

Which Double Stroller is best for you?.

Choosing the correct double stroller depends on many factors and on this site we attempt to review products in a factual manner in the hope that the information will assist you in making the correct decision from your and the children's viewpoint.

A summary of a number of Double Stroller factors worth considering are listed below:

1. Does the double stroller meet all safety regulations and has it got acceptable safety stamps for your state.
2. Is the stroller suited to your children's age group?
3. Are you satisfied with the child safety harness, ease of use and adjustments? Has it plenty of room for the kids.
4. Does the double stroller have an easy to operate the positive braking system?
5. Is the double stroller easy to maneuver and can you access all your favorite places without difficulty? No point in having a unit which will not go thru the narrow aisles in your local supermarket.
6. If you are going to transport your double stroller, it needs to fold quickly and easily into a compact transport mode.
7. Are the covers of your double stroller easily removable for washing and can they be washed in a conventional domestic washing machine.
8. Does your double stroller have secure storage for your belongings etc?
9. Do you have a certain budget for your double stroller? Strollers vary in price depending on the brand name, features, and

- type of unit. Be prepared to pay for a quality running stroller than a budget double stroller.
10. Lightweight strollers are popular because of ease of handling etc, but some of their frames will not take the same abuse as conventional models.
 11. Does the double stroller suit the image you wish to cultivate for yourself.?
 12. Is the stroller a proven model with a reputable company backing it up.

Obviously, your choice will also depend on the age of the kids, your choice of double stroller will be different if you are attempting to cater for 5-month-old twins or a two-year-old and three old that liked to be pushed by the parent.

Over time we will review various products and appreciate your comments and input also. We only review double jogging strollers products which we feel meet the basic criteria laid out above.
