

Botox Injections for Sweat Glands in Saudi Arabia

Botulinum toxin (Botox) injections is a treatment that assists with controlling the side effects of serious underarm perspiring when different medicines have not been fruitful. Botox Injections for Sweat Glands in Saudi Arabia is infused into the skin and works by briefly obstructing the substance signals from the nerves that invigorate the perspiration organs.

Botox Injections for Sweat Glands in Saudi Arabia

Botox Injections for Sweat Glands in Saudi Arabia

- Hyperhidrosis is a medical condition characterized by excessive sweating beyond what is necessary for regulating body temperature. It can affect various parts of the body, including the palms, feet, underarms, and face.
- Botox, short for Botulinum toxin, is a neurotoxin that temporarily paralyzes muscles and glands. When injected into sweat glands, it blocks the release of a neurotransmitter called acetylcholine, which stimulates sweat production.

Botox Injections for Sweat Glands in Saudi Arabia

- The procedure involves a series of tiny injections directly into the targeted sweat glands. It's a relatively quick and minimally invasive process that can be performed in a clinic. Patients may experience minor discomfort during the injections, but it's generally well-tolerated.
- During the initial consultation, the practitioner will assess the patient's condition and discuss their goals. The treatment plan is then customized to address the specific areas of concern, ensuring a tailored approach to each patient's needs.

Contact us

- Address: 6685 Wadi Alzarqa Street, An Nada, 3533, Riyadh 13317, Saudi Arabia
- Phone: +966553978519
- Website: Royalclinicsaudia.com