Rehan Zeb Khan wanted the tribal people to get their basic rights. He raised his voice in every forum for the rights of the Tribal people and against the FCR (FCR is the Frontier Crimes Regulations, which were a special set of laws of British India, and later Pakistan which were applicable to the Federally Administered Tribal Areas. They were enacted by the government in the nineteenth century and continued to remain in effect in Pakistan until 2018). Rehan also made a student's union for the service of FATA Students named FATA Students Forum Pakistan (now After FATA Merger it's changed to Tribal Youth Forum Pakistan). Rehan is the founder and chairman of this forum. He led all Tribal students and youths at many protests and gatherings regarding their basic legal and constitutional rights and participated in several key seminars within the country.

Now FCR has been completely eliminated from the tribal areas of Pakistan and FATA/FCR is no more. Their people are part of Khyber Pakhtun khwa. The political alliance, the elected representatives of FATA, the lawyers, the youth and different people raised their voices against FCR. But Rehan Zeb khan not only inspired few but influenced millions of Pakistanis with his fiercely diverse fight against FCR. Along with education, Rehan fought against FCR and raised his voice for the rights of tribal at every platform.

Rehan did not only keep the issue of FCR on social and electronic media, but he also ran an organized campaign among the local people against the draconian law. He faced so many challenges and difficulties during his struggle against FCR. Rehan was arrested two times by Islamabad Police along with his followers during a protest against FCR in front of the national assembly.

Rehan Zeb Khan Successful campaign against COVID19 (Corona Virus Pandemic):

Rehan Zeb Khan,
the unseen hero of
fight against the Covid-19 in Pakistan.

<https://bajaurtimes.com/en/2020/05/4481/>

They are the only few who are leading from the front in fight against the Covid-19 in the region since the issue of corona virus was emerged in the country in this second week of March 2020.

The 26 year old Rehan Zeb Khan, the chairman of Tribal Youth Forum Pakistan and founder president of Youth of Bajaur was among these committed persons who are playing great and tremendous role to keep the people safe and secure from the corona virus epidemic since the first day of emerging situation in Pakistan.

Mr. Zeb who is also the Global Volunteer at United Nations have used his leadership's skill in fight against the Covid-19 in rural areas specially in tribal district Bajaur like the region where most of people believe the disease joke and fun.

[Rehan Zeb had mobilized the youth for the prevention of corona virus in Pakistan at that time when there was no single corona positive cases detected in Pakistan]

The Youth leader, who had been living in Islamabad for last seven years had first organized scores of talented, active and committed youths to take part in the Covid-19 pandemic in the country through social media. He also launched awareness sessions against the Covid-19 on social media before arranging such gathering in several areas of the country along with his companions. He was belong to a poor family, but courage, spirit of serving humanity and leadership's skills have helped him to contribute his services in fight against the corona virus in his native district. Besides arranging hundreds of awareness sessions about the preventive measures against the Covid-19, Rehan also distributed thousands of face masks, gloves and others essential items donated by non-government organizations and well-off people among the residents.

The youth leader who said to be the first private person launched the initiative of distribution of food items among the needy families in the wake of corona virus lockdown in Bajaur said that he had awarded ' foods packages' to about eight thousands poor and needy families of the district since March 19 to June 17. Rehan launched the scheme after observing that scores of needy people were in great crisis due to lack of foods and resources and any of government, non-government organizations and people did not take efforts to help these vulnerable people. He mobilized scores of youth in different areas of the country and collected funds from well-off people and then started providing foods packages to the needy families.

His initiative had not only helped to provide foods to about eight thousands needy and poor families of the district, but also motivated hundreds of well-off people, government and non-government organizations to provide foods to the needy and deprived people of the district.

Meanwhile, the Government of Khyber PakhtunKhwa and several others governmental organizations have acknowledged the efforts and struggle of Rehan Zeb Khan in fight against the Covid-19 in the district. Chairman Tribal Youth Forum Pakistan:

Rehan Zeb Khan is the founder and current Chairman of the Tribal Youth Forum Pakistan-TYFp, the biggest network of tribal youth across Pakistan, which has been working for 9 years on Social awareness, Academic counselling, Education, resolving admission and scholarships related issues of the tribal students, FATA Reforms Implementation and rehabilitation etc. before 8 October 2018 it was FATA Students Forum Pak but after merging of FATA with khyber pakhtunKhwa the name of this forum changed to Tribal Youth Forum Pakistan during cabinet meeting Under Rehan Zeb in November, 2018. The aim of TYFp is to build the capacity of young people within the Tribal Areas to understand the nature of conflict, identifying their role and taking positive actions for bridging the gaps, focusing on attitude and behavior change for peace and conflict management.

In this forum, Rehan worked a lot to provide quality of education for the tribal people, empower the youth, the abolishing of FCR, Implementation and rehabilitation of the FATA Reforms. Rehan not only raised the issues of tribal people but he also raised the issue of Kashmir and Afghanistan as well.

