Dear ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~

Notice of Rejection of Representation: ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~
Vehicle Registration Mark: ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~

Thank you for your formal representation against the above Penalty Charge Notice (PCN). After careful consideration of the details provided we do not feel that there are sufficient grounds to cancel the Penalty Charge Notice. This letter is issued as a formal Notice of Rejection of your representation.

We have rejected your representations because your vehicle was observed on a loading restriction during the prescribed hours. This restriction is clearly marked by yellow lines and kerb markings. It is not permitted to park on this restriction even in the circumstances outlined.

Your comments are noted however please be advised that you are not permitted to stop or wait on this restriction even in the circumstances you have outlined in your representation. I am confident the PCN has been issued correctly.

You now have the following options;

- Pay the outstanding amount of £55.00 within 14 days of the date this letter was served (the date it was delivered) after this point the full charge of £110.00 will become due.
- Or you can appeal to the Independent Parking Adjudicator (Parking and Traffic Appeals Service) using the enclosed appeal form. This must be done no later than 28 days of this letter being served. An adjudicator, who is independent of the council, will then consider your appeal and make a final decision about whether your appeal should be allowed or rejected by the Council. Their decision is legally binding on both you and the council. Should the adjudicator reject your appeal you will be liable to pay the full penalty charge rate of £110.00, as at this stage you are unable to pay the 50% reduced amount.
