Isha'el = Enki / Ptah strains

Subject : Blue - The Jehovah/Isha'el strains from:"Blue" <foreverblue@gmx.net> To: dan..

Date : 31 Jan 2002

note: full list of BLUE articles see:

<http://www.smartgroups.com/message/listbydate.cfm?GID=915762>

i do press the Blue to answer some serious questions and although i sense on their part a reluctance, they assure me it is not their response is that some stuff requires much detail/depth and to answer it in a 5yr old frame of thought, would not really answer it would leave more questions begging and thus not efficient ... and a waste of effort on my behalf i'll do my best ...

[R] continuing on, you said that much of our UFO's / sitings are man-made or >from earth ... pls explain

[Blue] your shadow govts/bodies have technologies far in advance than what is provided for in the market place they do not share this as they will always want to remain with the upper hand ... in control there are those who have been here from the beginning and have kept hidden in shadows, who pull the strings in many areas of your world

[R] are they human ? or are they like reptilian that we keep on hearing about ?

[Blue] the ones who control are in the main STS, but they also have streams of STO, they are now thru eons of genetic manipulation / sharing of your genetic stream humanoid/reptilian some of your egyptian statues carved depict them, they have a body of a human but the head liken unto a dinosaur/lizard they have been here from the beginning

[R] but where do they reside ?

[Blue] in the main, they live inside your earth they have been here >from the beginning, when your sun was far more brilliant than it was today and living on the surface was hostile so they lived inner earth they have technology for craft travel, but not hyperdimensional nor outspace travel but their craft is anti-gravity in nature and can shield and cloak itself these are the craft you see in the main and also the ones your governments have chased, shot down and even piloted themselves

do not be afraid of them for in fact they are afraid of you to some degree they are territorial as they were here first and after humans came, they afforded to share earth with you and now they are afraid that you will take it from them as they know when you become fully realised, you are much more advanced than they are so it is like a catch 22

they fear if you become fully realised and more powerful than them, that you may war against them and remove them on the other hand, they want your genetic keys that you have been imbued with so they control the throttle of your development so to speak ...

[R] blue, tell me, where did the physical reptilians biological stream come >from and how is it they got here in the beginning when their craft can not travel outerspace ??

[Blue] the reptilian strain came from the Lyran system in universe3
..... in universe1 the lyrans were great warlords and they conquered many of your star systems and homeworlds such as pleidas and orion along the way they mixed in genetics but the main battle of the titans as we shall call it, was the pleideans/orion who first found earth and habitated on it ...

it is the mix of reptilian that has been here from the onset living inner earth

[R] so you are adamant that Pleidians are reptilian?

[Blue] yes, in fact the majority of universe 1 has reptilian strains to

degree or another ..

[R] then what the hell possessed you to stick us humans in the middle of some battlefield i mean you really stacked the odds against us ? and now
you expect us to sort out the mess ??

[Blue] first we will say that you stuck yourself in this rut, for it was your oversoul come soul-group that chose to be involved and undertake this project

pls understand when the rift occurred from non-physical to physical, it was mainly the STS beings who inhabited the physical realms
the
all-that-is then wanted a peice of the action so to speak and ordained that STO beings also follow suit to inhabit physical realms as we have explained, if you go back over everything we have given you having STO's trying to sway STS to come back or convert to STO was liking adding fuel to the fire

so then a project was ordained, that a special stream of being would be made/allowed that would be free willing and free chosen in nature to choose between STO or STS modes on the same token, the all that is wanted to experience the physical universes in it's entirety and so it was ordained that a biological being would be created that your soulgroup known as human who chose to undertake this project this was your 24DNA biological body

so Blue which is one stream of conciousness gestalt was ordained to undertake this project so parts of us resided in around the Arcturus
star system from here the blue-print was drawn up ... is it not to this day your use the wors "blue-print" to define original design specifications/plans ;o)

[R] what so special about Arcturus star system [Blue] not much is special, but pleass note that it is in universe3 all this happened, but is likened to your space/time co-ordinates of Arcturus

in space/time co-ords Arcturus is liken unto a gateway between universe1-2

and univer2-3 and univers3-4 and so on ...

it is sort of like an axel where all the wheels sit on differing points along the same axel ... another conciousness group known as "Green" who's job is to test/seed after the prototypes have been made so to speak then placed you originally on Jupiter and surrounding moons(insert note 2001?monolith?)

this was your first time entry into universe1 where you currently have been stuck in the rut

[R] this is funny, so now there is a Green which is like what your brother or sister or something ? do they have any other names so we can recognise them

[Blue] mmm to pigeon-hole does not serve a purpose but we will say you may call them Casseopians as their wheel axel thru all universe/dimensions is in the space/time co-ords you know as the the star system Casseopia

this group/gestalt are likened unto cosmic couriers, postal service know you your myth ... Mercury the messenger, this comes from this group .... their main function was to deliver safely biological beings to planets for habitation, to ensure everything was safe before leaving you to your own so it began on jupiter, this was only an interim measure, a settling into so to speak, then Venus was to be your main home so you then moved to venus but here which we shall not go into, yet at this time, everything went awry, then came mareath (is this marduk??) and then mars, then earth now we have major issues to contend with and currently Saturn is being terraformed for life just in case but if it is decided to move there it will be at a huge cost where the maybe no recovery ever

[R] but why did we have to be put in the middle of a battle zone

[Blue] pls understand, this region was by far the most safest, but not completely safe as we have said most of universe-1 was filled with STS beings and if their were any STO they were in war with STS ... so nowhere was safe now we have already given you the answer to your question and when we did you got quiet offended one thing you fail to ask R ... is why was the project for humans commissioned in the first place what was the purpose rather than trying to point blame ...

the human 24DNA biological beings was created imbued with far advanced abilities than any of the other species it was connected with the source completely in order for the all-that-is to experience and articulate the physical realms as it is thru you that this is done unconditionally indeed the all that is can experience thru the other species, but they separated themselves from source and in any regard the experience would be limited as they operated thru limited modes that had no other avenues of experience except to be STS and this applies the same for STO's the other purpose was in some degree an ingenious plan as you may call it you are a retro-virus as we have already explained this is likened unto a virus which repairs rather than corrupts in order to fix up the mess and problems created from the rift you were the rescue team so to speak imagine your hard disk has been hit with a virus well you come along and load a program called antivirus and this cleans up the viruses

to some degree this is the human purpose thru your genetic you are like a universal antivirus program others would want this powerful genetic strain you have and thus they would load it into their systems so to speak (mix genes) and in doing so your part of the gene would then begin to do it's work now we know you are thinking free choice, free will, unconditional allowance and why force our way onto the STS/STO so to speak there is no forcing here simply we are giving in proxy all the physical races that have mixed with you their own connectedness to source but in main their own free will/choice so it is kind of making them neutral and not one way or the other >from here, then it will be up to them to decide with their free will/choice

..... we are only giving this which has been ordained by the all that is

remember what we have said to you previously look for those that choose inclusivity and not exclusivity

[R] blue, pls try keep these short what can u tell us about the issue at hand today with our world about to break into war and where do the shadows fit in??? also as humans what exactly are we today, what mix are we ?

[Blue] ok we will keep it simple and short there are two factions at war with each other from inside the shadow groups neither is right or wrong, it is a matter of control/powerand now they have gone to extreme ends to maintain control of earth, but also to once and for all play it out between each other for the top position ...

[R] can u tell us who or what?

[Blue] the humour to this is that they are the same group it is just millenia ago that had a little split on your earth

[R] can u tell us what or who this group is!!

