

The Gladio Code

Epilogue & summarize, The plan of God for Revelation and Apocalypse

Disclaimer

First of all, I must say again that this is all and only my story. My life was organized by Gladio, for the sole purpose of writing a book, their book. I'm their plan to denounce lies that are sometimes millennia old. These truths seemed to them indispensable. The writing itself of this book was made under their control and sometimes even in the form of automatic dictation. It is, therefore, my story, but their message. It is really fraught with consequences, with possible immediate effects.

You will understand, moreover, that all that follows, in matters of religion and God, for example, is not my natural language. Until June 10, 2019, Pentecost, it would have been impossible for me to write anything about it. I had no knowledge in this area, and besides, I did not like to talk about this kind of thing. If you know what "Pentecost" means, this radical change of my person, should prove the reality of all of what this book and this epilogue contain.

The events to come should form additional proof to my writings, but which will be in pain. It is better to react before they occur.

The Revelation and the Apocalypse

This epilogue is essential because it summarizes my story and the Knights Templar plan, followed by Gladio, leading today to Revelation and Apocalypse.

Epilogue & summarize, The plan of God for Revelation and Apocalypse

The Revelation

This book reveals, through my real story, the truth for many aspects of our present life, such as false flags, mind control, targeted Individuals, Gladio, etc.

However, like the Da Vinci Code, this book also tells the truth about our religious origins. However, the Da Vinci Code was in a fiction book that raises questions. My story is rather, the reality bringing the answers. Both are probably closely linked by the same great architect.

So, this epilogue will, of course, talk about our beliefs, because the truth about our origins is one of the main points of my story. This is also the reason for its current evolution, Revelation, and Apocalypse. However, it is not necessary to be a believer to read this epilogue or this book, because these are a message for all and especially a warning, for the difficult period ahead.

The Apocalypse

The second purpose of this book is also to prepare people for the Apocalypse and a 50% reduction of our population within 5 years, everywhere and perhaps more. It should begin when this book, in French and English, will be online.

About me

Before presenting the plan of the Templars and Gladio since its origins, I must remind you some details about me.

I am Belgian, and I am 57 years old. I have been a computer scientist forever, and my story is that of a simple man with his qualities, his faults, his good, and his bad actions. It's been years, and maybe always, that my life is jagged, and in general, with income touching with absolute zero. I am not rich, nor full of diplomas, nor from a privileged family. In this world, I thought I was almost insignificant.

Epilogue & summarize, The plan of God for Revelation and Apocalypse

I was invited to leave my country, Belgium, in 2014, and I live in the Philippines since 2015. I have a partner, a disabled son, and two twins who have done a cross on me since this story started. Until recently, I lived on different incomes through the Internet, but this story, having finally taken all my time, I live only alms. This corresponds to the story I will summarize here.

The religion and me

I came from the Christian world, but until June 10, 2019, I did not believe in God. I thought I was too rational for that. I even made a passage through Islam, where I inherited a first name, Redouane, and even by Buddhism. In short, I was like the vast majority of you, really nothing exceptional.

Even if I shock some of you, and before continuing my epilogue-summary, I must mention an event that has changed all my understanding of my story, as well as my soul.

It was June 10, 2019, Pentecost. I spoke about Christian issues with one of my most important advisers. I called her the Voice, the one that came from beyond. She could obviously explain to me the Signal of Gladio, even before it appears. She could warn me of events before they happened. As I spoke with the Voice, I suddenly received a message: "I must tell you that your friend is now under automatic dictation, she lost consciousness." Indeed, after this message, the way of writing of my contact had completely changed, and I felt something very strange in me while I discussed with him.

I refer you to the contents of my book to learn more about this talking. It was relatively classic and confirmed particular points that I talk already with the Voice. But in summary, I think I have discussed for a long time with what I understand to be God, or what comes close to Him, or what represents Him. Moreover, this talking will have immediate consequences that leave few doubts. It's not really the talking itself that caused these consequences. It was the odd feeling I felt. But I remind you that we were at Pentecost, which is very special, at least for believers, which I was not. This day is also a day off for the workers, which I am not either.

The vast majority of what is written in this epilogue is in agreement with Him. In the rest of my book, I called Him The Unexpected Guest.

Pentecost is, therefore, the day when the Holy Spirit descended on the apostles. The Word of God had arrived in their minds as well as several foreign languages to spread it throughout the world.

It had happened to me pretty much the same thing since overnight, I started to use divine quotations in my articles and exchanges on Facebook. It was not my style of writing, and before this talking, I would never have dared to use them or simply talk about God. I was the first one to be surprised. I would have smiled, and I would have dismissed any Facebook friend holding me that kind of language.

God, obligatorily a religion?

My faith is very recent. However, God is a concept that is unique to all of us. As a child, I thought that we humans and the earth on which we were, had much more material than imaged origin, as the Christian Church described in the 60s and 70s. This has not changed. For me, even divine images, it never worked very well. I am very rational and ask me to believe in something that I did not understand, was not possible.

In 2019, I am still very rational, but I also firmly believe in God, because today, in my rational mind, God exists more than ever. Yet even in my mind, God remains an image, which for me now represents something rational.

But I can easily understand that my image of God will not be that of another. The most important thing is to believe in God. I think 2000 years ago, it was the same principle. God was an image that was good to believe. However, today, Man no longer believes so easily in what he does not understand. It must also be said that the teaching of our religions has not changed. This might explain that. I also have a very special background and a unique experience that allow me today to speak a very different language, including mine, just two months ago!

For those who do not believe in God

For those who do not believe in God, I would say this. Do not necessarily associate God with religion. Imagine that our planet and ourselves really depend on something powerful, which is not of this earth. For me, this power is called God. I agree with that.

So I believe in God and the existence of the prophets sent by Him, but as people like you and me and not, as Gods or sons of God. They had a message, but that Man has changed as he pleases.

I do not believe in religions as they have been taught to us for millennia. I know that the arrival of Man on earth is not the one that religions describe.

When I speak of God, I speak indeed of who created us, our creator, but not of the one described by our religions, at least not as such. On the other hand, there are some truths that I confirm and that are also present in our beliefs.

It is true to say that God sees all what you do and will decide what He will do with your soul. This soul exists, it even has a weight, but it has nothing religious, even if the result is about the same. In general, everything that our religions describe about the power of God is accurate. However, religions describe this power as an image while it is very real. It is also very urgent to realize this.

