LOSS OF THE ROYAL WEST INDIA MAIL STEAMER, FORTH

ASDIA MAIL STEAMER, FORTH Assounts have been received at Lloyd's of the loss of the steamer Forth, belonging to the Royal West Indian Mail Company, on the Alacranes, on the 31st of January; but wear happy to state that the crew and passengers were all saved.
The Forth proceeded into the Gulf of Mexico with the mails carried out from England by the Aron. The former ship, according to advices from the captain, dated the 11th of January, was to leave Hawaman the next day for Yens Cruz dreet.
The only information respecting the Forth sent subsequent to that period that has been received, it contained in the following copy of a telegraphic