[Blue] you already know them as the Jehovan strain in main they are pleiadian-reptilianthe two factions warring are of slightly different mixes you have the pleaidian/orion mix which is your typical ultimate warlording faction which you label as Jehovah to this day and you have your plaeidain/sirius mix which is known as the Ishael faction

your Jehovah mix is what you know as your Jews the Ishael mix is what you know as your Arabs now this split is documented in your christian bible if you re-read carefully Abraham had children thru many women, but the main two was his wife Sarah and his mistress Hagar it is much more complicated than this, but your bible simplifies it by explaining it off as a bearing of children and right to inheritance as u should know that in your bible, Sarah could not birth, so Abraham had a son by Hagar his mistress, his son was Ishmael but later god (Jehova stream) made him a son via Sarah who was named Isaac something you must understand R. ... is these names are not actual people who existed ... but likened unto titles just as Jehovah is a title and thus is Abram (Abraham) and also Isaac, and Ishmael/Ishael ...

these are titles for whole peoples/races and not just two people and wife so to speak

the common denominator in all this is the Jehova/Reptilian stream and of course Abraham you see Abraham stream was to some degree the human stream who caught caught up in the genetic mixing and power play of the Jehovah

you see genetically both Jews (Jehovah/Abram/Sarah/Isaac) = pleiadian/orion mix

and Arabs (Jehovah/Abram/Hagar/Ishmael) = pleiadian/sirius mix came from the same father so to speak do u notice how it is both Jews and Muslim-Arabs who circumcise due to religion

[R] but why the split why the hatred and warring to each other

[Blue] we suggest you read your bible this will give you an idea

simply put the Hagar/Ishmael stream did not bow down to Jehovah (Insert here from Dan: ENLIL) and follow in his warring/warlord ways whereas as the Sarah/Isaac stream did ... and so Jehovah favoured/empowered this strain/stream more so over the

Ishmael stream to the degree the Ishmael stream were thrown out of the house so to speak and downcast and at some point persecuted by the Jehovah

stream and it has been since this that the Ishael stream has come back to revenge for they feel they have been harshly done by the Jehovah who maintained power/control over them originally the Ishael did not want power/control they were peaceful

nature and being mixed with the Sirius strain they were imbued with great knowledge for they (Insert here from Dan: ENKI / PTAH?)

went on to form Egypt and build the pyramids with the help of the Sirians (this made Jehovah stream extremely jealous and more warring you see Jehovah thought that they got the wrong end of the genetic make up of Abraham and that the Ishmael got the smart-genes

.....

there is much on this subject matter we suggest you research it and you will find your answers as to why the split/hatred between the two groups but do note: that think of the biblical names as groups/streams and not individuals

we will tell you also that living underground the jehovah/reptilian group appear as white skinned people your aboriginals all over your worlds are the true colour skin representation of you as humans with 24DNA which is black/brown >from this comes the different mixes which give different colours of your skin races except for the asian races which were put in place as a means to rectify the imbalances created by the Jehovah stream

[R] so now these two groups are fighting for control over earth humans

[Blue] yes one is for revenge as Jehovah has a lot of blood on his hands and all this blood comes at a price ...

you see, the white coloured skinned people are all in main of the jehovah/orion mix they came out of the earth and mixed with many other racess, warred a many and conquered a many lands the jehovah stream never shared any technology and always thus maintained a greater advantage thru war/warrior/weapons that wish they could not earn, they obtained via war

there is only one white race which has remained separate to the Jehovah strain and more in line with the original human strain ... but this is another epic unto itself which we may diverse in at a later your time

[R] do u wish to tell me

[Blue] it is your peoples you know as Finnish and a little of your Irish who strained from the Finnish for if you study these people you will see that they hold a language in the their natural tongue which is like no other language on your planet it is unique in it's natural tongue

..... research this(insert from dan - is this gaelic or finnish? is Bock Saga relevant here?)

When the Cassopeans seeded the earth, you were seeded on top of the surface and thus your skin was dark in nature to protect against the suns rays

..... those of the inner earth who were here before you were white in nature your aboriginal peoples are closer to the true original human than is your white peoples but do not judge by this nature as it is totally mixed and even your aboriginals now have jehovah/white strains in

the Finnish came from a Lyran/Andromedan mix ... when the Andromedans were brought in to police after all hell broke loose as you would term it on your language (insert from dan here: seems to fit lettersfromandromeda.com ?)

to be continued(we move to another section as transmitted by Raphiem, seems discontinuous here, but picks up the Ishael ? Jehovah - Enki/Enlil issue below)

[R] speaking of health and physical bodies ... how can we maintain our bodies for full vitality and health ..? is there any simple tips ?

[Blue] mmm, it seems you want a pill to pop, is it not so ? ;o) the answer is simple but the work and actions required is much, and humans do not like working hard ey ?'o) the physical embodiment is simply driven by soul matrix energy fields simply put it is animated by soul ... which is a unique electro-magnetic vortex of energy that animates the physical body this spinning vortex of energy is bi-polar in nature thus creating a potential for animation, movement, life-force (Insert from dan - see "Life Force = the ability to attract and self-organize charge")?)

also it is what maintains a soul-memory imprint upon the embodiment, all your experiences as a soul are stored in this spinning vortex of electro-magnetic energy and this organised pattern of energy/frequency is what manifest your physical embodiment also it is what gives you your identity as a soul the "I" in "I AM" (means 'that which is self referring - dan) [R] so by what you just said then light is electro-magnetic ?

[Blue] yes ... ask your self why is that huge gravity fields can bend

... this is due to light being made up of the same force which constitutes gravity be it electro-magnetic or not in nature

[R] so what exactly is gravity ?

[Blue] gravity is memory (insert note from dan: the wave self similarity which compresses wave heterodynes pulling the drain plug thru light speed - required to make gravity is identical with the massive phase lock which makes wave nodes sustainable : literally the physics of memory - This is true both of synaptic and the wave memory in general called "inertia" by which physics both defines and measures mass).

[R] what ? you mean memories make gravity ?

[Blue] yes in order to maintain memory, energy/force must spin in vortex like fashion to maintain that memory the by product of this is gravity, attraction ,repulsion ...etc even your black-holes are huge memory vortexes of your universe and so forth ...

[R] ok ... can we get back onto what this has to with health

[Blue] this organising pattern is what flows in and out of the body, and in order to maintain health and vitality it needs to keep spinning, keep flowing in and out any impedance, resistance, blockages in the body, mind or spirit can cause disruptions and thus dis-ease to view it at the lowest levels of your physical building blocks, such as atoms, electrons, protons and so forth the lowest levels of electro-magnetic nature are ions heard you of negative ions ?

ions have an electric charge and when in motion they create and electromagnetic field your living cells behave like semi-conductors

electromagnetic force creates chemical reactions which in turn create electrical current and so on [R] so how do we use this knowledge to remain healthy, vital and so on ?

[Blue] more than 75% of your ionic generation is thru breathing, the remainder being thru your foods what is crucial for the physical body is to maintain a balance between acid and alkaline within the body this is thru foods and air but also note that emotions, feelings, stress can simply change these balances which you know as pH levels there is much information in your medical streams about this we suggest you research it it is crucial that anything electromagnetic plays a role in your health, so does your foods and what balance you maintain the body between and acid state or alkaline state do research unto this finally we will make note of this your oxygen and nitrogen break down the UV radiation from space into ions ions have a spin to them, clockwise and anticlockwise

UV radiation/light is most crucial for health, not to mention encoded with life-forming patterns of information to continued....

R] Blue, can tell us more about this Jehovah / Isha'el thing ?

[Blue] R ... you must know that it is much nitty gritty and not serve any purpose, we would rather you focused on areas that can help you see beyond the limitations set upon you [R] ok then, what is so important about afghanistan that this whole new war seems to be focused on ?

[Blue] there are many vortices and portals laid out through out earth likened unto the meridians points of the human body where wars flare up you will notice as above so below ... you can associate some battle over portals / grid points high up in afghanistan mountains there is a crucial portal one of many

..... and there is a battle for control over this you may say that oil is not the only gain ... there are also artificats of a historical nature that would reveal much about humanity and it's beginnings ..... but your governments run by the shadows do not want you to see these ..... go back and research any diggings, excavations or new findings in places where there is currently turmoil

[R] do u mean gridpoints, like in Peru or Hawaii etc ?

[Blue] yes

[R] so why aren't there any wars in Hawaii or Peru?

[Blue] mmm you forget so easily mmm ... your Pearl Harbour, and Peru which at one stage has had much earthquakes and unstable governments

[R] so i guess it is important to do grid work, by visiting those sites and assisting whatever to keep the grids points openetc ?

[Blue] yes, but pls understand, that the grid points at these sites is usually stable and open and have been for some time, especially in the cases of Peru, Egypt, Iraq, Australia, UK, Cambodia and so forth and groups who visit these sites are of two categories

a) money making schemes

b) attempting to reverse, shutdown the grid point

[R] what do u mean, shut down the grid point ?

[Blue] there are STS groups part of the shadows who make visits to these sites which are already stable and open and attempt to shut them down rather than assist in opening them

[R] but why ? i can understand the money making side of it, but why would they want to shut them down ?

[Blue] always make note after such groups who visit these sites was there any volcanic or earthquakes after their visits ??? did their governments collapse after the visit were things for the worse or for the better after their visit to so called assist in keeping or guarding these grid points this will be the tell tale sign again as we have said earth voices / grid points are like the human body meridian system also what we term as memory storage points when they are fully open, earth and it's people inhabiting it, open up, wake up, garner more information due to earth's subconscious memory being stored there also they are like access points in/out of earth's system

upper dimensions

when shut down it is the reverse likened unto a blockage in a chakra/gland/meridian point when shut down or blocked ... sickness, discomfort, pressure and so forth begins to occur do you now see

we will ask you this if these groups or peoples who make visits
these sites are really wanting to assist humanity or the earth by helping to keep open or open these vortex grid portals THEN WHY ARE THEY NOT MAKING VISITS to Afghanistan, Indonesia, Africa, Kashmir, Balkans, Pakistan, China, Israel/Palestine and many more to mention it is at these points where there is blockage, turmoil or pressure cooking

so to speak, that need all the assistance you see there is no money to be made in visiting these places ... but rather the more exotic safe locations which do not need assistance, unless

course groups were making visits whether knowingly or unknowingly in order to shutdown these gridpoints ...

