

Houseguests

(S4)

Ember Spade (21) From Undisclosed - Ember is an average girl who wants to be seen as nice and approachable, but can get irritated quite easily. You have to know when to show your emotions at the right time in this game.

Franz Clement (47) From Bordeaux, France - Franz is a well known musician in the synthwave genre. Although there is some controversy surrounding his music and accusations of satanism. Can the other houseguests look past his scary demeanor and see an admirable gentleman?

Freanch Freis (19) From Strasbourg, France - Ms. Freis is 6'5 and has many talents. Singing and Volleyball proficiency to name a few. She wants to win the game to be an inspiration to women, prove herself to her family, and to help homeless people in her hometown. How sweet...

Julien Martini (25) From Arligton, Texas - Julien is a young football player who tries his best at everything, but usually fails. If he wants the cash prize he better hope to succeed this time of all.

Kyoko Kuro (18) From Kyoto, Japan - Kyoko is the first Japanese contestant on Booked To Stay. She's also a goth lolita Otaku. Can she find a place in this game, or will she fizzle out early on?

Lars Anderson (21) From Mt. Lebanon, Pennsylvania - Lars intends to prove that he can be a survivor, even though this isn't actually Survivor. This is a Big Brother spinoff, and you must know how to navigate that game to be good at this one.

Shyla Kehlani (25) From Honolulu, Hawaii - As the first Hawaii contestant, Shyla has mastered the Hula dance to perfection. But dancing skills rarely make up for social, strategic, and competition skills. Maybe her Hula dancing experience can give her an endurance advantage?

Tim Jenners (18) From Dallas, Texas - Tim is a young college student from Texas. He graduated early..... hopefully he doesn't leave the game early.

Returnees

Belle Jonas (30) From Memphis, Tennessee - The daring girl is back. And with a vengeance! After being backdoored by Ryan in season 3, Belle wants to win this time, no ifs ands or buts about it!

Blaze Bomb (29) From Undisclosed - Our very first winner is back. Mr. Bomb himself! After winning the half million dollar prize, Blaze wants to add more money to his collection to aid in his cases. Little does this detective know, an old enemy is back to put a wrench in his plans.

Jamie Hidalgo (46) From Albuquerque, New Mexico - The father of three is back. After accidentally being evicted on his half-sibling's HoH in season 2, Jamie will do whatever it takes this time to win the prize money. Even if it means siding with unlikely allies.

Lynn Liy (31) From Undisclosed - The troublesome young girl is back. After the hectic events of season 1 and the outing of her past, Lynn wants nothing more than to win the game and redeem herself. This time she's not afraid to take anyone down who gets in her way, not even a past winner.

Miguel Santello (31) From Gallup, New Mexico - The unsuspecting instigator of his own elimination is back. Miguel messed up in season 2 by getting out his half-sibling. He wants to rewrite his destiny this time around, but the past always catches up to us and some people can't let go of past mistakes.

Ryan O'Neil (52) From Columbia, Tennessee - The football manager with a mean streak is back. In season 3 Ryan made a lot of enemies and backstabbed many houseguests. He was evicted at the second double eviction after targeting Belle the entire game. Will he face a similar instance of karma again this time?