(The Tribal Youth Forum is currently at the forefront of addressing the basic issues of The tribal people under Rehan's leadership.)

“Education for All”

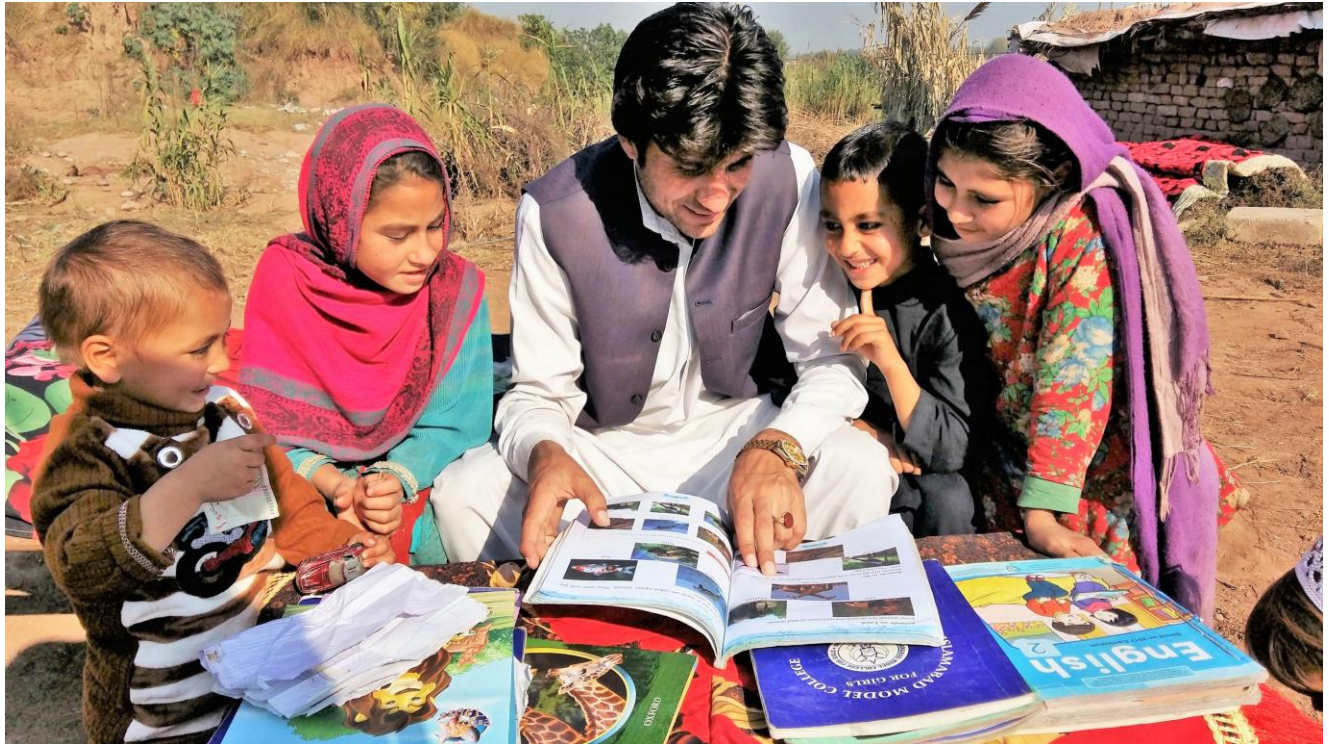

Another Mission of Rehan Zeb Khan.

Rehan Zeb Khan's vision is a country where all children have access to high quality education that unlocks their full potential and helps them realize their aspirations.

Pakistan faces a serious education emergency. 21% of school-aged children in Pakistan do not receive an education, a right guaranteed in the country's constitution, while 57% of class 5 children cannot read sentences or do two-digit division. Over half of all women in Pakistan are illiterate; in rural areas this increases to two-thirds of women.

The Education system of the newly merged Tribal Districts Ex-FATA is alarming. According to the Annual Status of Education Report (ASER-Pakistan 2016) published in August 2017, a survey was conducted in nine rural territories of Federally Administered Tribal Areas (Ex-Fata) which covered 5,390 households in 270 villages. It collected detailed information on 17,674 children (59 per cent boys, 41 per cent girls) between the ages of 3-16 years. Of these, around 14,847 children aged 5-16 years were tested for language and arithmetic competencies.

Due to this, people have gone away from education, either the school has been destroyed by militants or due to insufficient facility of education. As the population of Ex-FATA is 6 million according to census 2017 and an area of 27000 square kilometers, there is only one university which has recently been built. As the war on terror completely destroyed education in Ex-FATA.

The literacy rate is 22%, which is well below the nationwide rate of 56%, in these Male adult literacy rate in EX-Fata is 45% whereas the same for women is a mere 7.8%. So it is the alarming situation for the state. The militants started different propaganda that the education of female is haram, and use a religion as a tool that our religion does not allow us to give education to female. Due to which the illiterate people of EX- fata and also the militants stopped the girls from the schools or destroyed their schools. Same is the situation with male due to which the children go towards the wrong hand of militants and they did their brain wash.