[R] mmm this is interesting but how to tell of those who are in it for the money or in it to shutdown the grid point

[Blue] we keep repeating it is very simple and we have told you multiple times

.... look for those who follow a path where all is inclusive or they operate in exclusive mode ...

INCLUSIVE = BENIGN = STO
EXCLUSIVE = MALIGN = STS

[Blue continuing on] You/We have created a free will biological embodiment that is free to chose to act as an interface with the all-that-is for physical expression and experience We are as you would be and still are should you have not being caught with in self-defining matter as we have mentioned before, and we will mention again until you can see beyond your limited perceptionsimply everything that ever was and will ever be has already occurred, come and gone, in one single

of self-reflection and realisation from the all-that-is everything is/was created you simply are now surveying and reviewing the landscapes of creation, likened unto a movie that has already being filmed, you simply are reviewing the frames of creation, back and forth, living the experience.....

analysing

what has happened and will happen simply what has happened, is that you got lost in the movie, the film, whilst you were watching it, you began to make-believe that you were in the movie, that you were the actors and you forgot that you were simply watching it, viewing it from a distance then from an angle of fear and deceit, you began to believe that if you exited the movie, removed yourself from the acting, that you would lose your identity, lose yourself and become nothing and so afraid you became of this, that you remained within the constraints and frameworks of the movie, afraid to go beyond the movie/film set and here you have been ever since, acting in a multitude of movies, soap operas and epics

some of you learnt how to jump between the linear frames of your movie reel, that is rewind and fast-forward and thus were able to travel in time and back but yet still stuck with-in the boundaries of your movie then came some who knew how to cut-out certain frames and scenes and and insert frames and scenes thus change the story to suit and very few came who were able to see the source of light and the movie projector which was actually supplying the source-light and the lens to create this movie-world and they knew that they themselves were only a projection of light thru a lens and not the movie/film/actors themselves

(insert from dan: getting up off your cross to follow me, requires identifying newly with the wave instead of the node created where waves cross...)

switch of the light projector and where would you be ??

R if wishing to do so could write volumes and epics as well as much technical subject matter with much detail of your histories and wars
tragedies and triumphs of the human spirit, mind and body but
would not serve much purpose but only to pigeon hole and lay further a blame of your enemies you can not even see , nor sense, so in doing so would not give you any further advantage other than some more to hate or blame ...

when you awaken and see your unified self for what it is, rather than your fragmented selves, you will begin to slowly, see with realeyeyes (realise) and have full perception and access to much knowledge that is carried from generation to generation within your junk-DNA likened unto finding the encryption key to unlock this encrypted junk-DNA many of you think that your junk-DNA is the portion that has been de-activated thus limiting your fields of perception and ability to some degree this can be the case, but in fact, when you sold yourselves out due to deceit unknowingly, we had to encrypt much of your DNA and leave

only that which was sufficient enough to allow your survival

... there are still many species who try in vain to decrypt your 24DNA matrix soul/body in hope that they may attain the codes to heaven's gate so

... but forcing one's way into a house, is not the same as earning the

of entry, and stealing one's possessions/knowledge is not the same as working and earning and learning the knowledge unto yourself

(insert from dan: lord of the ring is the letter symmetries burnt by the spiral on the ring donut - indicating the angles at which to tilt - make alphabet- to squirt DNA codons angularly bent into recursion - literally a ring donut DNA - which becomes the magnetically implosive gravity making engine of consciousness for star bending and inhabiting... the fellowship of the ring - is the holy communion which implosion in DNA enacts morphically linking at coeur all whose being as at center the lightning braider - self-similar DNA.

see The Ring - Alphabet of Angles into the Ring...of DNA.. Implosion)

it is likened unto giving a child and very powerful piece of technical machinery which can unleash huge amounts of force what you do think would be the result? (burn the ring lest it burn you - said those afraid of the fusion of the Sun itself..)

now many will ask how do we awaken into full unified perception and articulation ?..... but this is not a simple answer it is likened unto telling a child how to ride a two-wheel bike but this is as you know >from your own experience difficult to instruct, but the child from much practice and failures eventually learns by innate nature how to balance and ride the bike

if you were to ask each child how it is done, they all would tell you a differing technique of how they achieved to ride the bike, none were the same experience learning as the other although similiar from a distance, but not from internal fields of perception ...

this is the great plan, the saviour so to speak of all physical universes and living sentient species, the human projection was to free those enslaved, but became enslaved in the process itself you are a new design model, a new species, containing all elements of physical and non-physical the first species to walk a bridge between matter and non-matter, the visible and non-visible simulateaously it is through you and your retro-viral design which will spawn a new heaven and earth so to speak

R always being technically minded always adds an angle of technicality and so we oblige, but it is never our intention to complicate matters as we do not find it necessary to communicate thru technicalities one key to breaking out of your rut is to defrag the best way to find this is to watch yourself, words, actions and anomalies around you

..... as well as synchronicities as these will lead you to a side of yourself that you are not aware off we will be clearer know you a movie reel it is made up of a long trail of frames/snapshots which are a negative-print..... when these are run thru a projector shinging light thru a lens at a certain speed, it creates animation

here lies the illussion for it is not true animation although it appears like it when run at at least 24 frames per second you like
number 24 ey ??? ;o))

now note: your physical universes are negative-print ... likened unto
negative film you take for processing at the film store.... which the light-projector shines thru to give you an image but the image comes >from an opposite physical-matter of that which be you and your reality
..... think of your eyes as the light-projector now as the movie reel runs by at 24 frames or more per second to animate your reality between each frame is a border, a boundary all

frames/snapshots are separated by this thin band, black border/boundary

..... call it what you may but when it is run thru the projector you do not notice these black-bands they are currently beyond your fields of perception ... but here lies an area that which you have no awareness off there are black-bands all thru your perceived reality, but u do not perceive them (insert from Dan - pressure gradients in wave lengths shorter than planck length - the information in the 'still point BETWEEN wave nodes - which became the title of Bentov's recommended book: "Stalking the Wild Pendulum) these contain much information and data and also escape routes to jump beyond your current fields of perception ... (Insert: Blink at at a different rate - and you see a completely different wagon wheel turning...)

another note: what you think would happen should you slow down or increase the linear speed of your move-reel as it travels thru the projector

yes ... your perception of time-passing would alter it is thru the above mention black-bands that sit between your snapshot frames, which many strange anomalies and bleed-throughs occur

..... but in order for you to go beyond the movie-reel and see the source of the light eminating, animating, you need to know yourself, every thought, every feeling, ever sense, every experience, and in order to do this you must live them yourself

smell the flowers for your selfdo not take someone elses perception of the fragrance of that flower do you understand ...

now imagine if you cut-up all the frames of the movie reel and placed them on top of each other, stacked them up thus there would be no linear movie-reel but just one deck of frames and imagine projecting a beam of light thru your stacked up deck of cut-up frames what you think see you ?? you will see a melting blur of an image, but unable to make it out, nor associate any sequence, time of events at
and each frame might have occurred, i.e. past or future it is as if each frame is occuring simulataneously and so this is how it is for the all-that-is and whole of creation this is perhaps and over simplified explanation of your reality but it may serve for better understanding

although the all-that-is may have known ;o)) we did not anticipate that or for-see your slow developement, we did not expect any hold-ups in your developement and each time, we made progress, it seemed to be smashed with catastrophie setting everything back we assisted where universal laws allowed, we even brought in STO beings to police and help nurture you, but in the end it was up to you and since your design was to be of a free will and choice nature, we could not come in and do the choosing for you, for it then would defeat the purpose of an all free will and choosing being granted there are forces at play which may limit your choices, but this does not take a way your free will and it is how you deal with the choices given and not the choice itself which is of focus know you your great sermon ? "it is easier for a camel to enter the eye of a needle than it is for a rich man to enter the kingdom of god "

know you zero-point ??

yes ... zero-point energy liken unto your black holes and white holes when you are able to spin and align yourselves harmonically as a braided wave, like a vortex of spinning energy, the bottom of this vortex is a point, and only if you can align in a harmonic braid, you are able to enter this zeropoint without any disipation or loss of impetus and memory

..... as you screw or shall we say squeeze down thru the zero-point with out any blocks or getting stuck this is what makes memories, what makes self-identity, what makes gravity

..... and is the way out of your ruts this is the entry in and out of your vortex gateways, be it earth or universe what shall you do if you ever found yourselves, being sucked into the eye of the universe (blackhole) if you wish to remain with self-identity, you will need to learn to braid harmonically otherwise you will lose your memory as the black-hole returns you to the all that is ...

