These tracks are also included on the CD release of FILTH (see below).

Stay Here / Big Strong Boss / Blackout / Power For Power // Freak / Right Wrong / Thank You / Weakling / Gang / Speak * / Laugh * / Sensitive Skin * / Take Advantage *

* appears on CD and CS only; originally released on SWANS EP (see above). The bonus tracks are in a different order on the cassette release.

Notes:

The 1990 UK LP re-release was also available in a limited edition of 500 numbered copies which had a white sleeve featuring artwork by Gira. These sleeves contained Neutral (N11) pressings rather than Young God (YG LP 1) pressings. Some copies of YG LP 1 were printed on pale pink vinyl. A limited edition clear vinyl version of the 1990 Young God LP exists. The cover is labelled as YG 001-1 but for some reason the label on the vinyl itself belongs to YG EP 1 (see above). This version of the record has the word UTOPIA etched into the vinyl's inner ring. All tracks were remastered for the CD re-release.

Band line-up:

Michael Gira - vocals, bass, tapes
Roli Mosimann - drums, percussion
Norman Westberg - guitar
Harry Crosby - bass
Jonathan Kane - drums, percussion

US

New Mind (Version)

Notes:

Flexidisc included with Reflex magazine, Volume 1, Issue 2, February 1988. To be played at 33 1/3.

This version of "New Mind" is similar to the "purple version" on the black LOVE WILL TEAR US APART 12" (which is equivalent to the "acoustic version" on VARIOUS FAILURES). However, according to Jarboe, it is a slightly different mix that is unavailable anywhere else. It was recorded in December, 1987 at Fun City Studio.

The CD-R, sold exclusively through the swans.pair.com website, contains the song on the original flexidisc along with two other versions from the same sessions which were mastered slightly differently.

Intro / Blind Love / Like A Drug / Blood And Honey / New Mind /

Beautiful Reprise Backstab

Notes:

This is a live release, originally recorded with a Sony Walkman on the 1987 European tour.

The vinyl version comes with a 2' x 3' poster with photos of SWANS performing.

LOVE ONE and LOVE ONE CD have completely different cover art. The LP

has a colour photograph of MG and a gang of Eastern European kids all carrying Swans flyers. The CD has yellow text on a black background and no pictures.

The order of "Blind Love" and "Hello To All Our Friends" is reversed on

the LOVE ONE CD.

The Atavistic re-release features the same cover photograph as the original LP. The CD was extensively remastered by Michael Gira, and is

nearly five minutes shorter than the original.

"Trust Me" is the ninth track on the Atavistic CD, but does not appear

in the track list.

However, this version of "Our Love Lies" *does* appear on the CHILDREN OF GOD/WORLD OF SKIN re-release (see below). The "purple version" of "New Mind" appears as the "acoustic version" on VARIOUS FAILURES (see below); the "black version" of "Love Will Tear Us Apart" appears there as the "j. version"; "Trust Me" appears there without a title change.

This is a 3:58 edit of the 4:09 LP version of the song. Both the 12" and the CD5" had the Robert Mapplethorpe photograph on the cover printed upside down. "No Cruel Angel" is sung by Jarboe with slightly different lyrics on the THIRTEEN MASKS album (see below), under the title "In An Open Sea".

Notes:

This promotional release comes in a generic sleeve with a sticker that says: "SWANS -- SAVED -- produced by Bill Lasiwell [sic] and Michael R. Gira". The cover for the CD is white with black text; for the vinyl it is black with white text.

The length of the song is incorrectly listed as 3:48 on the 12", even though the song itself is the same 3:58 edit found on the commercial 12" single.

Notes:

This record was actually sold by Columbia House at one point. The Columbia House version is identical to the commercial version except for a small "CRC" on the back cover. There appears to be a bootleg (?) version of this CD which includes "Love Will Tear Us Apart" as the eleventh track. This version was spotted in Poland and looks almost identical to the legitimate release, but it includes the second catalogue number CD 583 941. Rather than "copyright control except:", the label on the bootleg reads "copyright control concept:". In late 2002 I began to receive reports of a European bootleg of DMCG 6047 on a label called Chrome. It includes "Love Will Tear Us Apart" (with Gira vocals) as a hidden bonus track. That one song sounds like it has been mastered from the vinyl. An official, but limited, re-release of this album was sold through the Swans and Young God web sites in 2003. See the entry for

UK
x CD	1990	[no label]		NON CD 1
UK

Notes:

Live "official bootleg", recorded on THE BURNING WORLD tour.
There is no tracklisting provided; however, a little slip of paper comes with the vinyl edition with the following titles printed upon it:

Let It Come Down / Blood On Your Hands / A Young Girl Needs /
We Will Survive // See No More / Still A Child / (She's A)
Universal Emptiness / Miracle Of Love

Note, however, that two songs are misnamed: "A Young Girl Needs" is actually called "A Girl In Need". The song has not been officially released anywhere else, although it exists on live tapes from this era. Also, "We Will Survive" is the incorrect title given for the track "Will We Survive", which was released later on WHITE LIGHT FROM THE MOUTH OF INFINITY (see below).

Love Will Save You / Song for the Sun // Song for Dead Time /

Notes:

Promotional "sampler". This release doesn't actually have a title; it comes in a plain black sleeve with the group name, catalogue number, track listing, and a label reading "For Promotional Use Only."

The version of "Song for Dead Time" is the Jarboe version which appears on the WHITE LIGHT FROM THE MOUTH OF INFINITY album (see above).

There are rumours of a similar sampler that contains only the two tracks "Love Will Save You" and "Will We Survive". Can anybody confirm its existence?

