

Bob Smith

123 Place St
City, PV A1B 2C3
H: (111) 111 -1121 C: (111) 111-1111
Email: bobbias.smitthy@email.place.co

Objective

To work as a graduate nurse in the oncology/hematology unit at Hospital while preparing to take the NCLEX for licensure.

Education

Bachelor of Science in Nursing
University of City

Expected program completion April 2017

Clinical Experience

Hospital City PV (Fall 2016)
Intensive Care Unit/General Medicine 360 clinical hours

- Responsible for high acuity patients in the ICU with minimal preceptor supervision
- Responded to emergency situations and was a key member of the interdisciplinary team
- Responsible for full patient care of six to twelve patients in general medicine

Hospital City PV (Summer 2016)
Inpatient Psychiatry 156 clinical hours

- Refined interpersonal communication skills and its importance in establishing therapeutic relationships
- Collaborated with the interdisciplinary team to create care plans for assigned patients

Paeds City PV (Winter 2016)
Daycare 78 community hours

- Provided nursing care, such as tube feeds and dressing changes, in a daycare setting

Hospital City PV (Winter 2016)
Mother-Baby Unit 78 clinical hours

- Refined patient teaching skills, in addition to caring for mother-baby patients

Hospital City PV (Fall 2015)
Oncology 156 clinical hours

- Provided patient- and family-centered nursing care to oncology patients and their family
- Collaborated with the interdisciplinary team to update care plans for assigned patients

Hospital City PV (Summer 2015)
General Surgery 144 clinical hours

- Learned the foundations of nursing care in the clinical setting
- Assigned to the burn unit, assisting in complex burn dressings, in addition to providing nursing care

Work Experience

McDonald's May 2011 – August 2013
Crew Trainer

- Trained new and current employees in various positions, in addition to crew member tasks
- Worked as a team player and demonstrated leadership skills during rush hours
- Achieved Crew Member of the Month on July 2012

Highlights of Qualifications

- Demonstrated safe, competent, and ethical nursing care as outlined by the CNA Code of Ethics during clinical placements
- Able to work independently, in addition to being a team-player
- Self-motivated to accomplish goals using critical thinking and problem-solving skills
- Dedicated and motivated learner in oncology and palliative nursing care
- Demonstrates excellent time management, organization, and interpersonal skills
- Effectively worked with the interdisciplinary team to provide patient-centered care
- Participates in nursing research studies to progress the development of nursing theory

Licensure and Certifications

- Eligible to take NCLEX upon program completion in May 2017
- CPR/AED Level C attained on August 14, 2016
- TLR Training attained on September 20, 2014
- N95 Respiratory Fit Test attained on March 26, 2015

References

Available upon request