[spoiler=Meet And Fuck]Meet And Fuck Games

(Intro)

Locations?

The North Pole

Home to Santa, elves, reindeer, and Ms. Claus, this arctic wonderland is the equivalent of a 7 star winter resort. Assuming your on the nice list, that is.

Hawaiian Resort

A lovely hotel, nested right on the beach. The place is bout with semi-exotic dishes, friendly locals, and women in bikini's.

Inn

You don't actually have a room here, but you seem to have slept here anyways. And the innkeeper wants payment, same as any other customer. If your smooth, you can pay her with something other than money.

Drop In

Leading Man

Heroine

Age and Gender

Your gender automatically changes to male if leading man, and female if heroine. A drop in's gender is same as previous jump.

You can choose any age from 15 to 30. If you wish, you can pay 50 CP to choose any age or gender.

PERKS

General

0 - Hollywood Casting

In most movies, the main character is either handsome or beautiful, gender depending. Further more, if there's an ugly person, they're in the background, and only for a moment. Now, you too are Hollywood Hot. All your best features are magnified, and your visual flaws are lessened, or outright erased.

0 - All Your Own Stunts

In the movies, you often see crazy and amazing things. Some of them are computer generated, but most are simply trained professionals doing their job. Every now and then, you get an actor who does it themselves. Thats you, in this case. Your penis needs no stunt double, because you know exactly what your doing.

Drop In

100 - Faceless Protagonist

In a world where the second head is more important than the first, yours is hard to remember. A person may recognize you on sight, but utterly fail to describe you afterwards, or recognize a picture of you. This power can be toggled at will.

300 - Heads Up Display

The HUD is one of the more common things to have in a video game. This HUD doesn't list things like your health and ammunition, but things like how close you are to getting laid, a woman's arousal level, how close you are to being caught peeping, and how close she is to having an orgasm. It can even list the contents of your pockets. Though unless you have truly massive number of pockets, it may just be simpler to reach in and check.

600 - No Failure Penalty

When in the tutorial level of a game, it is often impossible to fail. And even if you do, you will be allowed to repeat the level as many times as it takes for you to get it right. If you want them to, you can cause a person to completely forget the fact that they were talking to you, or just to blank out the last minute of conversation for when you accidentally say something you think will get you slapped. You can't erase more than half an hour of conversation, but you can blur out the rest to make them forget it was you they were speaking to. But lets be honest, if you haven't gotten laid after half an hour of flirting in this world, you're doing something very wrong.

100-Casual Conversation

The opening of a conversation is often considered to be the hardest part. You either have to choose between talking about the weather, or cheesy pickup lines. Well, thats not really the point. No matter how bad the conversation starter or pickup line, a conversation will occur. There are exceptions that will basically boil down to 'I'm busy, lets talk later', but before they shoo you away, they will drop a hint about how to actually talk to them, ranging from bringing their boss a donut to what time they get off work.

300-Replay Value

Once you've beaten a video game, what point is there to play it a second time? Perhaps there was one cutscene you enjoyed watching, or a humorous moment where you chose the option to pie someone in the face. Regardless, you may now easily convince people to do something a second, third, fourth, etc all time, so long as you are first successful in convincing them to do so in the first place.

600 - Endless Stamina

Lesser men speak of this in whispers, and women will search for it in secret. Scientists create twisted formulas, and virgins are sacrificed. As it turns out, you had it all along. Whether its a dozen women in the bedroom, or three marathons in a row, your body can and will keep going. You can cum once every five minutes for a year straight if you want to, and your body will keep going. Its unlikely you could find a partner capable of keeping up with you though.

100 - Level Requirement

A level requirement is a limit meant to prevent an ordinary player from getting in over their head. In your case, you are beautiful to the point where ordinary people will not wish to engage in casual conversation, for fear of tripping over their own tongue, and having you see them as a fool. This power can be toggled at will.

300 - Fetch Quest

A fetch quest can be best described at a request for you to retrieve an item, and bring to to the request giver. However, that is not entirely what is going on here. What is happening, it that the reward is talking to you, and the item that must be fetched is the payment to do so. Once per week, you may designate an item for your fetch quest, and the eyes of anyone attempting to speak to you will slide past you, unless they happen to have the item on hand. For example, you could speed, jaywalk, and shoplift, and unless the cop had your item on hand, they would simply ignore you. Sadly, you may not be excessively specific with the item. For example, 'My car keys' would become 'car keys', which while amusing, is not very effective.

