Satanism:

Satanism is the belief that the self is “god”, using the symbols of demonic beings as a means of empowering themselves and overcoming mental, emotional, physical and even energetic obstacles. Most modern satanic groups are centered on “anti-Christianity” through means of blatant and open gas lighting.

Not to be confused or mistaken for Luciferianism or the Cult of Moloch. Luciferianism follows the 72 Goetic demonic figureheads as a means of breaking free from the mortal state of consciousness and ascend into a state of godhood. They invoke and evoke the energy of a Goetic demonic being to communicate and create contracts to begin their work with said being. The modern Goetia (not specifically the entirety of Luciferianism) is a means of attempting Solomon’s Goetic rites through different methods.

The Cult of Moloch is a group of individuals involved with worshipping the Canaanite god Moloch. Moloch is the Canaanite god associated with child sacrifice, depicted as having the head of a bull and the body of man.

An interesting thing to note is that in Stargate SG-1 episode “Sacrifices”, an extraterrestrial called Goa’uld posed as Moloch and was the main antagonist.

This is one of the groups of individuals involved with child sacrificing and Epstein Island.

Demonolatry:

To put it simply, Demonolatry is the worship of demonic beings as deities.

Astrology:

Astrology is the study of the influence of stars and planets on human lives.

Numerology:

Numerology is the branch of knowledge that deals with the occult significance of numbers.

Witchcraft:

Witchcraft as a non-religious craft is also called traditional witchcraft. In these forms of witchcraft no deities are worshipped. However, ancestors, (natural) spirits, demons or other entities do play a role in the practice of the traditional witch.

Christianity:

Christianity is the religion based on the person and teachings of Jesus of Nazareth, or its beliefs and practices.

Judaism:

Judaism is characterized by a belief in one transcendent God who revealed himself to Abraham, Moses, and the Hebrew prophets and by a religious life in accordance with Scriptures and rabbinic traditions. Judaism is the complex phenomenon of a total way of life for the Jewish people, comprising theology, law, and innumerable cultural traditions.

Gnosticism:

Gnosticism is a prominent movement of the 2nd-century Christian Church, partly of pre-Christian origin. Gnostic doctrine taught that the world was created and ruled by the demiurge, and that Christ was an emissary of the supreme divine being, esoteric knowledge (gnosis) of whom enabled the redemption of the human spirit.

Kabbalah:

Kabbalah is an ancient spiritual wisdom that empowers us to improve our lives, discover our purpose, and achieve the lasting fulfillment we are meant to receive. We exist to empower humanity to achieve true fulfillment and encourage curiosity & openness.

Enochiana:

Enochian is an occult language or languages, claimed to be angelic, recorded in the private journals of John Dee and his colleague Edward Kelley in late 16th-century England. Kelley was a spirit medium who worked with Dee in his magical investigations. The men claimed that the language was revealed to them by the Enochian angels. The language is integral to the practice of Enochian magic. Enochian is analogous to other magickal systems in that it contains the necessary components for a magickal system. Enochian contains a pantheon of entities, both male and female, light and dark. Enochian also contains methods of working with the elements, the planets, as well as astrological magick.

Divination:

Divination is the practice of seeking knowledge of the future or the unknown by supernatural means.

Alchemy:

Alchemy is the medieval forerunner of chemistry, based on the supposed transformation of matter. It was concerned particularly with attempts to convert base metals into gold or to find a universal elixir.

Occultism is supernatural, mystical, or magical beliefs, practices, or phenomena.

