

I'd smoked my mind the night before
with cigarettes and songs I'd been picking but I lit my first and watched a small kid F#m playing E
with the can that he was kicking
A A7
then I walked across the street
D A F#m
and caught the Sunday smell of someone's frying chicken
D E Bm
and lord it took me back to some-thing that I lost somewhere
E A
somehow along the way

[Chorus]

D
on a Sunday morning sidewalk
A
I'm wishing lord, that I was stoned
E
cause there's something in a Sunday
A
that makes the body feel alone
D
and there's nothing short of dying
A
that's half as lonesome as the sound
E
of the sleeping city sidewalks
A
and Sunday morning coming down

[Verse 3]

A7
in the park I saw a daddy
with a laughing little girl that he was swinging
and I stopped beside a Sunday school
F#m E
and listened to the songs that they were singing
A A7
then I headed down the street
D A F#m
and somewhere far away a lonely bell was ring - ing
D E
and it echoed through the canyons
Bm E A
like our disappearing dreams of yester - day

[Chorus]

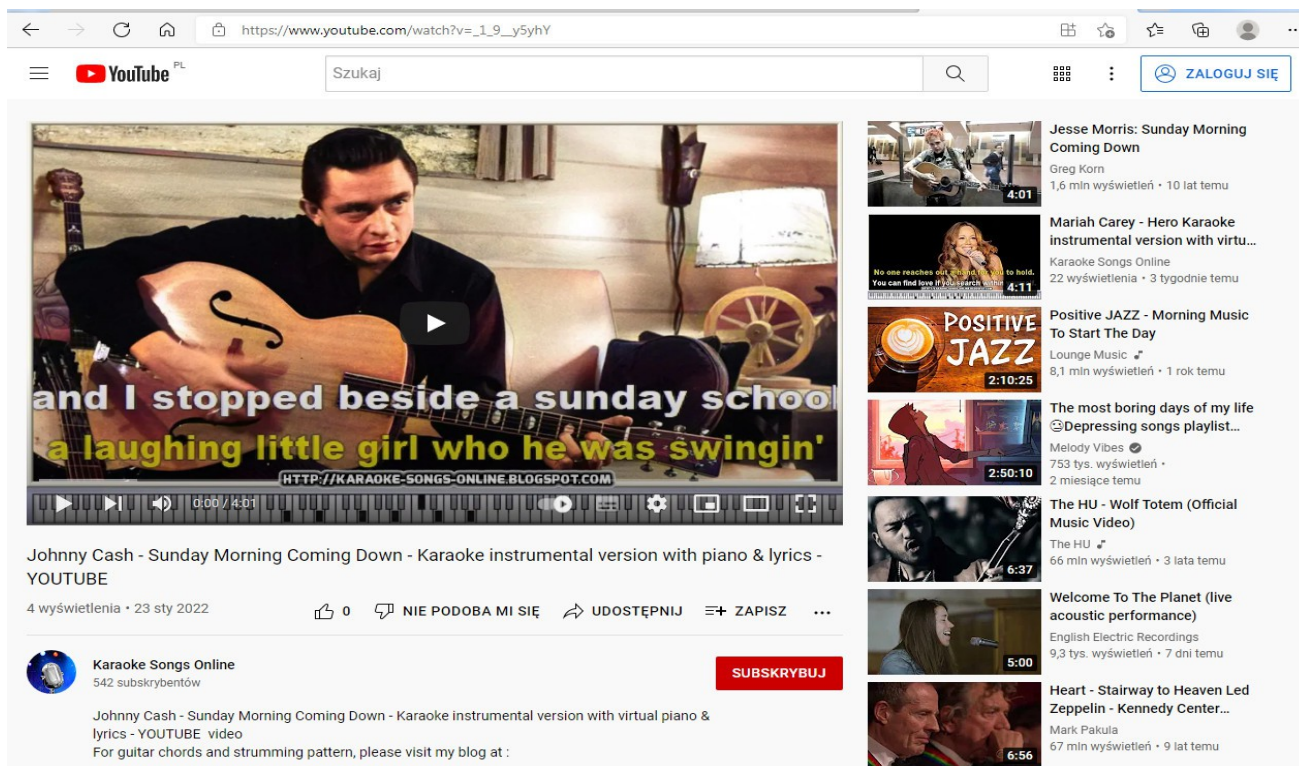

D
A
I'm wishing lord, that I was stoned
E
A
that makes the body feel alone
and there's nothing short of dying

that's half as lonesome as the sound
of the sleeping city sidewalks
and Sunday morning coming down
