Brief

The Saudi Cycling Federation was established in 1963, under the supervision of the Saudi Olympic and Paralympic Committee and the Ministry of Sports. It is the main body for cycling in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia and its representative at the national and international levels.

The Cycling Federation seeks to spread this sport by providing competitive and community programs under the supervision of distinctive technical and administrative cadres and to attract talents to build a distinguished generation that represents their nation in international events.

The federation works to contribute to the ambitious transformation program within the Vision 2030, which is to promote the practice of sports activities in the community and to achieve excellence in several sports nationally and internationally.

Vision

Raising the international ranking of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia to become among the top five in the world for cycling championships and the best five bike-friendly countries.

Mission

Spreading the culture of cycling and promoting and supporting the community by promoting the different sport of cycling and selecting and developing high skills and talents to achieve global achievements and championships.

Values

Abdullah Alwathlan

Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Saudi Cycling Federation and Vice President of the Arab Cycling Federation

Introduction

I express my happiness with the achievements of the Saudi Cycling Federation for the year of 2022, and my sincere thanks to the board of directors, committees and all employees of the Federation for their distinguished work, and I praise the Kingdom's participation in the International Federation conference, raising the Kingdom's international ranking, and obtaining the best work environment as the first Saudi sports Federation, in addition to launching the first professional women's league and empowering Saudi women, according to Vision 2030.

And I affirm that the success of hosting the second edition of the Saudi Tour, the internal tournament schedule and the Arab medals for the Saudi national team confirm the unlimited support of the wise leadership and the keenness of His Royal Highness Prince Abdulaziz bin Turki Al-Faisal, Chairman of the Saudi Olympic and Paralympic Committee, and His Highness Prince Fahad bin Jalawi bin Musaed Vice President, I look forward to continuing efforts to achieve the desired goals.