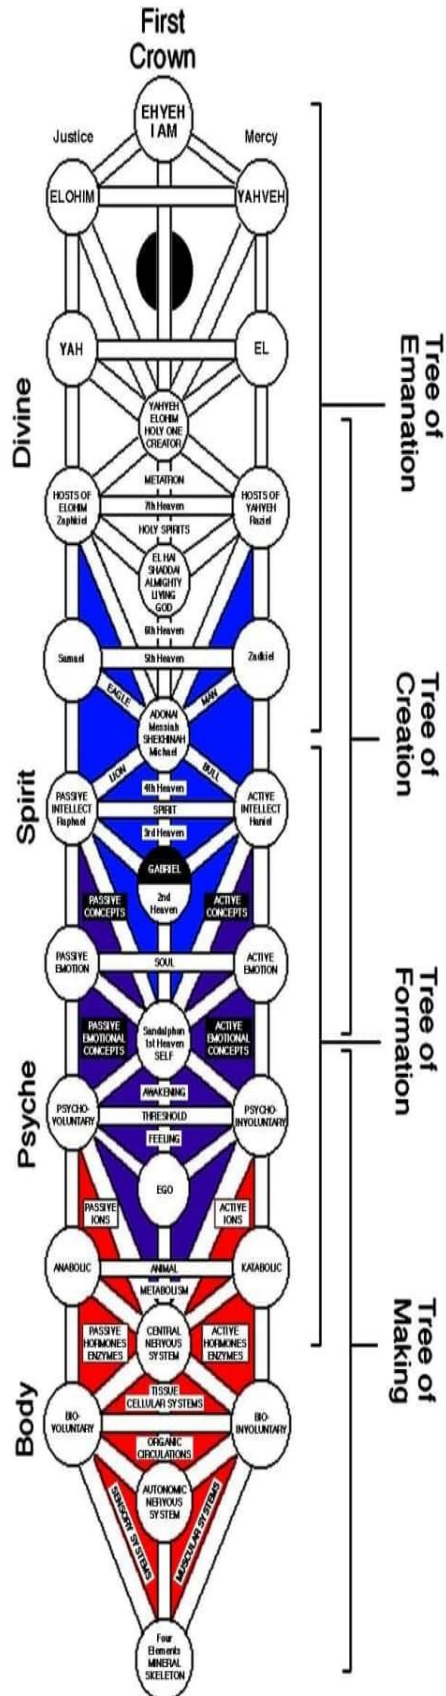

Esoterism:

Esoterism is the state or quality of being esoteric — obscure and only understood or intended to be understood by a small number of people with special (and perhaps secret) knowledge. Esoterism is more commonly called esotericism. Another name for it is esotery.