600 - Minigame

A mini game is a game within a game. In order to speak with you even after the effects of Fetch Quest, they must pass a quick test before actually talking to you. This task cannot be exceedingly complex, taking at most five minutes. For example, you could ask them five questions about old cars, and demand that they get them all right, with only three wrong answers. If you were at the fair, you could make them compete in a carnival attraction. So and so forth. Failure to complete the mini game will result in them requiring a second item in order to speak to you again, assuming you took Fetch Quest, that is.

ITEMS

50 - Tropical Airplane Ticket

An airplane ticket that will grant you a free airplane ride to a tropical resort. Include reservations for a week, all expenses paid, and a return flight. Books two seats. Usable once per year. As a final bonus, showing them to your boss (assuming you have a job) will get you a paid vacation.

100 - The Naughty List

A rather in depth list of all the women in the area. Lists each and every kink they possess, as well as their address and contact information. Is slightly hard to read under the large 'naughty' stamped over each name.

200 - Not!Viagra

A large glass bottle with a pink liquid inside. Drinking said liquid will leave you heavily aroused, and ready to go for another round, no matter how tired you were before. The bottle is large enough for four mouthfuls, and each dose is worth two hours. Automatically refills itself every 48 hours.

400 - Sex Dungeon

An addition to any home you have, be it one from your backstory or one that follows you between jumps. A metal door can be found in your basement, leading to a second sub floor that is a sex dungeon, with just about every kind of sex toy you can think of. Comes with one free Cameo Companion as a Dom or Sub. They are not capable of leaving the grounds of the whichever building the dungeon is attached to, unless you choose them as a companion in their home verse.

Leading Man

50 - Hot Tub

A simple ordinary hot tub. Will be present somewhere in your house, and in all future jumps. For some reason, any woman who gets into it will take their bathing suit off. However, they will still be surprised about being seen naked if you get in with them.

100 - Cool Car

A classic car in excellent condition. Has a spacious backseat, for having sex inside of it. The car is neither invulnerable nor self repairing, but any parts and tools necessary to fix it will appear in your warehouse, and disappear when you are finished.

200 - Man Card

Absolute proof of your manliness. Even if you are a woman. If you boast about any sort of manly activity, showing this card off will convince the listeners of the absolute truth of the boasts. Also doubles as a pseudo-credit card, only usable to buy beer or other forms of alcohol.

400 - The Nightclub

A moderately successful nightclub. Left alone, it won't get much better than 'decent' and it won't ever cost you money, but it won't always earn you a profit either. The more of a hand you have in its management, the more popular it will be. Comes with one free Cameo Companion to manage it. They are not capable of leaving the grounds of the nightclub, unless you choose them as a companion in their home verse.

50 - Alternative Music List

A CD with ten songs on it. Listening to all ten songs will leave the listener in a hypnotic trance, able to receive a simple command. Only one command may be given at a time, but the track can be played without limit. Commands follow 'conventional' rules of hypnotism, which say that a person cannot be forced into doing something they do not want to do. However, this can be avoided by giving commands in roundabout ways.

100 - Superb Mushroom Item Block

A cube made of yellow brick, which hovers approximately 5 feet off the ground. Striking it will cause a mushroom to grow on top. Said mushroom that heavily resembles something from the mario series. Eating said mushroom will cause the body of a woman to grow a truly ridiculously sized breasts and ass, and the body of a man to spontaneously gain massive amounts of muscle mass, six pack abs, and massive penis growth. In both cases, height often increases by about a foot. Effects last 12 hours per mushroom, but multiple mushrooms can be consumed. Generates two mushrooms per day.

200 - Magic Book

A magical book, listing many words of power. Combining these words in sets of two will transform you or an intended target into a alternative form. Examples include four arms, four legs, four breasts, or two dicks. Even more examples include amazonian women, a minotaur, and well as angels and devils. Will occasionally short out and leave you in sexy cosplay outfits. Effects cancel after 24 hours, or casting a second spell on the target.