[R .. folks .. this sounds a bit Dan Winterish suggest perhaps re-visiting his material] (this comment was inserted by Raphiem before I saw this- dan winter - hint see implosion research..)

Your fully activated sensory system is likened unto an inter-dimensional gateway access and communication system and more your biological design is the same as the structural pattern of your gravitational systems, which is the same thru out all your Earth, galaxy, universal, physical and non-physical systems understand this and you will understand how you tick (all based on implosion - centripetal nature of fusion is the self-similarity of perfect branching by Phi)

You may say it is difficult to fight against the system, against those that enslave you but there is no need to fight we fervently tell this to R but it seems he still has much Greek gladiator memories coursing thru his blood you simply just need to choose and/or have the will to choose for choice is NOTHING without the WILL!!!! many deem it that choice is everything a person may have all opportunities to choose as they would like to choose, given to them on a silver platter, but if they not have the WILL to energise the direction they chose and/or was given to them they will not journey anywhere simply due to not having the WILL yet a person may be up against all odds ... with limited choices if not any and yet thru sheer WILL and determination they will rise above all obstacles in their path this is the difference between you and an angel so to speak

do you understand this ,!!! ... you are a free will being ... this is your unique design but many confuse you with baloney about having free choice ... and then when you find yourselves with no free choice, you all rally to a bally-hoo complaining that you have been forsaken

You allow your system to tell you how to behave, you give up your will you spend vast amounts of energy and money on war and on goals all in the name of what??????

know you all this energy and money could have built you streets of gold, fed every starving person, housed every homeless person, healed every sick

person, clothed and educated but you all choose war you all support the very systems that corrupt you, that remove your will

(insert note: new science of peace - peace requires the self-embedding of magnetic which permits waves and people to sustain their agreement.. University for the Science of Peace) and all you have to do is simply choose not to support, give your energy to these false systems as R would say ... put your dollar where your heart is!!!!!!! do not support, give of your energy in any shape or matter, those systems and institutions that do not have your spirit in interest it is quiet simple ... and if all did it , said enough is enough, you will be amazed at the almost instantaneous results but it would seem, it is far easier to just war and let them do as they please

we will tell you this as many have asked the same question

"oh

,,, R/Blue ... what of Saturn will we be going to Saturn if all else fails here" you know ... everyone is looking for the escape hatch only interest is not how do we fix it, but how do we get out of here, where is the fire-escape and can we make it ???

if things can not be sorted out here and your awakening does not come to fruition, a new species, based on the human model will be prepared in the design works with a few adjustments for life on Saturn which is currently being transformed again it will not be a Human species but one likened upon it and the soul-group responsible for this will not be the same soul-group as you, of the human species

[R ... folks a side issue, good reading material is EMV's of Saturn ... by

Bergrun ... although doesn't talk about new planets for habitation

Blue informs me that this is what the EMV's are actually doing many newages groupies, go on about how this and that are the guardians, the alliances, but know you, it is all disempowerment for you know who the Guardians are ???????? YOU it has always been YOU!!!!HUMAN!!! who was meant to be guardians ... but instead you look outside of yourselves for the guardians to come and save you ..

Subject: Blue - Final Approach

[Blue] the all that is pulsed into being 24 streams of creation/expression. again we say review this material and imagine a flat still pond and a perfect spherical rock being plunged into it if you could take still pictures of this event you would first see a rim of water rise up out of the pond and then it would break up into 24 spikes or crown tips much like a crown image inserted by dan :reminds me of cymaticsource.com so you have 24 spikes or beams of creationand you have the troughs that lay in-between the spikes picture a bicycle wheel with 24 spokes and the all-that-is as the cog in the middle this is a 2-dimensional view, but if we could picture it for you in 3D it would look like 24 trumpet-horns inside a sphere

Angel Trumpets, Heart of Sun Animation

these 24 beams of creation spread out from the central core in all directions they are interdimensional as well as intradimensional liken them as frequencies or musical notes or colours we Blue would be likened as one of these 24 beams of creation these beams are like strings on a guitar/violin but instead of your 6 or 4 strings respectively .. you have 24 strings these strings are in constant articulation, constantly forever vibrating their frequency not all separate ... but all part of the same instrument of music/creation dare we say in-between these strings of creation are spaces, gaps and as all the 6 universes spin about the central cog in spiral fashion (note: inspire = inspiral) they enter into a beam of creation for a period of time or a period of space (pending of it is physical or non-physical) these beams of creation will enlighten/vibrate each planet and galaxy in all universes as they cut thru the beam on there forever spiraling progression of rotation about the central core but there comes a time/space where they exit these beams and eventually move into another beam of creation

all this occurs in spiral fashion slowly each universe/dimension moves up and cuts into a higher frequency beam on it's way up the spiral your galaxy, your milky way have already entered a new beam of creation and soon your earth and surrounding moons and planets will also enter the next beam of creation as they slowly move about the central core your galaxy and earth have been in limbo for about a million years of your time, this limbo is the gap we spoke of, in-between the strings of creationa place of non-vibration which is now about to enter a place of vibration ...

(as Dr.S.B. noted our orion arm of the galaxy demonstrates visibly more fractionation than the other more coherent spiral arms.. as the angels and time fractality bleed.. dan)

[R] Blue can u tell us what the next beam of creation isis it indigo ??

[Blue] mmm, we would say it is the frequencies beyond blue as you know them to be ultra-violet (UV) currently you are in half-light but your presence is not in the full-spectrum of light in your half-light you only perceive some of the UV but not all of it ...

(insert from Dan - compare to what William Buehler's Thoth inspired 'templar agenda' refers to the Oritronic 'half light' vs. Metatronic 'full light' spectra - what I , Dan would call a cubically / octave non-embedable spectral cascade by frequency signature vs.

a harmonic content based on PHI -pent- philotactic embedable branching all-go-rhythmn) soon you will be bathed in full UV light also known as double-light to you (Dan: I speculate the spectral harmonics can be much more inclusive and closer spaced between harmonics contained - literally non-destructively compressed - when the musical key of those light beams embeds in more fractal fusion - phi series - as the hydrogen emission balmer series basis of solar fusion were calculated in log PHI series by Randy Masters.. etc. - value of embedding directly in sunlight - rather than attempt to eat it's light after storing it - resulting in phase fractionation which kills you)

[R] how will we percieve things in this UV beam of creation? how will things be

[Blue] does not your UV light expose hidden matter, likened unto your discotech nightclub stamp or your UV pens which you sign your signatures which can only be viewed under a UV light this is how things will be, everything will be exposed, vibrated, nothing will remain hidden know you what happens when photons interact with electrons ?? they cause electrons to accelerate and jump their orbits around the nucleus of your atoms when electrons begin jumping in excitement, they cause electrochemical changes in matter as well as the electrons jumping their orbits, they reverse their direction of spin so where they be spinning clockwise in half-light, when this creation beam touches it, they will spin-anti-clockwise and vice versa [R] but how will this affect us, our lives, etc here on earth ?

[Blue] have you ever scene a negative of a film turned into a photo it is much likened unto this process now you are like a negative, soon you will become the processed photo the reverse now as you reside in the gap where there is no creation beam vibrating, you must carry your own memories, perpetuate your own spin vortex and you require light from outside of you to sustain you, eg. your yellow sun inside the creation beam this will be reversed for light shall come from within you rather than outside of you and your new sun (to be Jupiter) will be blue [R] what will happen to our current sun ...?

[Blue] your current sun has outlived it's agreed purpose for it must go on to birth other planets

[R] you mean to explode

[Blue] mmm ... yes but before the explosion, will be an implosion, likened unto taking a breath inwards and then blowing out thus your sun is in it's final phase do note recently an asteroid was captured entering your sun we sent this, directed into your sun for a reason, as it had become very unstable and there was much fission going on with in it's bowels the asteroid was sent to help quench it's thirst so to speak keep it at bay for a while longer you will see many of these asteroids being sent into your sun ...

this new creation beam you are about to enter is likened unto taking your glove off your hand, where the inside is revealed to the outside, inside out as you know it shall we say everything will become INSIDE-OUT

[R] can you tell us anything about gravitational shifts or reversals or polar shifts will this be apart of it ?

[Blue] many speak about the earth titling on it's axis this is not so what will occur is that your magnetic poles will reverse in polarity thus causing all your electrical poles to also reverse be aware that none of your current technologies will work and will need adaptions to make them function within the new polarity before poles reverse there is a void and null zone ... likened unto the moment between an in-breath and an out-breath during this period your momentum of memory if identity will need to be sustain by yourselves you will not have the momentum of universal and galaxy spin assisting your soul-ular memory do always remember, that memory is what makes gravity/attraction

.....!!