Seeing all these situations, Rehan Zeb Khan raised his voice for Education in Tribal Areas. He started different awareness campaigns in every tribal district. He motivated young people in Pakhtun Khwa to promote education in the least developed tribal districts. For this purpose, he used social and electronic media for the brain wash of the tribal people and was aware of the importance of education. He met different political leaders and educational experts to discuss the method of solution to education in tribal districts. He arranged the first ever biggest conference in Tribal district Bajaur named " Parho Qbail, Barho Qbail Conference" in Govt post graduate college Khar Bajaur. The purpose of this conference was to inform people regarding education. He also arranged many awareness conferences at community bases. This effort of Rehan Zeb khan is still continuing and, due to Rehan's stunning efforts, education awareness is now increasing day by day in tribal districts.

(Rehan struggles for education in Tribal areas will remain forever)

Youth of Bajaur- YOB

In keeping with Bajaur's local issues (health, education, infrastructure and corruption), Rehan created the 'Youth of Bajaur'. YOB is the biggest platform of Bajaur youth which works for developed, prosperous and peaceful Bajaur. YOB's mission is to contribute to the improvement of the life of Bajaur Youth with a view to enhancing the effectiveness of youth and other actors in peace building, education, health and career counseling development initiatives. From the youth of Bajaur platform, Rehan contributed a lot to his local society. He worked on education issues, arranged many blood donation campaigns and tourism promotion activities. The recent #ExploreBajaurbeauty campaign was highly appreciated by the KP Government.

(The Youth of Bajaur has become very popular among the people of Bajaur in a short time.)

Rural Areas Water Association Pakistan (Founded by Rehan Zeb)

In addition to so many other inadequacies in our rural areas, water availability remains the major concern. The communities still have to manage their survival either on poor quality water or they have to travel miles to fetch a little quantity of water. Other than drinking water, sufficient availability for agriculture and livestock is also a matter of concern. In Pakistan, 42.5 million people have no access to clean and safe drinking water this count is more in Rural Areas of Pakistan and its shortage is proliferating quickly.

Seeing all these unending and intricately interwoven problems Rehan Zeb Khan has been founded RAWAP for addressal and resolution of water management challenge in rural areas.

A Public-supported, non-Profit organization set up under Section 42 of the Companies Act, 2017. Rural Areas Water Association Pakistan was established in 2017. It has earned a resonating reputation within no time for its qualified leadership and performance oriented approach.

The prime aim of RAWAP is social welfare through provision of the system of clean water to the rural areas. It is an organization which is committed to reduce the water woes of the rural areas and to make the lives easier for the inhabitants.

The Rural Areas Water Association recognizes the importance of water for the poor. Accessible domestic water supplies, even if shared by a large number of households, can make more and better-quality water available for family needs, reduce female drudgery and slash the incidence of debilitating water-borne diseases. In fact, studies have found that water supplies are often at the top of the list of what the rural poor ask for themselves. Many villages in the rural areas of Pakistan still lack even a communal well with a hand pump. There are some cases that well is installed but the hand pump has been broken for years, and people have returned to their original and often remote water sources. Inadequate access to domestic water is particularly difficult for women and girls.

(Last two year efforts of Rehan Zeb on Water sector is highly appreciated by government and private sector organizations.)

Rehan Zeb Khan's brilliant campaign against corruption and historical Dharna in district Bajaur, KPK.

Rehan Zeb Khan was considered an effective voice against corruption from day one, along with his social and political work, he has always raised his voice against corruption at the local and national level. According to him, he considered Imran Khan as his leader because he is against corruption. At the beginning of the year 2022, when corruption reached its peak in his native district Bajaur and there was an open demand for money from the youth for various jobs in Bajaur, he spoke to the Chief Minister of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa and the relevant authorities on different platforms, when Rehan Zeb did not get any adequate response and no satisfactory measures were taken to prevent corruption, he announced a dharna along with hundreds of youths in Bajaur on 9 June 2022 at front of Deputy commissioner office Bajaur. This was the first sit-in in the history of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa province against corruption. This dharna, which lasted for 8 days, was the first and last dharna in the history of Bajaur too which continued for so many days. During the sit-in, Rehan Zeb Khan fearlessly spoke against the people involved in corruption and their facilitators. Huge pressure was put on Rehan Zeb and his colleagues to end the protest but he persisted, till here the Chief Minister of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa issued a warrant to arrest Rehan Zeb under 3 MPO, but Rehan stood on his ground without any fear. After 8 days, Rehan Zeb Khan ended the sit-in with the guarantee of local Jirga (reconciliation council) and political leaders, but the positive effects of his dharna are still present in Bajaur. After his historic sit-in, anti-corruption and NAB teams conducted raids in Bajaur and major corruption scandals were also revealed in the education, health and infrastructure departments.

Even today, Rehan Zeb Khan is working with hundreds of youths for the establishment of a corruption-free society. At the local level, Rehan Zeb Khan is considered a hero in the fight against corruption.