7 GATES ON THE KABBALAH TREE OF LIFE ALIGNED WITH THE CHAKRA'S

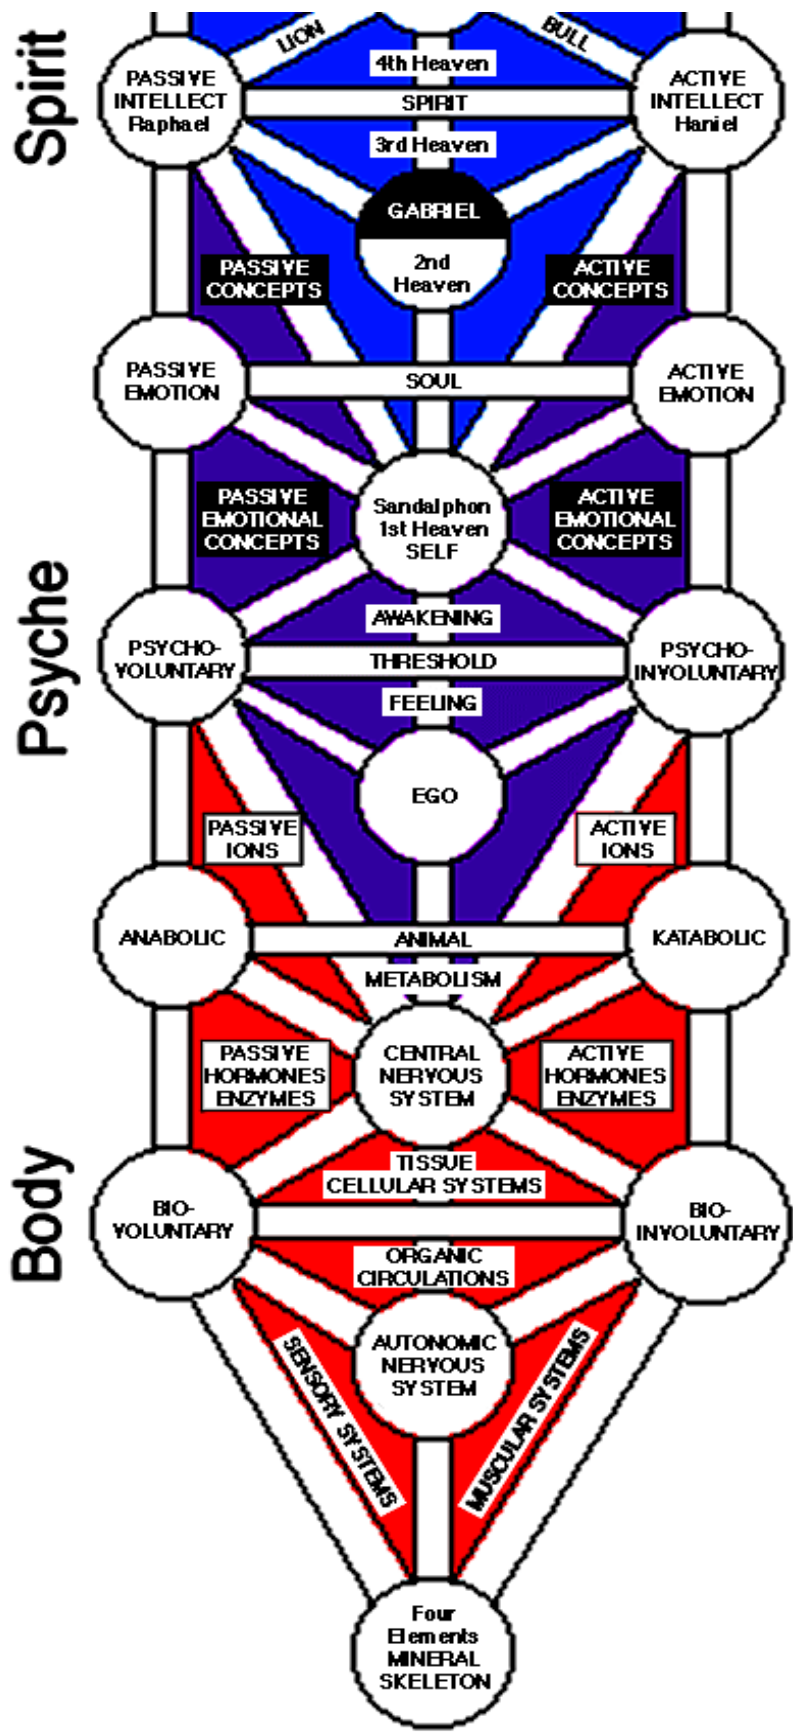

This is possibly a tree of the dimensions.

Notice how the Elohim(The Seeders) are second to top? As stated before, the Seeders are always one dimension below Source, so having First Crown as “I Am” with the Elohim below it implies that First Crown is one with Source.

With this in mind, it is also entirely possible that these are conscious states of being. It starts with the unconscious reaction and automatic nervous responses rising up to complete consciousness.