[R] how long will this null zone last for that we must carry our own memory our own spin

[Blue] you are asking a gestalt being who has no concept of time
....? note: however long it takes will depend on you, for it is relative
.... but there is a minimum and maximum threshold do you not see it is likened unto a cleansing for anyhting that refuses to resonate with this UV creation beam will disipate or disintegrate
..... it is likened unto a signature key and any living being or thing that can not carry their own memory which must resonate within the UV signature will also disipate back into the all-that-is ..... losing all identity and self-reflection

[R] this sounds like a good thing so what is the deal and concern with all this saturn business [Blue] mmm our dear R your fingers will start smoking and we know our time is up as far as transcribing is concerned so we will keep it simple andnot get into complexities but we will say that a likely outcome is that earth and humanity will lose it's group memory , for it may not be able to sustain it's self efficiently harmonically, during the null zone if you can not, or earth can not carry itself to the tune of UV frequency it will disipate thus is your delima so we are taking precautions for a new physical body template which will be created upon Saturn the new Earth should this be required note: there are those who know of what is to occur and they do not wish you to make it, to succeed and they are doing all they can to plunge this world into utter chaos as they know, that they do not have much time left also they are making attempts to try and break into this UV frequency and sustain themselves in doublelight .... although their intention is not such we will not mince words, nor give you fuzzy and warms and half-truths as we speak your world is mostly spiritual asleep and unconscious of what is occuring around it although this may not be directly your fault but sitting on your backsides does not help either and having weak wills of determinations due to the life force drained from you for unable to carry your own spin ...

everything sits on a razors edge and if not enough wakeup your false leaders who do not prepresent you will plunge you to a point of where there is no return as we look across the edge of night unto an ocean of forever.... we glimpse a sea of candles flickering in the dark as the winds of change blow upon the sand on the sea-shore of time ... we throw a blanket of stars over you to shield and warm your hearts from the cold desert winds of your soul and guide you home from your long and weary journey...

aeons of Forever Blue Eternity have come and gone and still your memories are in lament of the days when we used to play like children among the stars ... and as we walk among the garden we see rose-buds on the verge of a golden bloom... and like the fragrance of a fresh spring morning we stop to smell and breath-in the Sweetness of your Lights ..

...and as we do we know that we are almost home and that the warmth of summer with it's golden rays will soon be here to stay....

Ok here we go folks ... but to some this may be good news, am not sure if this is gonna fit into one last email as i may have to extend Blue is pushing as much as they can down my mind.

now a word of warning what you are about to read may shake the foundations of man/human/women/religion/truth as you know it and have been taught today it may even make you angry there are many streams of works, channelings, supposed guardiance, and many many alliances ... what u are about to read may differ with many of what you have learnt and

across

again i say take it with a grain of salt if it resonates, then fine, if it doesn't then dont worry about it i can not vouch or prove it, i can only trust what is given to me from years of building up trust with Blue Blue says much of this can be traced and if logic and past and current traits, behaviour used, one can identify/sense that what Blue
rants on about is the truth at first Blue danced around this issue, as they did not want to dissect the whole history as they only wished for unification and final resolution. but since i was ending future transcriptions for now at least (although i've had many a feedback wishing me to continue) it was only fair that they Blue gave me a little more to chew on ... maybe after i've rested and got my heavy work schedule and commitments out of the way, i may reconsider transcribing more ok here we go hold on to your hats ...

First i need to setup the scene and define who the hell is who

Elijovium = Reptilian Soul-ular Gestalt

Lillium = Human Soul-ular Gestalt

Jehovian Angelic Stream in the physical earth = Adam (fallen 22 DNA strand)

Lillium Angelic Stream in the physical earth = Lillith (project 24 DNA strand)

Jehovian Angelic Hybrid Stream = Eve (fallen 11 DNA strand)

Children of Adam and Lillith Stream = Hybrid Human/Reptilian 24 DNA strand

(Abel)

Children of Adam and Eve Stream = Hybrid Reptilian 11 DNA strand (Cain)

Children of Lillith and Eve Stream = Hybrid Reptilian 12 DNA strand (Seth)

[Blue] it is important that you revisit all previous posts in order to gather some understanding of the Human race beginnings of what we are about to delve into, with regards to the universal fall/rift and the Human

the above are not names of people, or individuals, although they have been potrayed as this in many and much of your religious text ...

Elijovium and Lillium or Adam and Eve and so on are simply titles/names given to whole races/species/streams/conciousness/souls etc etc ...

Although the names represent male or female orientation, do not confuse them as the whole stream was of both polarities, being male and female (positive and negative) understand that negative is not to be equated with bad/wrong ... but simply a creative potential between the opposite polarity.

you will need to revisit much of your judeo-christian texts such as
talmud, bible, kabbalah in order to understand the twist of what has gone on

[Blue] as we have explained before the human physical stream originated in this universe one (the universe you are currently expressing

in.... it's sole intent and purpose was two fold.

one was to heal the universal rift the other was to create a full unconditional unlimited physical body of expression/experience for
all-that-is.

as you recall, we have said that the originating species on earth was always reptilian off-shoots from the Lyran and Plaeidian systems who were seeking to get away from many a war that had ravaged this solar system and setup their own terrian of rulership.

this solar system from the onset was heavily populated with Elijovian/Reptilian streams the Lillium/Human streams were introduced as we have said before to heal ... and the Lillith human physical

beings were much likened unto a retro-virus ... to cure/heal The Lillium/Human stream sis spend some time on Jupiters moons coagulating/forming ... but the real home was Venus where they finally settled amongst a heavily populated Elijovian/Reptilian system

.....

many of you deep down have not forgiven your forebearers and us for this extremely stressful position that you were placed in. like R. when we revealed this was in total anger as to what in god's mind

were we thinking ;o))!!! basically as R puts it and for lack of better words, the Human stream was a bait. We know this sounds drastic

the majority of Elijovian streams were in STS mode and were beginning to fight/war amongs themselves if this universal rift was ever to be healed ... it was to be then and now.

The Elijovian after separating and locking themselves out of connectedness with the all that is went about creating their own domains of power, with no regard to the whole, assuming that they could be likened unto the

Many Aeons later they figured that they could not enter Universes 4

which were non-physical as they did not contain all the bits of the all-that-is ... and their existance would forever remain in linear time based physicality and never experience non-physicality.

One thing you need to be careful of is the definition of physicality ... which can be equated with linear physical universes be it Universe 1, 2 or 3 or dimensions 1 to 12. many assume existence in Universe 2 (D5-D8) is non-physical. This is not the case. It is less physical, time is more fluid, but it is not what many assume to be "real" non-physical/non-time reality. Although you are a soul fragment of a large soul-group who may have roots in the non-physical ...
the you who perceives with the eyes that are reading this text is based in this linear-time-physical expression.

[R] ok Blue we get the drift, what did u mean by "the twist" ?

[Blue] your current religious text mainly the Judeo/Christian as well
several others including the Koran have reversed the truth it has been made out that Human race (Lillith/Lillium) is to blame for all the mess/problems. this is not how it "really" was we will continue and we will keep it really simple so even children may understand once a time, the Human was based on Venus and the Reptilian on Mareath (many know this as Maldek) there was to a lesser extent very very few Reptilian on Mars and Earth ... more like scout teams or shall we say experiment/scientists

... now there started to be much interaction between the two groups

the reptilian/elijovian stream was very intrigued by the human species and then they realised (took the bait) when they found that genetically it had two extra DNA strands and what this meant for them so they began to interbreed as we have always said the human strain is open

and

inclusive ... where as the Elijovian/Reptilian strains are closed and exclusive make note: as this signature trait enables you to see who

today in your world, be it a religion, or race or person or government
and

which stream they are dominant in, whether human or reptilian ...

[R] can u give us some examples

[Blue] mmm ... study your aboriginal peoples and how with open arms they welcomed only to be enslaved and dominated over by new comers to their land

..... as for countries or govts we will say one example but not limited to is the Dutch and Finnish study their cultures, their govts,

their society and see how open and allowing and free they are to ideas, new systems and fellow humans and on a lesser scale your Australia/NZ

..... although they started off on a wrong foot, they have made up
ground again, this is one example of many we will continue now we wish to shock you a little note:
much of your genesis and talmud is not based on story events that occurred here on earth but that of those that occurred on Venus/Mareath/Mars
.... as well as Earth but they were compiled so to speak and the truth reversed and twisted here on Earth to speed things along for you after milleniums of interbreeding
and peace the Elijovian (or shall we say a faction of it) decided that now that they have interbred and have now sufficient genetics and traits from the Lillium/Human race attempted to dominate "better than though" attitude before too long other Elijovian faction split off and caused more tension and then came the gassing/destruction of Venus and most moved to Mareath (Maldek) where further disintegration occurred, until the total destruction of that planet and then Mars on Mars is where all the fun began and this is where we will provide
herstory instead of history which is what is dished out on Earth
.....

[R] When did all the Lillith/Eve interbreeding come in place ?

