

Shroob Saga – Arrival

Both of them are taken aback as they hear a familiar voice call out to them on their battlefield. The radiant aura and the Presence they felt could not be mistaken. Princess Daisy felt the grip on her neck loosen quickly as she coughed and was able to breath but what she saw made catching her breath even harder.

“.....”

Rosalina floated down to the both of them. The one who stood before Toadson and Daisy to interrupt their battle revealed herself as someone who they’ve been waiting for. After all the shit that happened there is at least some closure. It took her a while but Rosalina was finally here to maybe end the long battle against Princess Shroob. Toadson looked at her majesty with his usual blankness and Rosalina met his gaze with one of her own.

"What are you doing?.....Daisy is an ally but when i arrive you treat her like a foe?"

Toadson looked intently at her.

"Toadson....."

Her voice is nothing but sweet and motherly but her actions told a different tell.

"I would like a response"

She held her hand out which was ready with magic. What she was gonna do with this magic was made very clear. She would not hesitate to cast a spell if necessary. Toadson knew this and he also knew the consequences of his actions.

".....my apologies your highness, I was in a haze of anger. It won't happen again"

Rosalina lowered her hand to her side.

"These are the most trying times.....bickering with one another will only diminish our goal in stopping Shroob"

She looks up and around at the area.

"She sent you two away so she can deal with the rest herself"

"S-so.....Peach is fine and the other people have a strong Presence."

Rosalina looked at Daisy.

"But not strong enough. They will only stall her"

Daisy grits her teeth and clenches her fist. Rosalina turns and makes a circle in the air. This circle created a portal back to the original battlefield and through it they can hear the faint fighting.

"Daisy....i need to talk to Toadson for a bit. Go"

"Ro-"

"This is not a negotiation.....proceed and we will catch up"

Princess Daisy closes her eyes and knew she wanted to debate. She didn't know why as she felt all three needed to go together but also knew Rosalina and if she had something to say she would have said it. Things were not what they seemed and she could tell which way the wind ways blowing. The portal closed after she jumped through it leaving Toadson and Rosalina alone.

"Toadson be serious with me.....what is your decision?"

The Toad looked at her and nodded as we cut back to the fight briefly. Shroob had just blasted back Brittany and Black but before she could finish them off. She saw a blur and her head was quickly forced down. Daisy appeared above her and tried to stomp her down with her heel but Shroob quickly dodged by jumping back. Peach looked on and came to her own realization.

"Daisy....where is....where is Toadson?"

Daisy didn't say a word as knowing the both of them they would show up any minute. She took her fighting stance as Shroob clapped and laughed.

"You actually did it!?"

"I didn't do anything yet Shroob! I'm back and more than ready to fight you"

Shroob snickered and smiled.

"The Mushroom is gone....what a shame because he was fun to fight"

Peach spoke up again

"Daisy! Where is Toadson!?"

Rosalina back at the Lands listened to Toadson's Plight. While she was here to save this world she also felt like she didn't need to be here to babysit. These are her friends but at the same time even someone of her status had doubts.

"Moreso with Peach than Daisy....they are both strong but Peach's morality is faulty"

"I do agree but her diplomacy is what kept the Kingdom's in a stalemate for years"

"Princess Shroob is not Bowser"

Rosalina got quiet with Toadson's words as he continues.

"Daisy should be allowed to rule her Kingdom but I feel i should have more authority in the Mushroom Kingdom"

"Status of a King?"

"Heavens above no.....I....I have someone i want to help protect. Most of all I want to see if I can prevent another Shroob from happening without relying on the odds to do the right things."

Rosalina was hesitate as she looked at him. It seemed like she was processing what he was saying despite already having a clue what the Toad before her wanted. She then smiled.

"I believe i understand now....and if this doesn't work do you think your other plan will suffice? They all trust you enough but you know more than I do that when it comes time to tell them....."

"They're not gonna stop me if it does or doesn't happen Rosalina"

Shroob crashes against the ground at the might of now four combatants. Once again we see the tables are turning in this battle. Daisy and Peach are getting their groove back and Brittany and Black have not forgotten how to fight. Peach is still worried about Toadson as the way Shroob framed it only meant one thing to her. If Daisy had to do it then she had to do it but that just cannot be the case right? He's a good fighter and a better companion. The thought of all of this made her feel a little sick but then she remembered as she heard that cackling voice. This isn't Daisy, It's not Her and it sure as shit isn't Toadson. It's Shroob.....Princess Shroob is the cog in all of this machine of terror. The one who was the source of all of this chaos and destruction. She wasn't just going to stand idly by and allow her to continue this assault.

"No matter the cost we are stopping her"

Another portal opens and with a blinding, burst and blur of speed, Toadson shoots out and collides with Shroob. She instantly regained her footing as the sixth combatant launched a ball of celestial fire which created a devastating explosion with Shroob in the epicenter.

"R-rosa....."

Peach bit her lip and then grit her teeth as she shed tears. Rosalina looked back and smiled.

"I'm sorry i took too long Princess of The Mushroom Kingdom"

"Well well....."

Shroob shakily gets up out of the crater her opponent made out of her attack. She cracked her knuckles and dusts herself off then looks at the new lineup fighters before her.

"Princess Rosaline.....now things are getting interesting. At first only Daisy could give me a satisfying battle, Then Toadson shows up and i was having so much fun i was getting giddy"

She laughs

"Now i can feel it....ALL.OF.IT"

Rosalina lightly snaps her fingers and changes into her Battle Attire.

"Your presence is amazing.....i feel like i'm going to go mad with excitement!"

She powers up to her fullest. As high as she can go as the weight of her magic could be almost felt through the whole planet.

"Let us have our final dance.....one at a time."

Shroob took a fighting stance.

"Or altogether"
