

♠ The chemistry/psychology of hotwifing: Outside looking In ♠

LONG READ my thesis on the hotwifing lifestyle with a focus on the Bakersfield scandal.

LEGEND EE: the (Caucasian/Native American) hotwife/QOS; BS: Hispanic husband; pre-teen daughter and son: V & R respectively.

The scandal that broke in 2019 at Bakersfield makes an interesting case in point for study. The primary reason being, this involves a teacher which automatically implies a level of respectability in society. Here are my observations and some analysis:

- EE and BS decided to record their sexual escapades and upload them for public consumption. Hence both EE and BS feel this empowers them and their lifestyle. In fact, legitimizing it.
- There was an attempt made to anonymize this but this was poorly executed. An attempt was made to hide EE's face (nose up!). The videos have audio and often reveal EE's face in compromising situations. Also, some videos being recorded on school premises - it is obvious that both EE and BS were aware of the risks but felt the thrill of the act far outweigh the risks.
- BS clearly does not want to feature in these videos. Makes every attempt to hide. This implies BS is well aware of the consequences if the knowledge is widespread. You will also not find EE mention or acknowledge BS in the videos. There is no humiliation aspect here. BS is heard encouraging EE throughout these events. It is likely that BS sees himself as the "stag" but again people like Shane D acknowledges BS as the "cuck". Perhaps EE and BS dynamic are somewhat fluid. EE does not see BS as the "cuck" 24/7 after all BS is the father of V and R and it's clear there is parental love and a more traditional dynamic that is being respected in their daily lives.
- The hotwifing lifestyle is something BS initiated (this was acknowledged by EE in an earlier podcast). In fact, most bull's will agree that the lifestyle is primarily driven by the husband. This brings in an interesting dynamic here. One has to delve into the psychology of EE and BS here. Both have known each other since 5th grade which implies they have a strong emotional bond. It is likely the EE is completely co-dependent especially with two kids with BS.
- During play, EE uses terms like "daddy" to acknowledge some of the bull's she plays with (e.g. Shane D). There is some amount of DD/LG dynamic present as well.
- EE wants to look at the lifestyle as empowering. Since she can have sex with so many seemingly random people at will. However, the humiliation aspect is somewhat missing in this. Objectifying the men as bulls can somewhat dehumanize the people involved. But make no mistake, these random men are completely dominating and using EE in these encounters. She obviously suffers from low self-esteem and this sort of justification is a typical "way out" to legitimize this lifestyle.
- The fact that EE suffers from low self-worth is further reinforced through the extensive cosmetic surgery she undergoes to improve her looks and attractiveness. Two breast enhancements with an obvious desire to further enhance her assets imply she is unsatisfied with her looks. She gets a lot of attention - which she perhaps interprets as being positive. I would argue it's the contrary. Her breast implants (areolar breast augmentation) are way over the top - her areolas are asymmetric which indicate that these implants do not sit well in her body. A sure sign of future problems. Also, this type of breast augmentation leads to loss of sensitivity in the nipples and permanent damage to the milk ducts. This implies she is not planning on having any more babies in the future.
- To feel accepted, she socializes with "like-minded" people who encourage EE in her endeavours. I doubt if these people truly care about her mental well being. Let us be honest, those of (us) who consume this type of lifestyle either passively or actively - do so purely from a selfish point of view. As an observer: the more the merrier. More videos, more smuttiness, more fun. As a bull: more free meat, more fun in participating. After all, in these arrangements - the bull gets free access. Maybe some gifts exchanged but never money. So good free sex at the end of the day. For BS it's just a more passive observer type kink. The person who is being used here is EE. However for all of these to work seamlessly - EE needs to feel empowered and in control. This is what the observer, BS and all the bulls freely provide verbally but not through their actions (passive or active).

- Note, she indulges in bare-back sex. Understandably, the group of people she is intimate with are expected to be clean. However, cavorting with professional porn stars must come with some inherent risk to EE's health and future well being. BS seems to be accepting of this. One should question his intentions.
- It is likely, that EE and BS are not very smart in a real sense. I think their actions and the fact that they got caught will support this claim. No matter what EE thinks, that she is intelligent, literate, etc. I would argue the contrary. BS is also a small-time employee - involved in a respiratory company. Managing cylinders and venting. Pretty low key after all. Seems to have tried to market EE and QOS lifestyle through a company as well. None of these has been successful or profitable. Guess BS is a low achiever.
- Three instances will support the irrationality/oddness of EE and BS. (a) going to Las Vegas to attend the AVNs - what was the expectation? This is a public event, so publicity of the lifestyle is expected (b) the double dildo video in her bathroom with excrement on the anal dildo visible. Not very hygienic and not something a sophisticated hotwife should be showing to her fans. Could have been easily edited out. (c) there is a video of EE going to a public restroom and discussing a glory hole fantasy when R is in a playground. Sign of sex addiction/obsession.

Now, let us analyze future options for EE and BS. Given that they both come from a small community in Bakersfield with a lot of close family still in the neighbourhood - what options do they truly have? One has to think of the future of V and R after all. V being the elder of the two, it is a matter of time when this lifestyle will become obvious to her. Now EE and BS will of course normalize this (there is no other option). However, a young impressionable girl will no doubt struggle with this. I am sure V and R's aunt will never accept this and I feel through extension there may be a schism between the relationship of EE&BS with V is likely in the near future. Fans of EE will obviously demand more videos. More demands for face pics or videos with face in it, etc. However, common sense should be used here by EE - who I feel should analyze her actions first and foremost. EE must ignore what BS has to say. EE should not ever release videos with her face in them. Period! Being a full-time porn star has its costs. EE may look hot, with huge assets but the porn world is flooded and requires a significant investment of time and resources (see Aletta Ocean - who EE admires). With V and R this is almost impossible. Also, she is almost 40 - how long will her assets hold up? 10 more years?

What options does she have for the future? Here are the possibilities.

1. continue with real estate business. Generally this is pretty low profile job where there is not going to be too much exposure if planned properly
2. revert back to her maiden name for official purposes and seek a regular job. She still has her teaching license - maybe joining a small-town school will be an option but these jobs cannot be high paying.
3. Continue to make some money on the side through SextPanther or OF (though the latter is hard to keep going as a full-time job). This sort of soft sex work will keep her going for a few years but not for long. She can also start a blog or advise podcast/channel for this sort of lifestyle (but this market is flooded!).
4. Go completely discreet and ensure BS comes in line and stops his obsession for the long term betterment of their family.
5. Emulate wifeysworld (Mr & Mrs Otterson) who have kids and are very popular pornstars. However, with the close family structure for EE and BS, this will be a challenge to pull off.