[Blue] be patient R. there is millions of linear years transpired and it can not be explained in short paragraphs.

now it is referred to in the Talmud that Lillith was the original mate for Adam ... but since Lillith would not allow Adam to sleep on top of her,

she felt it was unequal, she refused to bear any children and so she ran out on Adam later Adam was given Eve from his rib with whom children were bred later the Talmud goes on to say that Lillith came back to see that Adam now had Eve and was very upset and thus stole Adams

seed while he was sleeping, and the offspring of this became demons

now ... we do not wish any resentment here but this whole Talmud/Genesis story relating to Adam and Eve and so on is the BIGGEST,

FATTEST LIE and DECEIT ever written and who be it that have written such lies and deceivment, no other than the Jehovian stream (Elijovian/Reptilian)

if you read closely what we have written and check it out for yourself
in the Talmud you will see that the names given are not individual characters and the whole epic is not as simple as it is made out it covers whole races/species over long periods of time we will give our version of this as we sense that once this truth is come to grips, it will free up much of R. mind as well as perhaps others to continue on realising other truths which are not separative in nature as we do not wish for people to pigeon-hole and point fingers and create further separation rather than unification you see the truth is that after the Jehovian/Adamic races had interbred some with the Lillium/Lillith-Human races they decided to not to be equal

where as the agreement was equal guardian over this universe/system

the Adamic/Jehovah became patriarchal and treated this Lillium/Human as lesser they wished to dominate and control now that they felt they had obtained the genetics ... which was the Human bait now one the Lillium race got wind of this, they felt that they had been hard done by and being a peaceful and STO race they simply refused to mix any further in the interbreeding programs with the Jehovian this is what is meant by, that Liliith did not wish Adam to lay on top of her as she felt unequal

now as the LIES and DECEIT continue there is some truth in the story threads, but they are intended to portray things in different light you see since Lillith refused to bear children with the Adamic race, she went off ... this angered the Jehovian race and so they decided to begin genetic engineering they found it upon themselves that since the Adamic race had interbred with the Human Lillium race, that they could extract

Lillium genes and harness them in Adamic females to produce another Adamic off-shoot that was more alike to the Lillium race so although their souls were Elijovium, they would embody a physical vehicle akin much to the Lillium but not of Human soul-stream

[R] Blue this is beginning to look messy

[Blue] well R, you asked for it and we are giving it to you now this genetic experiment is what created the demons and monsters and eventually a lesser being which only could be hard-wired for 11-DNA strands
..... this was known as EVE ,,,,,,,!!!! if they attempted any higher strands, they ended up with unstable power species, but which were destructive even to their own kind which they could not control are you beginning to see the twist and the lies [R] so is this why they went from 22 to 11 DNA strands as far as the species was concerned and of course EVE was not just female, but both ?

[Blue] yes .. this is the case Eve is representative of both male and female physical bodies although in your books it is portrayed as female

..... and the 11 DNA came about as they genetically could only half
original 22 DNA strand now we will say there were one successful species that did come out of this with 12-strand but more on this later

now when the Lillium race discovered what the Jehovian was doing and the big mess they were creating with this genetic experiemtn gone wrong

..... they saw that this was not what the Lillium/Human race wanted and what the all-that-is had intended so in a way this angered them

and in an attempt to try and stop it ... they stole/destroyed the
labs where all this experimenting by the Jehovian was going on but the Talmud and Genesis have reversed and twisted this to point the blame

that Lillith stole Adams seed and with it bred demons and monsters

this is a total fabrication and lie of what actually occurred

The Lillium/Lillith Human race is represented by many lore as the

the Lake the saviour of humanity, the one who cared and guided

and looked after all others this is why we say to you human (be it if you are mixed hybrid or not) that you were meant to be the guardian

..... not others as you have been lied to, such as Sirian/Elohim and so on and on all these have hidden agendas but it was too late the Jehovian had already bred a varied types

humanoid species based on the genetics they were able to garner from the

Lillium/Lillith genes that was interbred over millenium with them and yes it was Lillith (serpent/DNA) who tempted EVE to eat of the knowledge and truth and be free of Jehovian domain and again this has been twisted to represent the Lillith as the snake and evil-doer why is it you think that Adam and Eve could not leave the Eden domain ...

because it was likened unto a prison camp ... fear that they may discover

the truth

you see much of your greek lore and egyptian lore is also based on how many gods fought amongst each other and slept with each other and bore children

with each other .. very incestuous but remember these were only representative of whole species/races and not individual gods

[R] so what about Cain and Abel ..??

[Blue] Cain and able were differing genetic pools depending on the

between Lillith and Eve with the Adamic races you see although

Talmud do not tell you this, Adam and Lillith races did breed the Abel race/stream ...

the Cain and Seth stream was interbreeding between Adam and Eve and Lillith

and Eve races respectively ...

and as you can see, the Cain race always had it in for the Adam and Lillith

24 DNA stream and so slowly over a long period of time with help of the Seth

stream and the Jehovian group they killed of Abel stream now did not the Jehovian group punish Cain infact they protected

stream by stating that should anyone bring harm upon the Cain stream they will be punished seven-fold we emprove you to go back and reread

..... it is there open for you, do bear in mind the reversal twist and it will all begin to make sense do keep in mind that Abel came first

as a race and not Cain ..

[Blue continues] ok R. we refrain from detailed, past history as per your request. you seem to be in confusion. One moment you are wish for more gutsy details and a who done it novel format and then on the turn of another moment, you want a summary.

we will re-state somethings already stated, but for the purpose of this last transcription to ensure all is understood.

* the human stream of conciousness and physicality was a unique thought seed which manifested itself in the physical. It's purpose was to be a free will and free choice beings who were impartial to STS and STO modes and free to remain int he balance or move across side to side but also to embody the all-that-is for purpose of creation and expression and experience.... to have a foot in heaven as well as earth so to speak...

note: just as STS beings can be detrimental, so can STO both can be extreme and never resolving and pendulum always swinging from STS to STO it is known throught that the STO way of being is used as a way of how you should express in you are always told, to be in service of others, serve, serve, serve but this is in vain, just as is STS way of beingness.

you see STS beings will always tell you to be in service of others cause ultimately it is them you are serving.;o)) so you must find a balance and you must do as your hearts wishes otherwise you will be expressing the desires of others and not your own.

 now we tell you something that may be of a surprise to you there was not meant to be any EVOLUTION for humans humans in their original form were full realised beings. There were no more rungs on the ladder for them to climb!!! where as other beings were manifest-created straight into a de-evolved state from their true state of all-that-isness, and thus had to evolve back up to that level.

humans were created by ordained design from the all-that-is, unto their fullness what has happened is that you have de-evolved

[Blue] both do you see you can only embody that which resonates with your level of vibration it is much likened unto your ever evolving computer technology as the operating systems become more powerful, complicated, larger, with many more features, they require a more integrated hardware-body containing a respective motherboard, CPU and more memory in order to run effectively, than previous version of operating systems.

do you see not that this is the crux of humanity why is it that other beings from other worlds and dimensions watch on in wonderment, and wish to research you, study you, take sample DNA from you and so forth it is because they look at you in awe, some look upon you in jealousy and envy and some look upon you in wonderment with-in you is contained the keys to the kingdom so to speak, but you do not realise this you do see this within yourselves you only concern yourselves with what others are thinking or saying and want to pigeon-hole who done what and to whom they done it to you just want to point the finger, to blame something or someone for your demise instead of just picking up the pieces and getting on with it no one or nothing is going to fix your mess up you must fix it up yourselves you must all work together irrespective of your genetic makeup , be it hybrid or not and we will tell you this those who are not hybrid on this earth currently, you can count them on one hand as for the rest , you are all hybrids to varying degrees between human/reptilian and you are so intertwined that you can not separate the two any longer and until you all wakeup and face this fact, you can not heal within and between yourselves

what has happened has happened simply you can argue that the non-human streams have re-engineered the human body so they can embody it, incarnate into it and reside into it

[R] so you are saying that in order to obtain the keys to the kingdom, the-all-that-is domain, we have undergone an a long interbreeding program which to a degree has de-evolved humans, but on the same token, helped evolved reptilians and/or other streams

[Blue] yes and we have always told you this from the beginning, the human project was created for this purpose, to re-align and heal those streams of consciousness who had locked themselves out from heaven so to speak, separated themselves those who have forgotten and lost their way, you were to be their memory you are likened unto a retro-virus and is it not strange that you in some ways behave upon the skin of your Earth, like a virus!!

[R] this is frustrating so what exactly is the problem then, if humans were meant to de-evolve and spread like a virus into the genetic makeup of other races, in order for them to remember their way back home ... and then what the hell is Blue doing and wanting ?

