We ship worldwide, so you can shop wherever you are

Have you ever been frustrated because some websites don't offer worldwide delivery options? Do you occasionally experience lengthy delivery times because customs formalities take so long? PriParcel's Netherlands delivery address eliminates these problems.

Do you love shopping outside Europe if you live in Europe?

In addition to the Netherlands, PriParcel has many European customers from countries other than the Netherlands that have their products delivered to our Dutch address. Based on their experience, the Netherlands clears customs much quicker than Belgian or Swedish authorities. Therefore they receive their products much faster.

Sometimes it can even be less expensive to have products delivered in the Netherlands. The Netherlands isn't without reason a popular transit country for many companies.

Living outside of Europe, do you like shopping in Europe?

With its many countries and cultures, Europe has a lot to offer. Thus, online shopping in European webshops is also attractive to many people living outside of Europe. For example, PriParcel has many Chinese and American customers who have orders delivered to our delivery address.

Why? These are the two most important reasons:

Many European webshops only deliver in Europe

Shipping costs are greatly reduced!

All European orders should be delivered to the Netherlands because it is much cheaper.

Consolidate your packages into a single shipment and have it delivered to your address outside Europe. Thus, you only have to pay intercontinental shipping costs once!ship-us-to-uk

Our shipping rates are the best and our turnaround time is the fastest in the industry! We will have your package in your account within one hour of it arriving at our warehouse!

SHOPPING & SHIPPING INDIA to Worldwide with Shoppre!

We extend this same experience with Shoppre as the best package forwarding company for international shipping. Hence Shop and Ship!

What exactly is our package forwarding service?

The fact that almost all Indian shopping sites, such as Myntra, Flipkart, Amazon India etc. do not offer international shipping makes shopping from India the least appealing option for people not residing in India. The way we help them is that we receive their packages from Indian online merchants at our warehouse in Bangalore, and then send them on to the customer's destination overseas; with services and benefits to go along with it!

How does package forwarding work in Shoppre?

The Shop & Ship service begins when the customer enrolls in a virtual Indian shipping address with Shoppre. We provide our customers with a Personal Locker with 20 days free storage so they can accumulate their purchases. Their packages are forwarded to them abroad by us.

Finding it difficult to shop on stores?

Your Personal Shopper service will help you get your favorite Indian goodies home, no matter what it takes. From managing Indian credentials for shipping documentations, to making payments for you. Assisted Purchase is a tailored-made service assisting you with all shopping related tasks.

Shoppre is splitting the differences by offering best international package forwarding services from India, which are not generally available on Indian websites, even on the most popular ones. So curious buyers all over the world can virtually shop around in India relieved - international shipping from India is no longer challenging!
