My friend visited his Bangalore franchise. And he always was very sleek with her.

After asking for her number. He would unsolicitedly call her. Late at night.

Another follower submitted this . This is the first part.

It's very easy to say that he's not at fault You too are, you should've been careful.Or that you know him he's a saint ,but yeh Naik parsa nahi zaleel parsa insan hai!. I am shocked by how this guy follows a pattern!! . And that every girl has been through the same gf story who he left for his love for Kashmir 😭. I was gaslighted ,I was the one who misunderstood his intentions nd he was just being "friendly". Lemme tell u his friendly . I will tell u how, He gave me false signals.

●He left no moment to compliment me.

●He would offer me to let's go to my office nd chat! .

●He would hop on the seat right next to mine to sit as closely as possible nd lean nd go like let's take a selfie nd that made me uncomfortable af.

●He flatters u, my frnd was asking who was this pretty girl I was takking to?..

I told myself yeh sab toh yeh iski routine hai , I am just another girl .

We planned my 2nd day, he said he'll show me around other places i had on my list ,the next day. He would pull out his hand nd place it in front me asking me to to hold it. I wasn't sure I hesitated but I did. When he dropped me home he called me and said I was waiting that you'll turn back to hug me and kiss me good bye and I laughed, and said why would I do that.

It was my last day He was whining it's your last day, you'll go, he acted sad and threw tantrums at me that I am with my other frnds at the cafe n not giving him time. He dropped me home after the iftar, seriously i had planned to atleast hug him a good bye. Which fortunately so it did not happen.

He called me that night to we had intimate voice call I went back to my state, I tried calling him he started ignoring me! I thought may be hes a bit awkward after last night . I gave him space , being "the" understanding girl, gys he stopped talking to me , I cried nd asked him did i say something wrong or did something wrong. My frnd told me to confess to him, he was shocked!! how did u even think of this? Today I dropped a girl at her place I am worried she might be thinking the same way , do all girls u drive back home out of courtesy thinking the same way , do all girls u drive back home out of courtesy think that!!!! I went deep in shame that how can I think that omg I lost the frnd In him too. I called my frnd back he told me, I too am your do i ask u to hold hands ? Or hug me? And he also told me about the girl he drove back home is his new catch after u. Javid would mesg my frnd that she *misunderstood me!! You think I misunderstood? You are free to from an opinion. I want to p

*I want to put this out there for my girls to be beware of him and his alike.I was manipulated. Yes It was mutual, but it all was a lie !!!

He is unmarried cuz he's addicted to this lifestyle of his! Uski zaroorat bahir say puri hai! Yeh vo hyperexcited kutta hai jiski rassi allah nay lambi rakhi thi. K dhaud aur taiz dhaud , kyuki jab rassi khatam hogi toh pakad utni hi sakht hogi. I waited for this day!!

First part, reupload:

So he will befriend you or you will befriend him probably thinking he is some saint out there doing charity and that's gonna be the start . Or if you are tall and pretty enough (rare cases) he will approach you and start with some casual thing

Dude has a real charisma when it comes to socialising . Cmon - after all he built his own empire on that . Sweet talk kashmiri idiots . Talk about kashmiriyat. Sell the rolls a little cheap but lure more people

Soon you will notice him checking up on you , occasionally. Reacting to your stories as if he remembers you . You grow fond of this person . Seeing how busy he is - he is really great at that part . Catching up with all part

Then you meet . How it goes depends on how sexy and pretty you are and what's currently going in his life . He can meet you at a billion different places but he will only put up a selfie taken in parsa . That's always the case and just incase you ask for a little exclusivity- he will say - this is for you . Your privacy . I want you away from evil eyes

Also he will talk shit about his exes / friends he had a fall out with . He generally puts them in too bold / jealous of his simple girl friends / defames them / talks how many times he slept with each . That's one disease of this person .

And then you get close . Talk about your secrets . Your problems . And he is helping . Let's give him that . He helps .

But this person is a different level safe player . He will approach you and harass you and leave YOU confused whose fault it is .

You will die thinking - was it my fault . Was it my fault that I video called him or took his call ?

Second part:

Was it my fault that I took his call when wearing a v neck T-shirt ? Was it why he talked about my cleavage ?

Was it my fault when he said " oh you look so sexy today " and then laughs it off

Like it's a joke

And you keep thinking " should I react / over react / look conservative ?

And there I realised

Kashmir is not a place to speak up

Becasue cmon hey

Who told you to go out with ? Who told you to gift him things ? Who told you take his video calls ?

Who told you to cut a slack every time he cracked some 18 plus joke

And yes dude brags about his options

How women from 20 years to 50 years want to date him .

And the women he cuts off - has a fallout with - he defames them like shit

Not regular defamation

He will most nastiest stories about them.

And yes he will say he slept with them . (Majority)