[Blue] we are you and you are of us we have explained this

the problem of which you speak, as for the all-that-is, is not a problem nor wrong the issue is that the human was created to provide memory and genetic make up to allow those who you term fallen, a chance to move themselves out of the rut and correct their mistake but instead you have become the fallen yourselves and are on the verge of extinction!!!!!!

you know what the problem is!!!!!!!!!!!!!! it is you are as human about to lose all memory and should you do, then there is no comeback

[R] what do you mean about to lose memory

[Blue] you do not know who you are, what you are, where you came from, where you are going and so on

do you know what the difference is between a human consciousness and an animal consciousness ???? have you dared to think upon this

sentient beings such as humans and reptilians and cetacians for example have a sense of future!!!! and past!!! where us much of your other lifeforms, do not!!! they only exist for the moment, they do not plan for future and they do not concern themselves with the past and what happened yesterday

[R] you once said that the Asian races were brought in as a last minute effort to balance the scales between the human and non-human streams can you

[Blue] we know of what you speak and ask but first we must back track a little you see in general, the zeti reticulum species is actually yourselves in future after memory loss

[R] what the you mean Zeti are human [Blue] to a degree yes!!! but it is after much of the human gene has been bred out let us just say for now, not to complicate matters the Zeti ingeneral are reptillian souls embodying a human body or what is left of it however there are those of the Zeti offshoots who although have Zeti bodies are human in soul consciousness stream they appear taller and more whiter in skin

however we will not confuse you and worry you but you see the Zeti (the benign ones) are you >from your future working to resolve the mess but as for the Tan or you know as Asian (Ashan) they were the first entry point of the Zeti coming in from the future and doing and introducing their stream into your now so as to divert any self destruction and onesidedness overpowering of the Evijovium or known as the Jehovah stream just look back into your recent past who was it that dropped the bombs and on which race ?? we will tell you something, before the earth tilt, southern parts of the USA were much further north, nearing your north pole, known as hyperborean age do you known what your americas of old was known as mmm ... "the land of Jehovah"

[R] you said if things didn't work out, that saturn was being terraformed and new beings/streams would undertake the articulation of embodying the all-that-is in physical bodies

[Blue] mmm this is a very sensitive matter and requires much translation and verbage and we will not enter into it for the moment but to say that Saturn is being terraformed to become another Earth but we will say this, after the demise of Venus (humanities original home) some true-blue-humans (Lillium) did go separate ways to other galaxies and systems within unviverse one and shall we say they too also interbred with other streams

[R] wow ... can u tell us what some of these streams were, have they ever come to Earth

[Blue] mmmm yes of course you know of them for example two were the feline looking beings and one major one which on your earth are known as insects, are the praying mantis but there is one major one that you kill and hunt in your waters, you know of which we speak the whales and dolphins from the DAAL systems

[Blue] there was a period of 100,000 yrs peace prior the fall of atlantis and so on ... and these beings visited and lived here and helped build up earth to be a portal, a jewel in this universe it was at the time when the Andromedans were the initiated peacekeepers, before they sold you out and became corrupt in order to serve their own agendas eventually the feline stream left and did many of the others after all hell broke loose due to a warring faction of the Jehovian stream brought your earth to a stand still and basically nuked the place your DAAL race who were infact from your true Lillium stream, chose to stay to assist as the known cetaceans that now swim in your oceans today

[R] Blue, i wish to finish as it seems the more you go on, the deeper the storyline gets and it seems we'll never finish can you perhaps finish up with one more final thing as your departure for this last transcript

[Blue] mmm we are scanning, as to what would be of most benefit for you to research we will continue on >from the last few paragraphs but we wish to bring something to your attentions which may affect your futures or will be occurring in your futures a keyword for you to research is Lithium your 3rd element you see this is a very underrated element you hear off Hydrogen and Helium but rarely a mention of Lithium note: much off your atomic testing is for opening up of portals (time, intradimensional) a side-effect is memory loss as the earth grids get destabilised but another feature of huge amounts of hydrogen mixing with oxygen under pressure of fire/heat is Lithium

know you why Lithium and what it does it creates doorways into memories that remain blocked, sort of like forcing your way thru a door, rather than easily opening it but also it is the main ingredient for ultra and intra dimensional portals research on your planets where Lithium is found in abundance and you will see some patterns but note: also the use of the hydrogen bombs on the Ashan/Tan/Zeti (Japanese) considering the above what we have just told you can you piece the rest together, concerning timelines and portals a side-effect of Lithium mixed into the food chain and miasmatic chain is a high degree of intellect/intelligence but at the cost of spiritual deprivation, leaking mmm ... does this again not remind you of how the Zeti became to be who were once upon a time actually you, in your future to be and thus the beginning was in the end but R. we know you will be back ;o))

The Return of the Blue Sheltered Light and Silence ending for now

folks i hope you got something out of this and was worthwhile i'll keep the list open for now so i've got your emails, in case something comes of light and we continue the saga of Blue

Last night my son went thru his "don't wanna sleep" moods again
..... i finally got to sleep at 5am in the morning, but had to be up again for work at 6:30am ... slept in till 7:40am now somewhere between 5am and 7:40am(i must have been out like a light cause i even did not remember turning the clock alarm off) but what i did manage to scrape in remembrance was this way out of this universe dream

here is what i could recall/piece together ...

[dream starts somewhere here] i am driving in my car somewhere but seem to be in a rush (i assume i was going to work) i was listening to the radio and a news bulletin is announced the announcer sounds very serious with his old deep croaky voice the bulletin from what i can recall went something like this the Casseopeans have met with the "Council of 9" the Casseopeans have stated that the "Council of 9" have till the end of May 2003 to surrender and dismantle all their nuclear weapons of war, stop transmissions of all mind control frequencies, sieze all actions of war on earth and allow all citizens to be free unhindered

... in the next 2 weeks the Casseopeans will be commissioning the Andromedans to stand by and take action, protection if necessary

..... positioned between the moon and the sun the Andromedans will be employing 12 metaplastic to magnetic conversion devices positioned all over the earth these will set up a harmonic grid frequency which will resonate with earth to disrupt all "Council of 9" frequencies and setup a threshold shield around earth by April 2003

... should the "Council of 9" not heed the Casseopean warnings and stop as requested.... and resist the metaplastic engines will begin to pulse the earth grid in May 2003 will cause friction and tension within and without the earth wiping the earth clean and preparing for new life as this bulletin ended, i turned to the passenger seat, and a man was sitting there to my surprise and he had shades on (he kinda looked like bono from U2) and he turned to me and said "let the ultra-violet light your way"

so ... i asked Blue what to make of it Blue said that the C9 have had a frequency fence/shield setup for 10,000yrs plus it seems we are on a knives edge and the Elijovium (Jehova stream) .. the main body of the C9 are preparing for final control they've position themselves, and have nuclear devices ready and deployed and are simply awaiting the right time they do not want to let go of all they have built to manipulate and control over millenia and are going to go out fighting simply the Andromedans who lets us down in the past, sold us out are back to assist ... but the Casseopeans who are far advanced will make sure they commit to their promise to police Blue also said that this pulsing if it occurs turns Earth into a huge magnet attractor (all i could think of was maybe to pull the asteroid in)

Hi All,

i hope to transcribe a little more from Blue over the coming Easter holidays but for now something of interest reading thru Sitchin's latest book "Lost Book of Enki" i came across this.

pre-cursor after the Annunaki created the first hybrids to be slave workers mining gold, they found that they were not reproducing this was an issue as they had hoped they would reproduce themselves and thus take away the pressure from the

finally Enki (Ishael) discovered what the problem was after re-examining the original hybrid genetics read excerpt

Let us the essences of Adamu and Ti-Amat afresh examine ... Ningishzidda was saying. Their ME's bit by bit to be studied, [ME = formula ?] what is to ascertain! in the house of healing, the essences of Adamu and Ti-Amat were contemplated With the life essence of the Annunaki males and females they were compared.

Like two entwined serpents the essences separated arranged like twenty-two branches on the tree of life were the essences twenty-two they were in number, the ability to procreate they did not include!

