Situational Settings

- Best price reduction is: 90% being with a loved one and 90% being in own loved biome
- Additionally, keep a maximum of 2 NPC together not any more than 2 for extra 10% reduction
- Total: 72.9% of original price
- Keep in mind that you can create artificial biomes if you meet the criteria even in small areas, as some required situations are quite unique to find in a single world
- For those who like to live underground, it should already be enough to let them live 24 tiles below surface in hope of providing both boni
- A complete mass of information is to be found on https://terraria.gamepedia.com/NPCs#Factors affecting Happiness
- All Settings should at least have 120 tiles distance between them to avoid losing the bonus of “loneliness” you could call it