400 - Spooky Mansion

A spooky mansion hidden away in the woods. It isn't really livable for more than a handful of people despite its size, because its slightly run down and dusty as all get out . Comes with a nice garden in the back, and a four foot tall hedge maze. You may also select one free Cameo Companion as a maid, butler, or tentacle monster in disguise. They are not capable of leaving the grounds of the mansion, unless you choose them as a companion in their home verse.

COMPANIONS

Cameo Companion - 100 each

Is that Tsunade Senju, the fifth Hokage over there? Having sex with a horse? And over there, is Samus giving Santa a blow job? Princess Peach sleeping with Bowser? The Dragonborn fucking a bunch of Orcs? Power Girl having sex in an alleyway?

With this, you may designate a single individual to make an appearance in your future jumps. They will have vague memories of prior interactions with you, and will have the a lifestyle similar to their canon self. That said, they will have little to no effect on the actual plot, and you cannot take them as an actual companion. They do not take up a companion slot.

Love Is In The Air - 200 each

Similar to Cameo Companion, but you may take them as an actual companion. Be warned though, there are multiple version of certain characters, so if you're not careful, you may end up with an utterly ordinary version of them.

The Party Can Start Now - 300 each, first free

Ah, your eight companions are here! They seem quite happy to get a chance to kick back and relax. If you're lucky, you'll get lucky with them. Each Companion may have an origin, the respective free perk, one perk, and one item. However, due to budget constraints, they may only pick the most expensive option if it belongs to their Origin.

DRAWBACKS - No limit

0 - Continuity

No, no, none of that. All the events of this world are happening, unless you decide otherwise. Mind you, there are occasionally multiple versions of the same person.

100 - Graphics Card

A device that affects the quality of images on your device. Specifically, albeit metaphorically, yours is out of date, and also out of stock. Ugly people are making a comeback this year, regardless of what Hollywood Casting has to say.

100 - Single Core Processor

A single core processor can only complete one task at a time. Sadly, this is a euphemism for your sex life. While you can still get laid, anything involving three or more people is forbidden to you.

100 - Compatibility Error

A problem created by using a program not meant for use by this device. Being technically correct is the best kind of correct, you will often find yourself technically wrong. If quizzed on something, you might answer based on a newer or older version. Mostly right, but not entirely.

200 - Monitoring Program

A program meant to monitor your activity, and filter out any unwholesome findings. While there are workarounds, you will be unable to directly view nudity. This will not stop you from getting laid, but will definitely affect your enjoyment of it.

200 - Connection Error

A term used to describe a failure in communication between two parties. For example, you forgot to tell the girl you met in the bar last night that you had a girlfriend. And you forgot to tell your girlfriend you were going to a bar. Now you've been slapped twice. And dumped.

200 - Competitor

A company, group, or individual who you are locked in a fight with, though this need not be an actual fight. It could be a cold war type deal where you try to steal each others secrets, and then smile and shake hands. Regardless, whenever you try to get laid, a rival shall appear and try to steal your new friend away from you. He/she is no more skilled than you, but shows up, EVERY. DAMN. TIME.

300 - Power Loss

Running out of power in the middle of something important is never good. And its even worse when that thing is sex. Better get good with your tongue, because you can't seem to stay hard.

300 - Factory Reset

A erasure of information that removes all stored data and information, back to its original settings. Any and all non-native perks and powers, with the exception of the body mod, are now disabled, and shall be returned to you at the end of the jump.

Notes.

Cameo Companion is any one character present in a MNF game. Rather than importing them as a proper companion, they just seem to show up every now and then.

You may upgrade a Cameo Companion into a normal companion, while still retaining their Cameo status, by going to their home jump, and recruiting them as a companion after this jump ends.

If you take someone as a Cameo Companion with the location items, and then pay for them as a Cameo Companion, they are allowed to leave the boundaries of the property.

fetch quest and mini game won't prevent your boss from giving your orders, or a customer from speaking to you, but it will make them go away quickly.[/spoiler]

i want to add a fourth origin, maybe quest giver or something, and flat out rework the perks, but this is what i have so far.

because honestly, im too lazy to find when i posted it last, so have another.[/QUOTE]