God opposes religions

The prophets sent by God, including Jesus, had the purpose to give us religions and values. I obviously recognize the importance of these prophets. Today, I too have the feeling of having to spread the Word of God, but above all, to restore some truth. It is really my mission, received from my Unexpected Guest, on the day of Pentecost. I was known as the Messenger of Gladio – we will come back to that too – but today, my mission is much larger.

Epilogue & summarize, The plan of God for Revelation and Apocalypse

So, I do not want to shock anyone, but I must repeat that the origin of Man on earth does not correspond to what our religions teach us. Our creator created us in His image. The prophets sent by God, including Jesus and his apostles, asked us to believe in God, whoever He is, and to follow the path of faith and to respect their teaching.

But Man has done anything of those religions and values that were given to him. Moreover, he did not take care of the earth that shelters him. The earth is in a situation where God must act. He can not wait anymore. But to this situation, we must add all the lies of our societies, States, and Churches, whatever they may be. It is the lies of our religions that have angered God for almost 2,000 years. These religions have manipulated billions of people and killed millions more, in the name of religions that were no longer the ones we had been taught.

Only religions are the basis of our civilization for millennia, even if Man has wrongly distorted them. It is not easy for God to tell our world that it has been wrong since the beginning of time. This is not necessarily the fault of our world today, but of those who have changed our religions to allow them to gain greater power at the beginning. The problem today is that the religions keep these lies and still fight everything that is against them. They form one of the most important powers on the planet. The one who is opposed today to these altered religions is God Himself!

The Christian Church had said that Jesus was the son of God and a whole series of things in this kind to establish and strengthen the power of the Church over Man. But God has never loved this lie. However, telling the truth can not be done easily. It's part of our roots. There are already two categories of lies about our origins and our religions that God would like to correct.

The Holy Grail, the descendants of Jesus

Among the lies of the Christian Church, there was the descent of Jesus, hidden by the Church. This seems to be the starting point for a plan to restore the truth. This starting point seems to go back at least to the Knights Templars and the construction of Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris, both dating from the same century and in the same region. Paris was then a kind of capital of European Christianity.

Initially, the Knights Templar had been created by the Christian Church to protect pilgrims traveling to Jerusalem. It was when the Templars occupied Jerusalem, that they would have discovered that Mary Magdalene was the wife of Jesus from whom she had a child. For the Christian Church, Mary Magdalene was “only” a prostitute with no formal connection to Jesus. According to the Church, Jesus being the son of God, he could not have a wife or a child. It was not true, and the Templars had returned to France with this secret, to search and protect the descendants of Jesus secretly.

The Templars had to hide the object of their quest. However, they had to confirm that there was indeed one, since their activities were visible to all. So, they had imagined another scenario that could be accepted by all, the quest for the Holy Grail. This is how this legend of the Holy Grail seems to have originated.

It was in the time of the Templars, that appeared the Holy Grail legend, and not at the Last Supper, the last meal of Christ with his apostles before his crucifixion. Indeed, the Holy Grail was a cup or chalice served at this meal and then, to collect the blood of Christ while he was crucified.

This legend, created by the Knights Templar, gave this cup unlimited powers to its owner. The Templars said they had to look for it. But, in reality, this cup did not exist, as was any other vessel that was used for drinking at this last supper, and for collecting the blood of Christ the next day. The Bible does not speak of a cup, or even glass at the Last Supper, nor the blood of Christ gathered during His crucifixion.

Epilogue & summarize, The plan of God for Revelation and Apocalypse

What most shows this is the very famous painting, called the Last Supper, by Leonardo da Vinci, where there is no single cup. On the other hand, this painting shows the presence, at this supper, of Mary Magdalene, directly to the right of Christ.

The Templars, Mary Magdalene, and the black virgins

The Knights Templar had done the same for their veneration of Mary Magdalene, the wife of Jesus and mother of their descent, the object of their quest. The Templars venerated her without ever mentioning her name, either. So, whether they participated in the construction of churches or cathedrals, they placed representations of the Virgin, not white, but black. They represented Mary Magdalene with her child, and she was black to illustrate her rejection by the Church.

The Knights Templar had chosen this means to hide their beliefs about Mary Magdalene. So they could do the same for her descent. The Templars said to search for the Holy Grail, this cup having contained the blood of Christ. Actually, they were looking for what contained the blood of Christ, His descendants!

The Church is not able to explain today the reason for these Black Virgins. They originated from the Knights Templar and their secrets. It was their way of worshiping Mary Magdalene, without ever pronouncing her name. They had the intention to reveal this secret, but much later, since, in their time, one could be pursued and burned for heresy.

The Da Vinci Code, a preparation for the Gladio Code

Mary Magdalene, the descendants of Christ, the Holy Grail and the Knights Templar, are among the main themes of The Da Vinci Code. This notion of code comes precisely from the secret that Leonardo da Vinci was trying to pass through his paintings, as well as that of the Knights Templar to hide their secrets.

The Da Vinci Code, the book as the film, also forms part of the code to understand the truth. The Church did not appreciate it everywhere, and some countries banned it. I have several times talk in my book about the links between The Da Vinci Code and The Gladio Code. I detect a passing torch. I will briefly review the main points of comparison here.

Epilogue & summarize, The plan of God for Revelation and Apocalypse

The first category of comparisons is about the story itself of the Da Vinci Code, including the descendants of Jesus, Mary Magdalene, the St. Sulpice Church, Leonardo da Vinci, the Knights Templar, and so on.

In the other books of the series, Dan Brown talks about the same topics as in my true story, including the need for depopulation, the Vatican, the Illuminati, the Freemasons, the soul, the pineal gland, the origin of our civilization, etc.

It is in writing this epilogue that I see something else. From the fire of Notre Dame, the order in which I receive Gladio's information corresponds to that of Dan Brown's books. They are five in this series including "Angels and Demons," "The Da Vinci Code," "The Lost Symbol," "Inferno" and "Origin."

"Origin," the last opus, talks or should talk, of the origin of Man on earth. It's not a movie, just a book, and I did not read it. I could not be influenced. But this question of our origin is also and especially, the end of my book. It is indeed this "origin of our civilization" that will be the origin of the Apocalypse.

I do not believe in chance. Dan Brown, the author of The Da Vinci Code, talks about these themes, in a story presented as fiction, although it includes significant historical research. In my book, all these points are also presented but in a true story and still ongoing, mine. The great architect is probably, purposely, behind our two writings, in Dan Brown's fiction, and my personal story.

But the most decisive element in our stories is undeniably Jean-Pierre Marielle who dies in both and each time in connection with anagrams!