Another two bits of essence in the Annunaki present was shown [here they go off to the lab and do some DNA splicing etc etc]

.... To their tree of life two branches have been added ... with procreating powers their essences are now entwined!

now why do i bring this up folks for me this confirms everything Blue has been saying ... re: 24 DNA strands the above if you add 22 + 2 in order to procreate you have 24 bits am not sure exactly what is meant by "bits" but Blue is winking to me that it is strands!!!

if Sitchin is correct then here is confirmation of 24 DNA strands.

now i won't go into it deeply here but as you would have read thru all the previous Blue transcriptions we are being lied to ... Blue's take on "Lost book of Enki" is that is half-lies even this translation is twisted and fraught with lies.

i stress here ... i am not saying the Sitchin is wrong in his translation nor that he has lied.... simply the tablets themselves could be written that way to deceive as explain in prev posts the Annunaki DID NOT create humans from apes. Humans were before apes, before cro-magnon and neanderthal man ... infact these species came from the original humans mixed with reptilian genetics.

you see they wonder about the genetic leap from apes to cro-magnonwhere in fact for humans it was not a leap but a de-evolution ..

as for Enki (Ishael) and Enlil (Jehovah) they are off the same root race which is reptilian, but differing factions. and both are at war and still are to this day in the middle east. Blue says before we can move on transmute ... this whole middle east affair has to be sorted out once and for all ...

now many of you may not like this ... but Jehovah is the warring faction and not the Ishael/arab-muslims although in the media it is made out to be the opposite the Jehovan stream are the warlords and have been from the year dot. Now only if we can find the missing book which to this day is not found"Book of the Wars of Yahweh [Jehovah]" Blue says this book is found, but will never be released to public as it shows the Jehovan stream in very bad light.

apparently this book is mentioned several times in the bible <http://www.thebird.org/web/bible/Numbers/21.html>

hopefully more over easter

It seems this Jehovah business always stirs up emotions from both sides

.... Now I have included one post below which may appear onesided but at least provided in some positive constructive detail the person firsthand experience I am not going to repeat the negative posts telling me where to go and die as some felt the take on Jehovah was to close to home/religion etc

Anyway below is a fwd email from someone who had fwd my post to this person ... At the bottom of this some Blue info ...

Someone wrote:

You are one of the only people I know of that is opening their mind to the realities that are going on in the Middle East. The Arabs have been treated as dirt by the Israelis for such a long time, they are descriminated, spat upon and shunned in their own lands (the East bank of Jordan) worse than the blacks were treated here. Outright discrimination is being practiced like I have never seen it anywhere before.....I have lived there and experienced it.

My time spent in the Arab countries of Jordan, Syria, Iraq & Iran were very interesting, these people practice brotherhood, it is a part of their religion and they truly try to carry this out. We were invited to stay in a home with people who had been removed from the West Bank of

Jordan, by the Israelis, from their farms, from their homeland, a place where generations of them had lived and died. That property had been given back to them by a decree made by the United Nations in spite of the three day war in which the Israelis had "won" their lands. The Israelis have never returned their homes to them defying the decree and denying these people their homelands.

That is why there is a Palestinian movement and bombings and all the like, where innocent people are injured. You are right, they have nothing to live or die for, no arms, no backing from our government for equipment to fight back, that is why they are doing what they are doing.

The Israelis on the other hand that I met were suspicious, nervous, doubting, not kind, not warm and welcoming at all. Most of them were neurotic and outright unfriendly, unfortunately and we had recommendations from friends they knew. We stayed in a Kibbutz called

Dovrat, they let us stay one night only, near the animals in the barn. The children would come out early in the morning to feed them as the animals bayed and made noises, as they were hungry. I liked the lifestyle as they lived communily, but the people are so full of fear. I guess they have a good reason to be. If I stole you car or money or house I would be in fear for the rest of my life too..... No one is looking at this side of the issue, that the Palestinians want their land back, it was supposed to be given to them a long time ago, when I was there over 20 years ago. Has this issue ever been raised? Who knows about this? We only hear about how tragic the aftermath is.

They are trying to make a statement. We are so limited in our knowledge here as the press is so controlled and one sided. As always, we will know and understand what "they" want us to.

Keep up the good work you do, I'm sure many people don't understand at

all. maybe they never will....

Regards

[Blue] there is no return from this mid-east crisis, it has to play it self out, it is not a matter of what happens or whom does what to

but how it is dealt with and what is learnt from it There is no point if nothing is gained nor learned from it ...

In the beginning there was no jews, nor israel, it was all mass of people populating this area of the globe ... Call them what you wish, perhaps simply annunaki.

[R] so you are sure sure that Arabs and Jews are Annunaki ?

[Blue] yes, they are both from the same genetic grouping, this has

One side is orion and the other is sirius, but the common denominator is pleidian.

[Blue] Your Sitchin is close to the mark but is translating faked histories from some of the tablets and scrolls ...

[Blue] we have explained this in previous posts and no need to go over,

but we will give you some pre-egyptian history And explain the one god biased pharoahs verses those that looked upon multi-gods and explain

why you have been given a lie ...as this tied in with the arab/israel rift.

[R] before you go on, does this mean that the elohim are annunaki/reptilian ?

[Blue] yes, for do you not see, Israel (Jews) is Isis/Ra of the Elohim

Ishael (Arabs) Isis/Hathor of the Elohim....

In Lemu/Atlantica approx 400,000 years ago began a phase in civilisation where many from all over your universe lived It was one melting pot

so to speak, but there was peace and sharing There were many a councils and ET groups that were caring for the new earth and it's new species, but amongst them was one group priestly scientific group known as the priests/priestesses of zadok. (melchizedek)

Those of zadok were more male driven in nature wheres as those of Hathor

were more feminine in nature But both were scientific in nature.
Approx 200,000 years ago, those of Zadok wanted more control and power, as you see their main supported was the Jehovah stream Where

those of the Hathor did not, they basically did not want to interfere and wanted to be left alone and did not really play a major role amongst the councils The Jehovah group being very anti-human and were becoming restless and angry as the Annunaki had agreed to share

build a home planet for beings/races ...

[R] do you mean the Annunaki were peaceful in general ?

[Blue] yes of course, although it took them a long time to grow and

a battle across many planets and systems, they finally at that point wanted the all-that-is again Remember they are like any other being, although genetically different and missing a few notches that humans were given, that they did not have, never the less they had hearts, souls, minds, children, they loved, they hated, they laughed

so forth ...just as you all are today.

... Speeding this up for you

The Priestly cast of Zadok [melchizedek] were not happy with this

they felt that it was there inherent right for full dominion over others as they were here first ...

...but the councils would not hear of it And so Zadok were very limited in what they could do So they took it upon themselves to attempt to capture a passing asteroid and hold it in orbit and use

to mount there weapons and technologies amongst it and attempt to rule from here ...

In the end against much a scuffle and shuffle and technological errors

... The asteroid, although small, entered earths stratosphere and shook the hell out of the place ... Leaving a trail of devastation behind [R] did it crash into earth ?

[Blue] , no but lets say it damaged your stratosphere severely. ..

There

is more to this picture, but from here we will bring you froth unto egypt post atlantica/lemura ...

Do not how many undersea lost cities they are finding and soon

will be more and they will increae in frequency and will change the shape of your history ...

You see Moses was Akhanaton and there is many research now which is concluding this to be the case

[R] but where does Jehovah fit into this [Blue] we are scanning [scanning for images] Know your movie

Startrek Insurrection It is similar along these lines You had a peoples who lived in peace with out technology although they were far in advance of any technology [Ishael/Hathor] ... Then you had the lost

sons and fathers who were cast out and now seeked revenge and wanted the land back [Eli-Jovi / Jehovah] And in the middle you had the Corrupt Federation doing deals with and siding with the Eli-Jovi in return for technology/advanced genetics ...

But all in all they were the one and the same

[R] but where does Egypt come into play

[Blue] you see you are told lies Ahkenaton/Moses formed/forced

ONE GOD ruling ... Guess who this lord god might be Yes ..

Jehovah

.... Who promised many a thing to this Pharaoh ...

Do you really think that this one god worship was about some "all-that-is/creation" ?? Of course not, it was the same drama again Jehovah wanted to be the only god, as there were many as will read in many a historical books About your so called mythological gods ... There were many councils And so forth

So a revolt occurred and thus the separation where Moses led the followers out of Egypt And Jehovah made many a promise to his people This business of persecution by the Egyptians was all a lie .... They cause havoc and were simply told to get out or else and so they did ...

The historical lies you are fed is that this one god worship was really supposed to have been a good thing ... And those that followed

gods/leaders/councils was a naughty and bad thing This is a big lie

.... In fact the following of many councils and leaders was a democratic

like having a UN with one country only as a member and doing all the decision making ...

Well who do you think considered it to be naughty and bad ?? Of those that wrote the bible and who may they be ;o))

It was all a fight over who had control and power amongst the Eli-between themselves but also over the rest of all And to this day it continues ...

[R] so you are saying the Ishael have contributed to this problem and they are not innocent in it ?

[Blue] as we said, the Ishael wanted to be left alone and did not care or much say in council matters, but when Jehovah gained power and strength, they opposed and caused quiet some damage to jehovah and since then it has been eye for eye ...

If they had been left alone, jehovah to this day may have got away with what they wanted ... But jehovah decided to nuke some Ishael residences and bases to show their might And now history is repeating

[Blue] as we said, you must let it take it's course, the Eli-Jova have been given their dead lines by the andromedans and cassiopiens [see previous posts] and now they are making a one last dash and effort to have it their way From here on they will wreak havoc amongst your planet and subdue many a country, in onelast effort to destroy the weak and the poor and if they can't have it their way then no one can . Enough

Next post will be some DNA/chromosome stuff to answer some questions that arose from prev post.