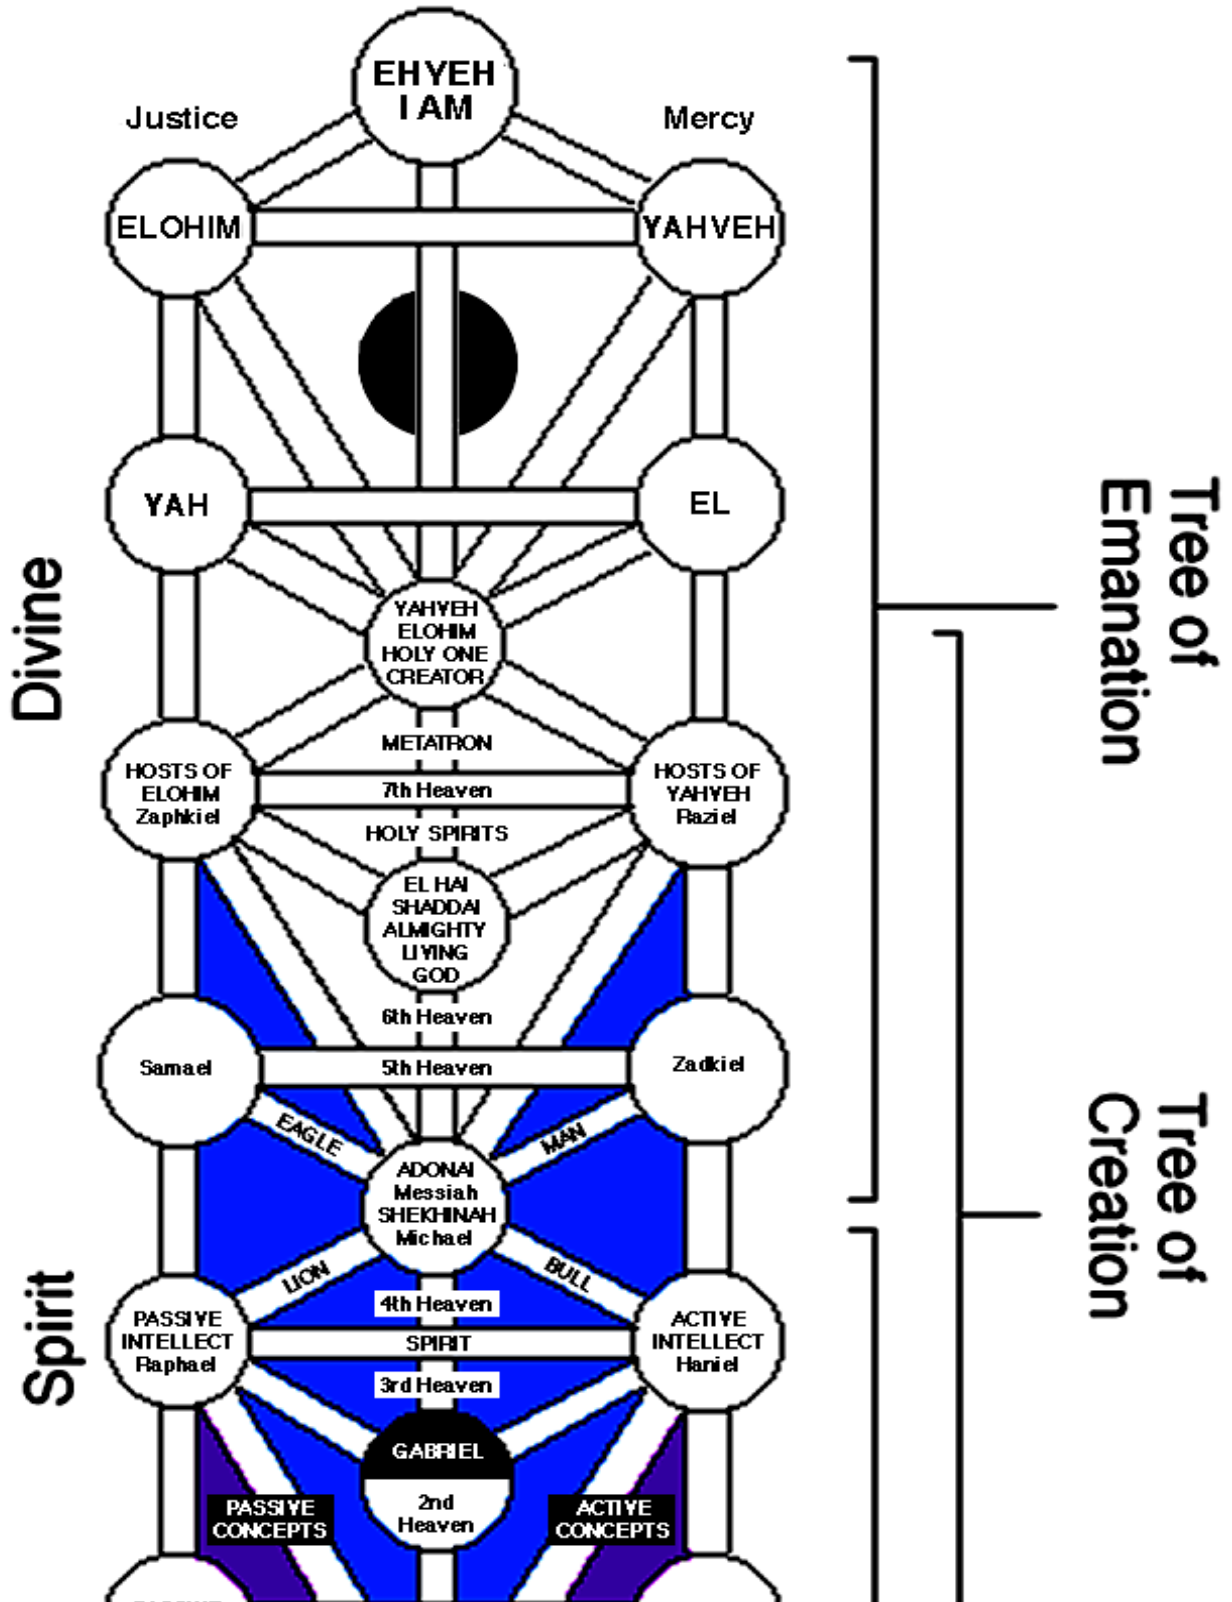

Yes I know that both charts are hard to read. I will add a clearer image in the next pages.

Making

First Crown

Keter(Kether) = Crown

Keter (also spelled Kether) is the highest and most encompassing Sefirah. As a crown is on top of the head and encompasses it, so Kether is on top of all the Sefirot and encompasses them all.