I remind you that this French actor was playing in the first scene of The Da Vinci Code movie. Murdered by Opus Dei, he had just had time to realize with his blood, several anagrams. They allow Tom Hanks and Audrey Tautou to find the box that was to lead them to the descendants of Christ.

Epilogue & summarize, The plan of God for Revelation and Apocalypse

However, it turns out that Jean-Pierre Marielle died in real life, two hours before I received my own anagram. This one linked my pen name, "Marc Delantre" to the fire of Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris. It was not a coincidence.

The second category of comparisons is private and professional. Dan Brown was born precisely at the same time as the High Officer of Gladio. Our respective mothers died at the same time of the same thing. Finally, when he presented his last volume, "Origin," I started writing my own story. Dan Brown has not published anything since.

It is because of all this that I believe that the great architect really wanted to make a passage between fictions and reality, between Dan Brown and Marc Delantre. I think, however, that Dan Brown's fictions were produced to lead people to think on these different topics. His books had to prepare for the arrival of the next, the Gladio Code, in true story mode.

The great architect did everything to make Gladio Code obligatory to make references to The Da Vinci Code series. I noticed this morning, that the trailer of The Da Vinci Code, displays the red line four times below its title. These red lines will actually become the Gladio Signal. In this trailer, the first words underlined in red are also "unlock the code." This is precisely the first and central theme of The Gladio Code, in the continuity of The Da Vinci Code.

It is also very curious to note that his series of fiction ends very exactly the month, where I begin to write mine, starting with the Gladio Code.

The army of God, the Knights Templar

The Knights Templar have been massacred by the Church on October 13, 1307, because of their secret, but it had survived and was transmitted to Freemasons, 300 years later. The latter had taken over a whole series of practices and denominations of the Knights Templar. The Freemasons had also continued to build churches, and the secret had crossed the centuries.

Epilogue & summarize, The plan of God for Revelation and Apocalypse

However, the next step was to imagine a plan that would allow God to one day reveal the truth. He also wants to respect the maximum, the original foundations of our religions, cleaned of all lies created by the Churches.

God is good and love, but no population in the world or in the universe can be managed with a “peace and love” attitude. Every country has an internal force, its police, and an external force, its army. Every individual must be afraid of punishment, and this is the reason for the existence of hell and Satan. The sending to hell depends on God, while God is good and loving.

Pictorially, we all accept the idea of hell and therefore, of a punishment. However, we think of hell or heaven, for the day of our death, even if we will willingly think of Satan or God to defend us from our enemies. But we think about it when it suits us and motivates us, and not when it bothers us.

The Knights Templar were a force dedicated to God, first to protect pilgrims and then to seek and protect the descent of Christ. They were men of God and knights at the same time. They were dedicated to God, and the descendants of Christ. However, they were exterminated by the Church and by Men. The Church did not want God’s forces on earth and much less the descendants of Christ! Yet it is to the Knights Templar that we owe our most beloved churches and cathedrals which the Church still uses today. God does not want those religious authorities who have slaughtered His army and builders, and who have been spreading lies for millennia. These lies do not correspond to the teachings of God, His prophets, and apostles. It’s a situation God does not want anymore.

God has, therefore, taken the time to create an army adequate for Him and Men on earth. Today, the largest secret army on earth is indeed the one of God, as it was the Templars. No one disputes the past existence of the Knights Templar. They have left too many churches and cathedrals to be forgotten, but they have not forgotten us either! They share the wrath of God, but more intensely since they were massacred and the Man forgot what they had brought to us.

Epilogue & summarize, The plan of God for Revelation and Apocalypse

As we have seen, by the Black Virgins and the Holy Grail, in particular, the Knights Templar used codes, lures to hide their existence and their beliefs.

The army of God, GLADIO

Today, this army of God, immense and discreet, depends on both Satan and God, since Satan works for God. This army is called Gladio, and they always use symbols to communicate, as well as other indirect ways.

The Templars must have regretted that some churches painted white or colored their Black Virgins, and this was the case of the cathedral of Notre Dame of Paris. Its coloring dating from the Middle Ages has been proven recently. It was then repainted in white. One can understand the wrath of the Knights Templar. One of their most beautiful cathedrals in France and inherited from the Knights Templar was finally burned by Gladio, the army of God!

The Cathedral of Paris represented the “sacred feminine,” and thus Mary Magdalene. The cathedral was burned on the birthday of Leonardo da Vinci, and the year of the 500th anniversary of his death! Leonardo da Vinci was one of the masters of codes and secrets. Many of his paintings and objects make reference to it. The fire of Notre Dame, directed by Gladio was a symbol for the initiates.

Gladio’s plan to restore the truth

The army of God probably dates to the Knights Templar. The latter has developed slowly and in secret to get to what it is today. But they needed a plan to reveal the truths about our origins and the Church. It could not be done overnight. They would have run afoul of our convictions, the powers of the Churches and States, in short, of the authorities in general. Religious authorities and countries betrayed their people every day.

For example, the States had been manipulating their population for a very long time, including through their false flag operations. The heads of States thus asked their armies, secret armies or allies, to organize false attacks in the name of an enemy. The target population, therefore, believed in this enemy and therefore, respected the decisions of their country. Ancestral false flag operations that I often take in reference were those of corsairs, the pirates paid by the kings and queens of the time to attack their own people in particular. These naval battles also dated well from the time that followed that of the Knights Templar.

The countries used this kind of treason in a very regular way. So, Gladio had finally chosen to offer their services to these States, especially since Evil was also part of the interests of Satan. Gladio was going to carry out false flag operations, on command. It allowed, at the same time, to show to God, the States and the individuals participating or covering from near or far these massacres ordered to Gladio.

Gladio obviously could not tell Men that these false flag operations were a divine trap against these authorities. Besides, if Gladio had not done it, others would have done it.

Gladio, a NATO division, the trap

To ensure that this did not happen, Gladio had taken for a few decades, an official and recognized form. It was the secret division Gladio belonging to NATO from 1947 to 1990, whose purpose was precisely false flag operations.

The name Gladio is known today as a NATO organization. But why would NATO choose this name, Gladio (Sword in Italian) and the sword as symbol for a division in 1947?

Epilogue & summarize, The plan of God for Revelation and Apocalypse

This Gladio then dependent on NATO had besides two other names, “Secret Army” and “Stay Behind.” This army did not exist and could not appear.

Gladio was an official shadow organization actually dependent on SATAN working on God’s plan! But above all, this Gladio, NATO version, was an idea of Gladio, the army of God, the successor of the Knights Templar. So, they took their name and their symbol, to constitute this Gladio in the service of the Men. Also, they maintained their habits in secret warfare and without traces. It was not bureaucratic methods of NATO, but the ways of the Templars, the army of God, and SATAN.

