•Yesterday I had my typical squat day. It's a day where I train the movement like a power lifter instead of hitting a full leg workout, mainly just to boost the squat. I had planned on hitting a heavy single, but instead was talking to @mattsurface.physique and he told me to do 3 reps at 345.. so I did it. When I watched the video back, I was upset with my depth and then proceeded to die doing a 3x7 at 315. □
