

Lio's Pokémon card list

How does this list work?

- The numbers on the left side are divided into sections of four. One section belongs to one row of cards on the right side (numbers: up to down, cards: left to right) (I hope that makes sense)
- Cards with numbers marked green + blurred borders: cards I already own.
I might take multiple copies of the same card if they are a better condition, other language or holo / holo reverse...
- All numbers refer to the English / Western releases. Exception: numbers marked with a star (* = Card only released in Japan (yet)).
- Next to the English name there is also the German one now to make it easier for German sellers.
- The images of the cards are just examples. Some cards belong to multiple sets and therefore have different numbers but basically are still the same card. I accept any language, normals, holos and holo reverses etc. In regards of the condition of the cards I'm not very picky with that. I will tell you if I think the card is too damaged.

What if I have a card I think you might like but isn't listed?

- Feel free to offer it anyway! I'm especially interested in cards that feature my favorite Pokemon (for example Burned Tower (Raikou) or Dawn Stadium (Leafeon)) but it's very hard for me to find them as they are obviously not listed under the Pokémon I'm looking for.

What can you offer?

- Money, cards from my own collection and art (T.O.S. apply for the most part).
  - If I do art in trade for the cards, I can offer you to finish the art first, but I will not mail it / send you the high-quality file until I physically receive the cards.
  - I suggest taking a picture of the envelope, receipt of the stamps or whatever you think could "convince me" that you in fact sent out the cards in case the cards get lost on their way (which I hope will not happen).
  - Also please make sure you pack the cards safely! Putting cardboard or thick paper around them should work just fine.

What cards can you offer?

- I don't make a list for that as it takes way too much time, but you can tell me what cards you're interested in and I'll have a look.

Note: All card information was referenced from serebii.net (<https://www.serebii.net/card/dex/>). To compare prices, I usually look at cardmarket first.

If you have any questions or card you want to offer just send me a message!