Daat = Knowledge

Daat is used to describe a person whose knowledge of God is at the highest, bonding him firmly to the Divine

Hokhmah(Chokmâh) = Wisdom

Hokhmah is the primary (“beginning”) force in the creative process

Binah = Understanding

Binah is the primary feminine power on the tree, associated with Aima Elohim the Divine Mother, and its symbols include the sea and the womb.

Hesed(Chesed) = Loving Kindness

Hesed represents the generous, benevolent (masculine) side of God.

Gevurah(Geburah)/Din = Strength/Justice

Gevurah is associated in the soul with the power to restrain one’s innate urge to bestow goodness upon others, when the recipient of that good is judged to be unworthy and liable to misuse it. As the force which measures and assesses the worthiness of Creation, Gevurah is also referred to in Kabbalah as midat hadin (“the attribute of judgment”).

Tiferet(Tifarah) = Glory

Tiferet is associated in the soul with the power to reconcile the conflicting inclinations of Chesed and Gevurah so as to allow for focused compassion, thus accounting for its designation in Kabbalah as midat harachamim (“the attribute of mercy”).

Nezah/Nesah(Netzach) = Eternity

According to Kabbalah, the powers of prophecy and divine inspiration derive from the Sefirot(Sefirot/Sephirot) of Netzach and Hod — for they actually receive the effusion of G-dly light. Yesod Just as the Sefirah(Sefirot/Sephirot) of Tiferet harmonizes and balances Chesed and Gevurah, so too, Yesod harmonized and balances Netzach and Hod.

