

name

2A Honours Life Science Biochemistry

Phone number | email

Summary of Qualifications

- Experienced with a variety of lab techniques such as acid-base titration, spectrophotometry, and vacuum filtration through completion of numerous academic labs
- Proficient with a mixture of lab equipment such as volumetric pipettes, centrifuge, and burettes
- Familiar with Microsoft Office, Latex, HTML, MathCAD, WHMIS and CSS
- Precise analytical skills developed through academics and volunteering experiences by continuously retrieving data, organizing it, and plotting it on to reports
- Hardworking detail oriented worker who enjoys performing difficult tasks under pressure situations
- Exceptional team player who excels at leading other colleagues to efficiently finish the task at hand through strong communication skills

Relevant Experience

Hospital

city

Fracture Clinic Assistant

June 2017-August 2017

- Organized data and appointment times of roughly a hundred patients by detailing their ID numbers and causes of injury thus reducing patient wait times
- Provided various forms of support, such as removal and addition of a cast and access to medical devices to ensure optimal patient safety

Complex Care Physiotherapy Assistant

June 2017-August 2017

- Engaged in aiding elderly patients through planning exercises targeted at improving muscle movement, spinal posture, and range of motion
- Maintained professional care upon transferring patients from their beds to their assistive devices assuring the utmost safety
- Properly prepared equipment to ensure that elderly patients use them in a secure manner

Health Integration Network

city

Assistant

July- August 2014

- Facilitated distribution of funds by generating regular reports that detailed the surpluses or deficits on the funding status for hospitals; doubled the speed of fund management
- Received funding requests from various hospitals and accurately entered into the database to ensure organization and accuracy
- Organized and formatted master Excel sheets to reflect updated balances of funding available for hospitals

Additional Experience

Federation of Students at University of Waterloo (FEDS)

Waterloo

Representative

September 2017

- Managed a variety of exciting events such as the BMH Carnival and Welcome Week Student Breakfast to allow students to ease into the new school year
- Contributed kind and helpful advice to new students attending the University of Waterloo

Coffee shop

city

Barista and Cashier

July 2015-August 2017

- Ensured customer satisfaction by being detailed oriented in business finances and monetary transactions between myself and the customer
- Worked hard as a team-player to establish a smooth and efficient environment
- Demonstrated great communication skills to attend to customer orders and various requests

Extra Curriculars and Leadership Positions

Science Society Coffee and Donut Shop at University of Waterloo

Waterloo

Supervisor

September 2017-Present

- Part of a two-person team that actively communicated with one another to help increase efficiency and productivity within the shop
- Practiced interpersonal skills by encouraging environment-friendly decisions to customers and learning about their academic studies
- Handled business invoices from various food shipment companies and monetary transactions from many different customers

Health Occupations Students of America-Canada

Thornhill

Mentor and Competitor

July-August 2013

- Mentored several younger high school students by teaching them about pathology, and giving them guidance on how to prepare themselves for the competition
- Competed in the Canadian wide competition ranging all across Canada in a knowledge based exam format with varying topics
- Utilized interpersonal skills while working in a team environment

Education

University of Waterloo

Waterloo

Candidate for Bachelor of Honours Science (BSc)

September 2016-Present

Majoring in Biochemistry