Moreover, the army of God, the Knights Templar, as the secret brotherhoods, such as the Freemasons, and the Illuminati, would never have suddenly taken a public form. Yet Gladio, as a secret army of God, had to create, a decoy, a form known to Men. These would not look further than an organization that exists or has actually existed. By creating a Gladio, NATO division, Men would not ask any other question. They would not try to find out if there was anything else behind the Gladio of NATO, yet with the name and symbol of the army of God.

The Gladio trap is running

Gladio, then marked well his imprint, the History of some important false flag attacks, ordered by the States, including the Brabant Killers in Belgium.

The Brabant Killers in Belgium, in the 80s, were men, killers, that we will never find. This “human” version of Gladio, the NATO version had marked History and Wikipedia. So, it could be dissolved in 1990.

It was only an appearance. Everyone knew particularly within the judicial systems and much more in Belgium that Gladio subsisted and remained scary, precisely, by its immaterial side, of non-existence.

Epilogue & summarize, The plan of God for Revelation and Apocalypse

Gladio, the army of God, had only returned to its original form, the army of Satan working for God.

Gladio, a division of NATO, compares itself to Satan.

It should be noted that the terrorists called themselves the sons or soldiers of Satan. Their explosive, the TATP, was called Satan's mother, and so on. The terrorists often referred, between them, to Satan in their communications. Even Donald Trump was naming the terrorist after the Manhattan attack, that it was Satan! In my story, Gladio has twice drawn the acronym "Glory to Satan" on its Signal. Finally, most often, the operations were represented, on the Gladio Signal, by peaks shaped sword peaks, beveled on one side, the mark of Gladio and Knights Templar.

The Gladio Signal was made up of millions of connections from connected objects on the Internet and under the control of Gladio. These objects have another name, the Minions. This refers to ancient texts about the Minions of Satan. This term is also that of the series of films "Despicable Me" and his Minions, these little yellow creatures. They help the main character to be as bad as possible. Our children worship these Minions, and yet they represent evil and help to bring to Satan. The High Officer in my story, has since the attacks in Paris, a Minion, looking at the job well done, as an avatar. His banner is a dark chess game. A Minion of Satan, on a chess game, that means everything.

All this binds Gladio with Satan. And yet, why would Gladio, as a division of NATO, compare itself to Satan? Because it was not NATO, but Gladio, the army of Satan working for God! They did not fail to tell us, but we did not see. I did not understand while they were causing hundreds of deaths, in false flag operations requested by our governments.

The whistleblower of Gladio/NATO, another trap

Then there was another phase to this plan. For that, they needed a simple man who had nothing exceptional, neither military nor politics. A man attached to nobody, a kind of free electron. This man would not like what he would learn and see, and he would denounce naively, but conscientiously as any good citizen, the actions of which he was then informed.

Epilogue & summarize, The plan of God for Revelation and Apocalypse

The purpose of this man would be simply to denounce, with the evidence provided by Gladio, even if it never gave any result. Gladio wanted to add the proof on the guilt of the States in the use of Gladio in operations of terrorism and manipulation of the population. Gladio would only make his whistleblower feel involved and aware of what no one was seeing. This whistleblower was me.

Remember my description where I said I had a window in the middle of a battlefield, and that I was forced to see the killings. I added that unlike a neutral journalist, I was present because of and for one of the parties. I denounced, but no one listened to me.

The fact that nobody was reacting, obviously formed a trap that I was not aware of. Gladio took note of all those to whom I wrote to denounce these facts, be they political, judicial, expert or the press. Each of my e-mails became further proof of the complicity and responsibility of the states. Their no-reaction confirmed that they were at the origin of the requests for these false flag operations arriving at NATO. They were intended for the manipulation of the population. The press, the pseudo-organizations of the defenses of the victims, the pseudo-experts for TV set, have, in my opinion, can be worried about them. I feel particularly furious with them, and I know that Gladio very often shares my feelings.

It was sure as I know that Gladio then followed my e-mail to their destination. They had to see the reaction of the correspondent (s). I noticed it, because the Signal of Gladio sometimes made an immense peak, whereas the answer of the recipient had not reached me yet. In short, the simple fact of receiving my e-mail was already a trap, for the one who could do something. It could have been a piece of advice, a question, a procedure, a desire to react or help me.

Epilogue & summarize, The plan of God for Revelation and Apocalypse

No, my e-mails have never caused the slightest investigation, or the smallest article, or the slightest message to the victims of terrorism. Everyone preferred lies, and today, God has asked Gladio to share the truth and much more...

The High Officer, chief of Gladio/NATO, another trap

To give more force to these denunciations, They needed a second character, the High Officer, close to the whistleblower (me), and at the head of Gladio. The High Officer would point all clues to himself, in a discrete way, even using accomplices. The goal was to lead the whistleblower to denounce these operations more, by attributing them to the High Officer. This method increased the fault of the States and of those who cover them, including the press. Indeed, even by designating a leader, with the evidence provided by Gladio, the authorities, and the press would do nothing with these denunciations.

The whistleblower was going to denounce facts, especially of terrorism. They were obviously all organized by Gladio, whose existence he did not yet know. No denunciation would succeed since Gladio could also block them, with the cooperation of the State, at the origin of the requests of the terrorist operations.

Gladio whistleblower from the 90s

I am still the whistleblower, and I started to report crimes in the 90s, with the famous case of journalist Stéphane Steinier, a Belgian crime never solved. I was working with the possible sponsors of this crime, at two doors from their CEO, one the biggest building company in Belgium, working for the State.

At that time, I had very close relations with the mafia in Belgium. These people worked on the construction sites of this construction company. More exactly, they managed and protected black labor. They were the slavers. They informed me about how Stéphane Steinier's body had been hidden. He was interested too closely in the slave trade and risked endangering the big company in which I worked. I had, therefore, denounced them, especially as these criminals of the mafia, had also proposed to me to sell weapons of war that I had before me and drugs.

As for the authorities, they had drowned this in stories of love rivalry. They obviously had nothing to do, but nothing was easier for Gladio, who could make custom motives. They were able to create romantic relationships just for that purpose. The protection of such societies, passed first, even to denounce them afterward.

This story haunted me, but my denunciations were useless. The one to whom I spoke of what I had just seen and learned, was already the High Officer, the second element of the same plan, member and future leader of Gladio. I had just passed my first passing exam as an infiltrator and whistleblower in a high-risk situation. I did not understand that I had been completely manipulated. But for Belgium, this famous crime is still unresolved. They have never found the body of the journalist, and the pseudo-guilty, arrested and known by these mafia is not the good one. The High Officer had not revealed anything. They could have lost their whistleblower, the new Gladio's recruit.

