

Minecraft Trident: Recipe, Enchantments And How To Farm

Since the Aquatic update (Java Edition 1.13) in the year 2013, the Minecraft trident is now available in Minecraft Java Edition as an uncommon drop from drowned enemies. The trident is among the most powerful Minecraft weapons. It is a weapon that can be used in melee or ranged combat and even its non-enchanted version can deliver more than a diamond blade, however, its attack speed could be a bit slower. Additionally, if you focus on your aim, you can throw a trident as far as 80 blocks away.

You cannot craft a Minecraft trident, therefore you won't be able to find a recipe for this underwater weapon. Instead, you'll need grab one of these from the cold, dead, soggy hands of a Drowned mob one of the new zombies introduced in the Aquatic update.

The fact that the trident is an item that is dropped by mobs and is as powerful as diamond swords makes it an excellent weapon to use early in your Minecraft adventure, provided that you're strong enough to withstand an Drowned. We'll show you how to get your own Minecraft trident as well and what Minecraft enhancements you can equip it with.

How do I obtain the Minecraft Trident

Look underwater for Drowned zombie mobs. They can appear in the world with a trident. To be able to have a chance of a trident dropping from them, you'll have to defeat them. However, this chance is very low at 8.5%.

If you're playing in Pocket Edition or Bedrock, there is a small chance that you will find a Drowned will drop a trident. It's worth taking out any Drowned you find while trying to get one. You can also make use of Minecraft seeds to make underwater worlds for a chance to create Drowned zombie mobs.

The durability of the trident in Minecraft is similar to that of an iron sword - 250 - and the durability degrades by a single point with every use. mp servers It isn't necessary to spend long hours searching for tridents, so you can enhance it by Mending to ensure that the durability takes care.

Java Edition Minecraft trident stats

The trident is a very powerful and versatile weapon with an attack speed of 1.1 and a standard attack that deals nine points of damage. The trident can deal 13 points of damage if it is hit with an extremely powerful blow. The ranged attack deals eight points of damage, which is much more than an uncharged bowshot, however, it is one point less than the fully charged bow shot.

Minecraft trident enchantments

Another intriguing feature of the trident, is its capacity to hold unique magical effects. Here's a complete list of Minecraft trident-enchantments:

Treasure - Tridents thrown are returned to the player after a few seconds
Channeling - if the trident is thrown during a storm and lightning bolts are summoned.
Riptide - Throwing a trident in the water or beneath the feet of the player transports them, dealing splash damage
Impaling - Deals melee damage and ranged damage to aquatic creatures (not drowned). In Bedrock Edition this buff extends to all mobs who are in rain or underwater
Unbreaking - increases durability
Mending - when the trident is equipped any collected XP orbs repair the trident instead of increasing the player's XP
Curse of Vanishing - trident disappears upon the death of the player.

This is it. Everything you must know to create your own Minecraft trident, and then repair it. The trident is an effective weapon in vanilla Minecraft. It's worth having. To take down enemies, you can also make and customize the Minecraft shield. This is particularly helpful when you're exploring the Minecraft Nether.
