The Producer Podcast #45 – S3RL – Making Happy Hardcore in Reason
(I'm sure there are many more, and might update this when I have the time)

Notes:

- To be concise, I have not mentioned "S3RL Remix" in any of his remixes, except when S3RL also wrote/sung the original. Songs without "remix" in the name are not necessarily originals.
- Some of the tracks have more than one name. S3RL's slower stuff previously had "Surreal Mix" in the title. This updated version contains all the Surreal Mixes, but under different names, such as "Hands Up Mix", "Hard Mix", "Hardstyle Edit" etc.
- All songs that are not in black text are part of a mix, and therefore can be downloaded for free in bulk, though you will have to pay if you want the song separately.
- "Feat. S3RL" means S3RL only provided the vocals.
- I have decided to put two versions of "Fer Sure" on the list, as after listening closely I hear that the hardcore remix has a louder synth. But I am still not convinced that the hardcore edit of "Be My Game Boy" is anything more than the original sped up.
- If you have any questions about this list, or any corrections, please message reddit user ITouchedTheKore.
- This is the original complete S3RL tracklist, created by ITouchedTheKore
- I said some things I didn't mean to post in the last edit. Typed out my thoughts when I was in a bad mood then uploaded the wrong file. Awkward.