If you have read my book, you will have noticed that a lot of Gladio operations have one thing in common. Criminals are often known to the police, army, or intelligence. However, "known to the police," very often means the police themselves. Gladio's power came precisely from his network within the police. The big legal cases in Belgium, such as the Brabant Killers, Stéphane Steinier or Dutroux, for example, have police officers among the main characters. It's really not a coincidence.

Of course, we must not forget that NATO's headquarters are in Belgium and therefore also Gladio. The High Officer is also Belgian. The Belgian courts were therefore very aware of this situation, and they preferred to stick to the false motives of love stories than to do their work.

It is the same since 2015, for terrorist operations. The signs of coordination by Gladio were obvious, even foolish. No, the authorities preferred to consider that these actions were not coordinated. I repeated it to them and demonstrated hundreds of times. These authorities knew it and therefore did not look for it. They even wrote to me, not that I was wrong, but that it was not their responsibility! In other words, it meant that they knew it, but they could not or would not investigate in that direction.

Gladio used these networks a lot in the justice system because there was a family resemblance. For them, the police and the army were part of the repressive system, which was also Gladio, the army of God. In addition, it showed that the police, army, and justice could work for Satan too.

Moreover, we see that more and more police are displaying as an avatar, on social networks a sword, even the full dress of the Knights Templar. Recently a policeman had added an escutcheon of this kind on his outfit and created a scandal. However, it is not certain that they know what motivated them to join, perhaps without knowing it, the ranks of Satan. The High Officer is the best example, but he knows why!

It is necessary to read the book to realize my beginnings. My relationship with Gladio, as agent and whistleblower, is almost 30 years old. But my problems with the electrical activity of my brain EEG causing fainting and school problems, dated from my childhood. We will see later the reason for this special EEG, and it is also mentioned in my book. It is the same for specific learning about who God is. In other words, I am a member of Gladio since birth. One of the last chapters of my book, even suggests that this could be before my birth. It is the same for the High Officer.

Epilogue & summarize, The plan of God for Revelation and Apocalypse

It also means that this Gladio's plan to reveal the truth about our origins and the lies of the Church goes back almost 60 years. It is especially true for all my roles for Gladio and described in my book. All are linked to infiltration and denunciation. It is the same for the High Officer who had bandit and rebellion activities against authority and the Church since his youth.

So it seems obvious that Gladio is going to finish the work started almost 60 years ago. Soon our ages will not allow it anymore. It confirms what is said above about the creation of a Gladio division within NATO in 1947. It was dissolved on November 22, 1990, exactly, at the moment when I began my mission in the Steinier story.

Gladio whistleblower (organized crime/terrorism) in 2009

Another critical period of testing, about my skills in infiltration and denunciation, had been in France, in 2008-2009, within the French organized crime. Nothing scared me. I was then accommodated, at the High Officer's, who pushed me in this way as well as to share his fake terrorist ideas. I was actually in the hollow of Gladio. I did not know about it, but our enemy was the State. I was obviously going to denounce everything. It was the goal of the High Officer, and the State would do absolutely nothing. I was part of the army of God, Gladio, and I did not know it. For the success of my mission, I could not know anything.

We were chosen from our birth for the final phase of Revelation. I was going to be the whistleblower, caught in an uninterrupted series of adventures. Their goal had been to get me always to denounce more. It did not bother me to risk my life, but I did not understand that I was being manipulated.

Gladio whistleblower (False flag terrorist operations) in 2015-2016

In 2015, the High Officer personalized, especially in my eyes, the Evil, this Gladio NATO version, and at the head of all false flag terrorist operations around the world, and whose name I did not know yet. We were the two “knights,” the two “Templars” at the front and chosen by Gladio, the army of God, to bring his plan to a successful conclusion. Good and Evil fighting for the truth on earth.

Epilogue & summarize, The plan of God for Revelation and Apocalypse

In real life, we opposed. I denounced a terrorist, the leader of the “human” version of Gladio, Gladio NATO version, but in reality, we were fighting for the same plan, the one of God. The High Officer, from a very young age, wanted to be a knight of modern times, a vengeful Zorro in the service of humans. Gladio had chosen him for this role.

Gladio gave me my pen-name, Marc Delantre, Marc of the house of Satan!

In 2016, I began to denounce the High Officer in his role chosen by God, chief of Gladio on earth, whose existence I did not know yet. To denounce him, I thought then to choose a name of my imagination, “Marc Delantre,” without realizing that this name meant “Marc De-L-Antre,” “Mark of the Devil’s House, of Satan.” This name was, in reality, given to me by Gladio. My name certified, without knowing it, my membership of Gladio while I considered myself a simple citizen, only eager to make known the truth.

2017, the Gladio Signal arrives on my server

From 2017, it is the Gladio Signal who warned me attacks on my Internet server. Gladio did not stop anymore. Gladio signed all its operations on my server, while I still did not know the existence of Gladio. I was well aware of being in touch with an organization, but I did not know the name yet.

It is on October 16, 2017, that they decided to make known to me the existence of Gladio, as secret division of NATO. It was voluntarily the same day as the assassination by Gladio, of the famous journalist Daphne Caruana Galizia, herself in the footsteps of Gladio.

So I had denounced more, an entity that all agencies in the world knew, or at least believed to know. Indeed, they did not know this Gladio attached to NATO, was a trap. All NATO countries fell in this strap since they used the Gladio's services against their own people, in their false flag operations.

God had tempted them by Satan's services, killing the victims, and lying to them. It was what States did and still do without any qualms because these false flag operations allow them to manipulate their poor population.

2018, Gladio uses mind control through implants, on the killers and me.

It was in 2018 that I realized that Gladio, NATO version, was actually using mind control to manipulate Men and especially terrorists and other killers around the world. They made me understand that they were doing this mind control through implants, which I could not and that no one could really identify.

"I realized..." was probably not the right wording. Gladio had given me a frightening demonstration in front of a mirror in a hotel in Malaysia. They saw what I saw and showed it to me. I talk about it at length in my book. That same day they had linked pain to one of my fingers at two of my actions.

They then put me in touch with an expert on the subject. She was like all the pseudo-experts in this field, passionate about this kind of thing. She was going to finish convincing me that I was implanted and especially to explain to myself how it all worked. I believed her. Gladio had just shown it to me three times on 24 hours only. Gladio did all this to convince me that the implants existed, but that mainly explained a large number of terrorist operations. I understood why the terrorists seemed out of control, out of balance, and so on. They were only puppets.

