

PPL S6 Before Final - Recap

The event coming to an end as we closer in the final,in this semi final we got 8 team fighting for the champion title.Below there we gonna take a look at each team and how they prepare for final

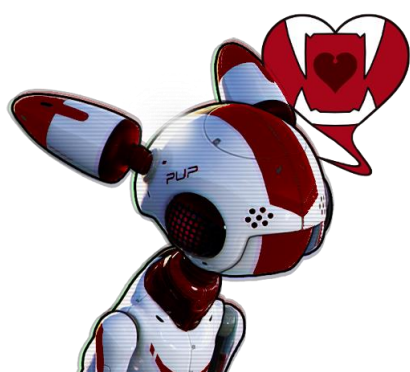

- Disposable Heros

Disposable Heros can't wait for the final,they have been working hard to ready for the championship,eager for a chance to fight Midnight again.It's a big challenge,but they are there to have fun and give a good show

- Damage Inc

Damage Inc keep to routine,practice at their usual time and set up some scrim,they are not letting the pressure get them.DI will play,they will do whatever they can and their captain see no reason why they should not win.All they need is a series of flawless games against the best team in the league.DI didn't have that so far but it's about time

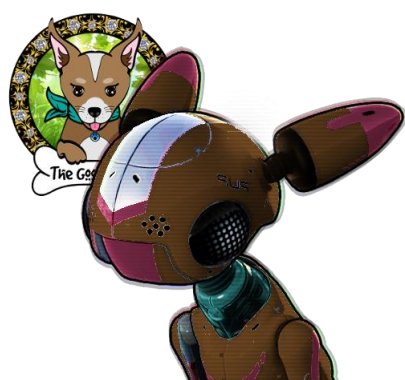

- Love Bytes

Love Bytes are refining new strategies to the very last day,always improving where they can't.They are ready to put it to the final test this season

- Team POOF

After some scrim with Midnight Team POOF did not feel too good about themself but they still hope for the best.We'll see how they fare in the competition

- Solarion Fan Club

The good boys took a break after the last game in the season and steamrolling in PvP against random to boost their morale since they have a hard time finding scrims. They are all in a good mood and they don't worry about the final too much. They gonna give a good fight, aiming for the top but at the same time not feeling crushed if they didn't made it

- S.E.E.S

With magister disappearing with no trait, team SEES struggle for fill the void, however with the burn out from the game, team SEES kinda gave up and stop caring for the championship

- Zeus Quad

Zeus Quad are playing the best Atlas game since their origin and mostly scrimming for the final. They feel positive

- Midnight

Midnight have been pretty inactive for the weeks leading up to the tournament, they don't find that many scrim but did a good amount of theory crafting, which consisted of talking about what they thought was good, what they wanted to played and ZQ's threat since they consider ZQ to be their biggest threat. Blatm made an draft flowchart