Hod = Majesty

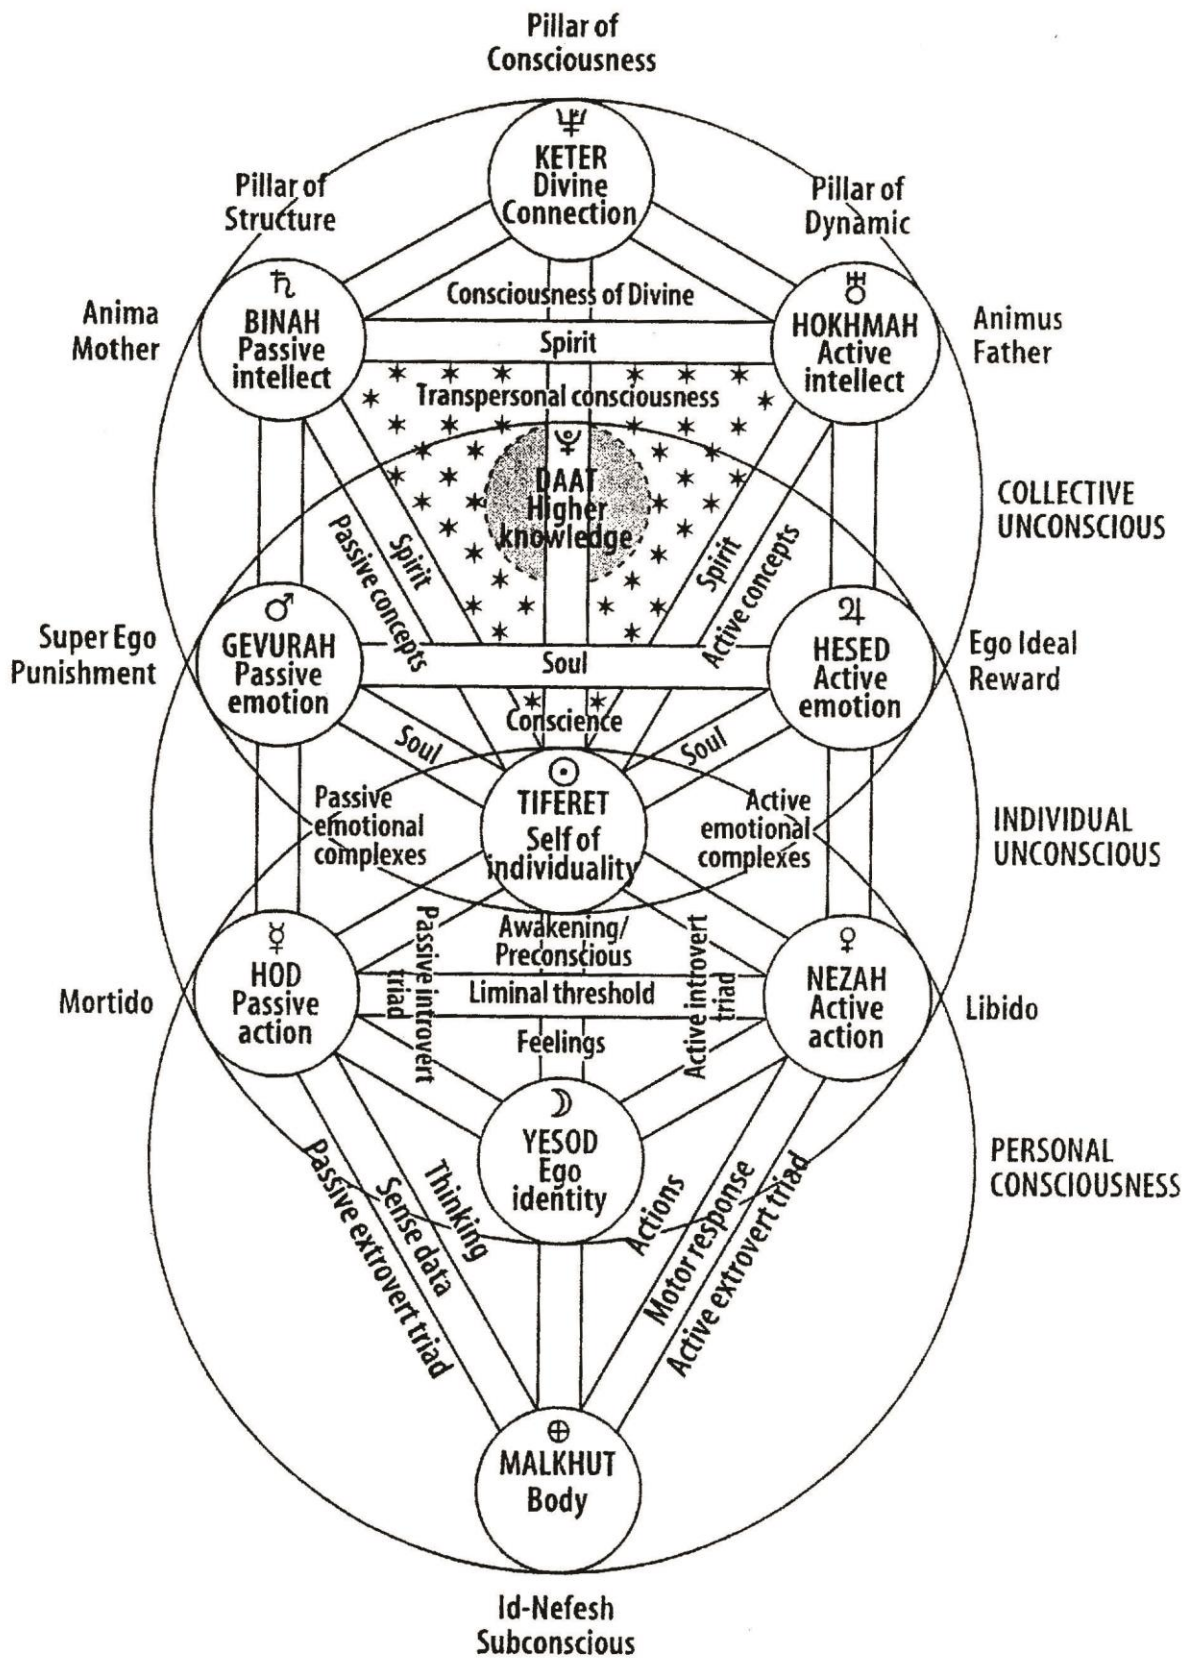

Hod is the Kabbalistic Sephirah(Sefirot/Sephirot) associated with the structures and forms that cohere and persist the personality that we depict as the Fulcrum of Lunar Consciousness in Yesod. At the level of the Astral Plane, it is the receptive and enjoining Yin (Form) aspect to the threads of movement and intent of Netzach, the Yang (Force) aspect.

Yesod = Foundation

According to the Kabbalah, Yesod is the foundation upon which God has built the world. It also serves as a transmitter between the Sephirot above, and the reality below. The light of the upper Sephirot gather in Yesod and are channeled to Malkuth below. In this manner, Yesod is associated with the sexual organs.

Malkhut/Malkuth = Kingdom

The word Malkuth means “Kingdom” and the Sephirah is the culmination of a process of emanation whereby the creative power of the Godhead is progressively structured and defined as it moves down the Tree and arrives in a completed form in Malkuth. Malkuth is the sphere of matter, substance, the real, physical world.