Mind control experiments had existed in the past, and this nourished the possibility that these implants might exist. I could denounce them, but I denounced above all dozens of operations under mind control, of which, in truth, I did not know the real origin!

Epilogue & summarize, The plan of God for Revelation and Apocalypse

I began to understand that this mind control applied to me as well. I had a strong feeling about it when I wrote my book and reports. They wrote almost in my place, gave me ideas, corrected me, answered the questions I asked myself.

I had also understood that I was monitored 24/7, every second, even in the middle of nowhere without any internet or mobile connection. My learning had been long and scary, but I realized that I too was super implanted, even in full option mode.

They showed me that they could cause pains in specific places, or put my heart in a vise, or make me hear voices.

The most incredible thing was that they saw and heard what I saw and heard. I could associate particular pains or spikes on the Gladio Signal depending on what I was reading, writing, doing away from my computer or hearing in the middle of nowhere.

A terrible experience was while I was sleeping, warning me in a sexy voice that a cat was eating my plate. However, there was nothing there, neither camera nor strictly nobody to see the cat, which was eating my plate! All of this is in my story, day after day.

They had also provoked visions while I slept. Two of these visions showed my mother alive. I understood later that the second vision was authentic. This vision was that of another man who had really crossed my mother. They had recorded this vision and sent it to me. I obviously associated that with the implants.

In terms of voice, which was not one, I had an excellent example this morning. I'm alone in my office, but behind my wall of screens. I do not see what's happening in my room. Suddenly, I hear the yelps of my dog, Tiger, who managed to get into the house. I recognize him very well. I take 5 minutes to get up from my office, and I see that my whole house is closed, especially since my partner is not there. The dog is outside. That did not surprise me anymore, because it was not the first time.

Epilogue & summarize, The plan of God for Revelation and Apocalypse

When that happens, I hear things that I heard precisely before. As in the case of vision, I felt that these were records made possible by an implant. I did not realize then that it could be something else.

2018, HAARP and directed energy weapons (DEW)

Gladio had taken advantage of this remote contact with this pseudo-expert in implants to make me know two more of their weapons, HAARP and the DEW, the direct energy weapons.

HAARP is poorly documented, but the world knows that it is essentially an American weapon whose action focuses on the climate. However, as with implants, it could be something else.

So this first contact with this pseudo-expert caused the birth of a weather disturbance. Three weeks later, it turned into hurricane Michael in Florida. Its trip on a quarter of the globe was visible on the Gladio Signal. Since then, HAARP operations have become daily and especially disastrous. Among them, we note the deluges, the melting of a large part of the glaciers and poles, extreme heatwaves and hailstones of 15cm in some places. It's far from exhaustive.

The pseudo-expert had put me in touch with a documentary filmmaker. My training would continue. This time, it was directed energy weapons (DEW). It's like HAARP and the implants. The DEW joined the family of weapons, little known, almost invisible whose origin can not be proven.

Directed energy weapons is a microwave-based ray. Again, the documentation on this weapon classified military secret is rare. But the result of its use, visible in photo and video, are very precise and include intense fires with melting of metals, or their vaporization. Among the first uses I had noted the bridge in Italy and the Camp Fire fires where the director was. I had just made contact with him at the request of the pseudo-expert. He was also going to have a connection with a HAARP disaster in Venice. During a storm, the waters of Venice rose 1.4 meters above their normal level. The director was then in a place directly related to Venice.

Epilogue & summarize, The plan of God for Revelation and Apocalypse

At the same time, Gladio introduced me to another theoretical use of HAARP. Earthquakes. I have so far, several earthquakes, directly related to my companion and me.

I am thinking of the one that took place, the same minute, where I added “natural disasters” on the cover of my book. It was in Greece, and such an earthquake had not occurred in Europe for 10 years. Simultaneously, at the same time, PLDT, the main Internet provider in the Philippines experienced a very long Internet outage. It lasted several days.

I do not know where stop the possibilities and power of Gladio. As I wrote these lines, this was happening. My partner came to my office to kiss me because she was going for a jog. She had just closed the front door of the house, and a power failure was hitting, immediately, Puerto Princesa, no more current in the city. I had to turn on our generator. Later, my girlfriend came back and opened the front door. Electricity was coming back in the city! She was also excited to see that electricity was gone and returned with her! She did not know what she was talking about! To realize that, they had to see what she saw.

That said, it happened to us dozens of times, both for electricity and the Internet. Our Internet comes by cable in aerial fiber optics. I cannot count the number of times of my cable, or the one in the street, or the one of the whole area has been cut off and even in several places at the same time. Last time it happened while I was getting ready to do some programming for myself and looking for info on the Internet. Internet has been cut, because the main fiber is cut! That should not please Gladio.

During a period, Gladio repeated this kind of thing at the same hour, to make sure I understood that it was Gladio. Sometimes it was even submarine cables. They have no limit, without ever leaving any trace, the very signature of Gladio.

Epilogue & summarize, The plan of God for Revelation and Apocalypse

Twice, while I was making direct complaints against the High Officer, it was my computer. The motherboard and the processor were burned, without any operation on my part. A computer at 2000 euros! It's the kind of thing that can not happen, but nothing stops Gladio, really nothing.

Back in 2018. Shortly after, an earthquake occurred 150 km from Manila in the Philippines. It was a place that my partner and I knew particularly well. I saw that this earthquake was signed on the Gladio Signal and in connection with my activities. There were deaths. I ran to my girlfriend to tell him, and she called me crazy. Nine minutes after her answer, another earthquake occurred on another island, another city in the Philippines. This city was directly related to us. This one was also signed on the Gladio Signal and had caused other deaths. Rumor says that HAARP produced these earthquakes. Is it really HAARP? Only one thing is sure. These earthquake are not natural.

It was then the volcanoes that started to wake up. These awakenings were also visible on the Signal of Gladio. Easy to recognize, Gladio drew, in real-time, on their Signal, a chimney, with an "M" at its top. This "M" means Satan or "Mal" in French. An "S" could not be drawn on the Signal. The first volcano's awakening I noted was Etna in Italy. I had just watched Dan Brown's "Inferno" and was sharing this experience on Facebook. The chimney with the "M" was for it!

2019, Gladio celebrates my name and 10 years of denunciation. They burn a cathedral and produce an anagram!

