I have received numerous responses to my Ask Me Anything question. Certain questions can be answered quickly, while others require an entire blog post of their own.

Here are some of the possible answers that don't require their own blog:

Nicolas asked: What is the story behind the logo for your blog?

There is no story that can be told. I wanted to design a logo that would be simple monogram of my initials but I couldn't make the K & Q look good together. I hired a Fiverr freelancer to create it.

Thelma asked: What is your hope for the future?

It's not much. The world is heading to hell, mortgages are rising, and the world is becoming more hotter. We are running out of resources because of the rising population.

These are the reasons my wife and me decided to adopt instead of having biological children. I worry about how the children of the future are going to handle the next generation.

Joel asked: Joel, I don't see much videogame discussion in your posts. Are you not interested? what about your kids?

I'm not really keen on gaming as I don't have the time. I play Sudoku occasionally and Among Us on my mobile but that's about it. I do own an Xbox however, I can't remember the last time I turned it on.

I play Minecraft with my oldest son, but it's rare as I don't get enough time to play these days.

Joel also asked what hat you would wear for the rest of your life?

I don't really like caps; they don't fit me (I have a huge head). minecraft-servers.xyz I'm guessing it's my helmet for my motorbike, which means I'd be riding my bike all the time.

Is this a ploy to cheat?

Dusan asked how do you manage your responsibilities between work, family, and hobbies like Fosstodon? Are you organized or more chaotic and figure things out on the on the spot?

On a related note, what kind of music do you listen to?

I'm a very organised person. I'm also one of those people who doesn't like to let things hang around. I like to get things done. I jump in and get started. If I make a mistake, I can always go back and correct them.

Ultimately though, I have very little time to myself. Whatever time I do have, I make sure to spend it away from computers entirely - usually something outside, like walking the dogs or riding my motorbikes. It is essential to take time to unwind.

Music is my favorite genre. Classic rock like Lynyrd Skynyrd and Toto, Rolling Stones and AC/DC. Some pop, some indie and everything else between. I don't have a preference for any single category; that's doing music a disservice I think. If I like a song I like it. Whatever the genre.

Here are some of the songs that I heard while I was writing this post.

- Rebel Rebel - Davie Bowie - Funeral - Lukas Graham

Ms. Jackson Outkast

Elvis Costello - Pump It Up

- Minor Thing - Red Hot Chili Peppers

Together The Raconteurs

Sonnet - The Verve

Jackie Wilson - Reet Petite

- Valerie - The Zutons

- Massacre of El Kuroke - The Dead South

- Kiss the Prince
