. We see him leave, and pass Tallulah, who is still stuck inside the classroom.

Characters:

Carlos – he's Venezuelan, so has an accent. He is confident and defensive when people are wrong.

Tallulah – she is in a wheelchair and is friends with Kayleigh

Sean – he is a quiet student who looks like David Michel. He misses his regular teacher, Miss McLeod.

Kayleigh – she is extremely shy and is not good with social interaction.

Mr Skinner – he is rude and inappropriate without meaning to be. He thinks he is a really good teacher, however is one of the worst.

Miss McLeod – she is the student's regular teacher. She is professional and well-liked by the students.

Locations:

The main location is a media classroom, as it is set in a media lesson. The character VT's take place in the corridor or another classroom. In the beginning part of the film, we meet Mr Skinner in his office upstairs. He is running late, so by having him in this location shows that he is quite unorganised and unreliable.