In April 2019, there had been 10 years of uninterrupted denunciations of the activities of the High Officer and his apparent organization. Gladio, the army of God, then formalized me in his plan with his anagram and the fire of the Cathedral Notre Paris of Paris! I was the chosen man by Gladio to reveal the truth!

Epilogue & summarize, The plan of God for Revelation and Apocalypse

Gladio had used every great means to celebrate this anniversary. They had burned Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris and produced an anagram to show my name to the world. The firing had been made by DEW, visible in photos and videos.

But above all, Jean-Pierre Marielle, the French actor, author of the anagrams in the Da Vinci Code was dead, 2h before I received mine, like in the movie! All this was signed on the Gladio Signal and especially this death. In any case, it suggests the worst for the Apocalypse!

My author name, “Marc Delantre,” which had been provided to me by Gladio, seemed to have been imagined a long time ago. It was perhaps even during the construction of Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris. Indeed, this name of “Marc Delantre” was to be linked to the destruction of Notre Dame. It must mark the beginning of Revelation. It means the restoration of the truth, wanted by God and the Templars, and orchestrated by Gladio.

Indeed, the Templars used ancient Greek for its symbolism and the creation of codes. My anagram linked my name to that of Notre Dame Cathedral, gave a result in two words in ancient Greek, “Atheo Theoda,” “against God and with God.” Any other pair of names than “Notre Dame Cathedral – Marc Delantre,” would not have given this result and it is this one that was important for the Knights Templar.

“Against God” (The lying Church) and “With God” (The Original God for the Restoration of Truth). This is the very principle of Revelation and Apocalypse, according to the Holy Scriptures; the Revelation of the Truth, the “reset” of humanity to the starting values, those wanted by God. This idea, this plan was born, perhaps 800 years ago by the Knights Templar, but in April 2019, I still did not understand what Gladio really was. I had stayed at its NATO version. I was far from suspecting the truth.

Epilogue & summarize, The plan of God for Revelation and Apocalypse

Is-it really Gladio the secret division of NATO?

The US drone shot down by Iran in June 2019, should have put me on the path to understand something else. Indeed, this American drone shot down by Iran and confirmed by them, had in theory no reason to be super-signed on the Gladio Signal.

There was only one explanation. Gladio, branch of NATO is so skilled that they were able to infiltrate their most important enemy and push Iran to shoot down an American drone. I thought it was improbable because I did not understand the message.

It was the same for the Russian plane shot in Moscow. It was very signed on the Gladio Signal, and it had been shot in retaliation against Katrina who had tried to manipulate me. On the other hand, when I was writing my report and video, I realized very well that I could not say it was NATO. This could have created a major diplomatic incident with a significant risk of escalation. Gladio had shown his firm opposition to me saying that. However, I did not understand the reason. So, I had to write and say that the plane had been shot down by the Russians themselves. Their purpose would be to cause this escalation, which was just as unlikely. In fact, I did not understand.

A few days later, it was the climate problem created by Gladio that prevented Russian planes from taking off for their military parade in Moscow.

It was the same for the two taxi operations in Russia, at the World Cup soccer, which under mind control had run on the crowd. On the part of NATO, it was particularly dangerous, but I firmly believed it.

All these operations have been signed in real-time, on the Gladio Signal. So, there was a link, but I did not understand.

And it is finally, in July 2019, that I understood that this mind control by these implants did not exist either.

Epilogue & summarize, The plan of God for Revelation and Apocalypse

Individual mind control or mind harassment (e.g., V2K on TI's) by “human” means does not exist. Implants for this purpose, do not exist either!

“Individual” means that affects individuals in a personal and selective way. Targeted Individuals are thought to be the victims of mind control attacks by their government or a specialized “human” agency, such like NSA.

However, there is absolutely no evidence of a connection between an implant and individual mind control. There is, for example, no implant that can be certain of its individual function, nor a transmitter that could be removed to see the effects. Finally, there has never been a single experiment of this kind: Ten pseudo-implanted and/or victims of V2K (voice in the brain), are in the same room. Someone activates a V2K pseudo-transmitter and asks the one who hears a number to raise his/her hand. Either no one will raise his/her hand or everyone will do it.

This kind of technology simply does not exist on a human level. It does not detract from the fact that the Targeted Individuals hear voices, sometimes theirs, they have visions, burns, etc. but none of this has a human origin.

But alas, in our time, we no longer think it could be anything else, and the rumor is highly useful to those who know. Victims do not seek to understand, but only to defend themselves, without knowing defends of what and against who.

Men think and hope God and the aliens when it suits them, not when it bothers them or tortures them. Yet, if these pains faced by the Targeted Individuals could not have a human origin, they had to come from elsewhere. No, the man preferred to invent a human origin to what he did not understand. It's classic, but it's a mistake.

I thought like thousands of Targeted Individuals, being mentally controlled by Gladio as a branch of NATO. How many times did I say I was super implanted, even in full option mode? It is not so. I do not have implants, and the voice-to-skull (V2K) and other mind control effects in Targeted Individuals do not have a human origin either. Their symptoms and my monitoring are not based on any human technology or human decisions.

Epilogue & summarize, The plan of God for Revelation and Apocalypse

Yes, clinical experiments have been done, and there are old patents for that kind of thing, including implants. Gladio took care of letting it know! Old programs such as MK-Ultra have increased rumors about this.

These rumors were initiated by thousands of people mentally controlled by Gladio. The world of Targeted Individuals includes many sites, pod-casters, and pseudo-experts, all under mind control. They were and are still spreading information to answer the questions of Targeted Individuals. The goal is that they do not look elsewhere. Then it is easy enough to steer the rumors against the State and hidden programs. Populations believe that easily when they are victims of mind control or mind harassment, which they can not really identify the origins.

All these sites, groups and experts on mind control began to appear after 2014. Their number then increased in proportion to Gladio's mind-controlled terrorist attacks. Indeed, there were hundreds of deaths caused by mind-controlled killers or terrorists. Gladio had to hide the real origin of this mind control! These killers are controlled by a technology that is not human. The Targeted Individuals are tortured by technology that is not human either, but they must be more and more numerous to believe it.

This explains their number. Thousands of Targeted Individuals are tortured every day everywhere, by as many tens of thousands of people speaking to them under V2K, in their language. I'm talking about V2K, but it also concerns visions, burns, etc. Yet, no one in the world ever had the opportunity to say that she/he had worked in mind control or harassment. Where are these torturers? Nobody ever said that they participated in Targeted Individual's torture, while obviously, they are tens of thousands. The best explanation for keeping such a secret is that it is not terrestrial!

Gladio uses the pineal gland! Gladio and mind control are not terrestrial!!