Notes:

An advance promo for this album exists, with the catalogue number INV 035. It has no cover art. It comes in a jewel case with a tracklisting on the back and a message stating "In stores: January 23, 1995". A small, basic Swans discography (not this one :) ) is included.

A booklet was distributed with promotional copies of this CD in the UK. It was eight pages, about 7" x 9", and included a short biography, a discography (also not this one :) ), lyrics, and excerpts of reviews dated between 1982 and 1995. I do not know if any of this material overlaps or coincides with the promotional material for INV 035.

YG CD 009 has the secondary catalogue number 381.0571.2.

The live version of "I Am The Sun" on the 2002 re-release is the same recording as the one found on the 7" single by the same name (on which see below).

Notes:

"This is the final Swans studio album."

Some UK copies of this CD have the catalogue number YG CD 010 burned into the centre ring. Otherwise they look identical to the American versions.

A promotional version of this release exists. It has the same catalogue number but is packaged in a slimline jewel case. Instead of a booklet it has a plain sheet of paper printed with the track listing and "for promotional use only".

The UK version of this promo comes in a gatefold PVC sleeve with a similar slip of paper.

Some copies of this CD contained an insert that listed a number of future/upcoming Swans and related releases, including SWANS ARE DEAD and THE BODY LOVERS. One of the listed entries is called RARITIES - EXQUISITE OBSCURITIES SINGLE CD, and may be referring to the record that was eventually released as FOREVER BURNED.

The 2001 re-release comes in a jewel case.

The back of the sleeve says that the recording was made on 12 March 1997 even though the title of the song says 1996.
This release has two additional catalogue numbers for some reason: FREE 3 and DIE STADT 012.
The version of "I Am The Sun" on this single was later released as a bonus track on the reissue of THE GREAT ANNIHILATOR (on which see above).

Notes:

This is a re-release of two earlier albums with different cover art.

For band line-ups, see the write-ups for those albums above. This release usually comes in a cardboard digipak, but there is also a jewel case version. Some copies of the jewel case version contained an insert that listed a number of future/upcoming Swans and related releases, including SOUNDTRACKS FOR THE BLIND, SWANS ARE DEAD, and THE BODY LOVERS.

One of the listed entries is called RARITIES - EXQUISITE OBSCURITIES SINGLE CD, and may be referring to an early incarnation of what was to become FOREVER BURNED.

A promotional version of this release exists, with the catalogue number ALP76CDPR / YG02PR. The back cover insert is black and white with the band name and the title, copyright information, and press quotes from 1987. The tracks are the same as those on the reissue.

"I'll Swallow You" contains "Damn You To Hell", as the two tracks appear on the NEW MIND 12", but it isn't listed here.

The version of "Our Love Lies" from the original CHILDREN OF GOD has been replaced by the one on the LOVE WILL TEAR US APART 12". "Breathing Water" has been changed slightly from the version on

SHAME, HUMILITY, REVENGE -- some vocals have vanished. Finally, the sample at the end of "Trust Me", which was a separate track on the original

CHILDREN OF GOD, has been merged in with it here.

The re-release was itself reissued in a jewel case edition in 2002.

The people who took out the ad in the magazine must have misunderstood the nature of what they had. According to Jarboe, Swans never collaborated with Almond himself, although the string section of his band, The Willing Sinners, did contribute to some early Skin recordings.

Notes:

This is not a Swans release, but a collection of cover songs (and two tribute tracks) by the band's fans. It was sold through the Internet with Jarboe and Michael Gira's blessings. Fifty copies of 500 total produced included an extra CD-R of bonus material, including audio of an interview with Michael Gira and an after-the-fact collaboration between Jarboe and Emmanuel Nektarios Bellas. Mr. Bellas set to music Jarboe reading a section of her short story entitled "The Eucharist". For tracklisting and ordering information, please visit: <http://swans.infin8ty.com/tribute.html>

UK

A Screw / Anything For You / Coward / A Hanging / A Long Slow

Screw / Fool

Notes:

The sleeve doesn't state where the material comes from, but tracks 1-4 seem to come from the same source as tracks 3-6 on PUBLIC CASTRATION IS A GOOD IDEA (see above). The music for the track "A Long Slow Screw" is a slightly longer version of "A Screw" (the dubby, mainly instrumental version). "Fool" is performed by Jarboe & Gira in a similar arrangement to that on PUBLIC CASTRATION, but it isn't the same recording. Sightings of a bootleg DVD of this video have been reported.

"Kiss Me Goodbye", released in 1984, has "Fool #2" on the soundtrack, while "Go To Hell", from 1986, contains "Another You". (Both songs were originally released on HOLY MONEY, on which see above.) Swans are not listed in the credits in this particular video, but at recent screenings of Zedd's films in NYC, "Music by SWANS" has been added to the film credits.

Michael is "slightly disguised" and does not use his real name in the credits. (The name that he does use is "John Sarfell", which is also a pseudonym that he uses in the art credits for WHITE LIGHT FROM THE MOUTH OF INFINITY and in the musician credits for THE GREAT ANNIHILATOR.)

Notes:

The first edition of this CD was limited to 1000 copies and came in a digipak.

The rerelease is remastered and comes in a jewel case. It is limited to 500 copies, plus some extra copies for promotional purposes.

Jarboe's intention was for this song to be significantly less noisy than the track that appears on the first edition of the compilation. However, the person who copied it and sent the DAT to Middle Pillar did not send the right tape, and there was no time to change the track in time for final mastering. The version on the re-release is of much better quality.