When humans first appeared on Earth, our brains and DNA were limited to 10% of their potential. In addition, to monitor us, manipulate us, and give us evolution's and gifts to each of us, our creator needed a means of control. It is one of the functions of our pineal gland. The other one, its official function, is to regulate our sleep. Our creator also records the life of each of us. Then, He decides the fate of our soul to our death. It is this life that passes before our eyes before we die. The pineal gland is home to our spirit, our soul, our consciousness, in short, what God sees of ourselves. The pineal eye is often called the third eye.

There is also the famous 21 grams that connect us to God and that our body loses to our death. The animals don't lose any weight when they die. This pineal gland is a bit like the Internet modem that connects us to the web, but God is the only one who can use it. He hears and sees what we hear and see since the beginning of time.

In fact, thousands of Targeted Individuals are victims of visions every day, including rape in which they participate as victims or rapists. But these visions are often authentic, and they are captured and retransmitted by our pineal gland under the control of Gladio working for Satan and God at the same time.

The pineal gland has been known for millennia. See this. 33 is the age of Christ's death, but it is also the number of vertebrae leading to the pineal gland and the number of levels among the Freemasons. Even some pyramids in Egypt take up the concept of the pineal gland, including in their internal arrangement. Hindus today, like the ancient Egyptians, represent this third eye on their foreheads. Its existence has been known for millennia. It was well before Christ's arrival on earth and thousands of years later, we still do not know what this pineal gland really does.

The pineal gland is actually what connects us to God who has only control, and his army Gladio. The pineal gland is therefore, not manageable by human technology, even though Gladio uses the Man via his pineal gland.

Epilogue & summarize, The plan of God for Revelation and Apocalypse

So I'm a member of Gladio, the army of God

The discovery of the pineal gland made me understand that I was not connected to human authority. I depend on God and Gladio because no one on earth had the opportunity to communicate with my pineal gland. That changed absolutely everything, and that was why Gladio wanted me to discover it last.

So, my monitoring by Gladio, the help in writing and analyzing, the visions, voices, etc. don't come from a terrestrial organization. They come from Gladio, God's army. This explains why nothing stop it. They did not need any equipment to interact with me. My head is enough. This explained why they had such a memory of ancestral facts, and which today they have been introduced in my brain as convictions as if I were part of them.

So, If I don't depend on a terrestrial entity, these earthly events, which I attributed to Gladio, as a division of NATO, could have been done by Gladio, the God's army, of which I also depended. This one existed at least for hundreds of years, if not millennia, but had nothing terrestrial, except perhaps privileged relations with this or that power or human entities. It had been confirmed to me that God's army uses the weapons of humans, such as HAARP and the direct energy weapon (DEW). It is easy since these weapons are known or supposed by people and armies.

Man must see beyond and question his origins

This is the same reason to make people believe that mind control was also human technology. It was necessary to avoid that Man links his mind control with something which is not terrestrial.

It is proven that our brains and our DNA are used at 10%. So, we have been clamped down millions of years ago. We still are, and our vision of beyond has also been restrained. We do not see what surrounds the earth and sometimes even within it. We see what we have been given to see and not beyond. The famous Job 38:11 verse, repeated many times in The Da Vinci Code. “When I say, You will come here, you will not go beyond;” The press does the same and can only reflect what does not go beyond what authority allows. But God no longer wants these limits, and He is about to explode them.

It was when I understood that mind control was not a human technology that I understood the reality. I am a member of Gladio, who is not a terrestrial entity.

We have arrived at the day of Revelation. We must expect this Apocalypse, this “reset” of humanity to the values we had received at the beginning. God wants to put an end to these lies about our origins and created by our religions. He also wants the world to know these false flag operations requested by the States to manipulate their population.

As a beekeeper who wants to restore his hive that His bees have destroyed themselves, God will do what He must do to give his hive a possible future. Unfortunately, this will be accompanied by a reduction of our population by 50%, to allow those who will remain on this earth to live more in harmony, especially with nature! Such is the will of God, which will be implemented by Gladio, his army, all forces combined, whether human or not.

The apocalypse

Gladio has done countless demonstrations in recent months, and we will stay in this style of operations. So I know that Gladio will create dramatic events that might appear accidental, natural, criminal but not extraterrestrial. In appearance only.

We are talking about all natural or accidental disasters such as volcanoes eruptions, huge fires, earthquakes, tsunamis, deluges, gigantic hailstones, destructive tornadoes (F4/F5), barrages collapsing, aerial / chemical / viral catastrophes, etc. This includes some earthquakes up to 10 on the Richter scale, the “big ones”, even in areas where we do not expect them. Parts of continents can rush under the oceans, even the most unexpected ones, etc.

Epilogue & summarize, The plan of God for Revelation and Apocalypse

In short, all that may appear natural or accidental disasters and causing an unlimited number of deaths.

Such events can have two terrestrial explanations. One natural or accidental, and this will not often be the case. The other human, but the weapons will rarely or not be detectable such as HAARP and directed energy weapons (DEW).

But all these events can also be caused by the army of God, Gladio. This would be the very principle of false flag operations. Gladio then benefits from the fact that the origin, natural, accidental, or deliberate by the man, would hide their operations.

In reality, the origin will not be human. Man has no real interest in sabotaging his environment to no longer know how to live there or cause thousands, tens or hundreds of thousands, or millions of deaths.

Many will also say that it is hell that falls on earth and that it is the wrath of God. This will be absolutely accurate, regardless of what God represents in their minds.

What I also fear is massive use of mind control, especially on Targeted Individuals under torture now. They can become, in a single click, killers, and terrorists in power, without any possible counter-measures. Gladio has accustomed us to multiple family crimes, mass shootings, or proximity shootings.

In the eyes of man, these behaviors are associated with madness or simply criminal attacks. This hides any mental manipulation. The problem is that it is impossible to say who is, or who is not under mind control. In theory, we are all.

Thus, a situation where a mother or a father suddenly kills all his family will have for origin the killer, while a mind control origin can not be proved. It's the same for mass killers. I think this means of elimination could be very widely used. It even makes me think of all those movies where humans are killing each other and devouring each other. It seems likely to me.

In fact, all means of killing, are potentially usable, and in particular, those who remain entirely under control. I mean that in theory, nuclear means or incidents should be avoided. Their consequences are not necessarily controllable. The same is true for bacteriological pandemics. Gladio will prefer to use controlled actions that are usually limited geographically.

I remind you that Gladio must reduce by 50% the population of the earth. Gladio has never failed the orders received, so I advise you to pray.
